Sense and Nonsense

THE WORLD WANTS YOU TO WIN...

Maxwell Drake, the Indianapolis publisher, has written a book about what makes folks tick—a entitled: "People—How To Get Them To Do What You Want Them To Do." The book contains the results of years of experience in selling people in person and through the mails, and is the result of an idea that the world always is trying to hold us back, that people want to see us fail instead of succeed. You'll be interested in Drake's slant on the matter:

"The world always is a winner. The instinct of hero-worship is inherent in us all. The man who puts up a clean fight and comes out on top counts on the crowd. We want you to win! Look at the tons of letters that we shower on you after you have won a contest. And it isn't solely a matter of pride either. Are you going to make a speech? The audience wants you to be a wow. Are you a scientist working in some cluttered laboratory? A thousand eyes are turned to you with generous accolade. Yes, the world wants you to win. We need more successes."

KEEP EVERYTHING

BY CLYDE LEWIS

A Scotchman, learning that a certain doctor charged $5 for the first visit and only $2 for the second, decided to go to the doctor's office one day and say:

Doctor—I don't remember you. At any rate, I don't know your name. I'm here to see you for a fee of $5.

Scotchman—Not at all, my friend. Not at all.

Doctor—Just continue your last prescription for another week, then, $2 please.

STAMP NEWS

WAR will not interrupt Switzerland's annual Youth series of stamps. The 1940 semi-postal issue will picture Gottfried Keller, 19th century poet and novelist and typical of the cantons of Thurgau, Solothurn and Zug. The stamps will be placed on sale in December.

Portugal gives philately an air-view of the 1940 World Exposition in a new single value. The stamp is the fifth of the Exposition group.

Argentina's new airmail series includes five values in three designs. The stamps picture the silhouettes of an airplane against the background of an airmail plane in flight, and Mercury and a plane.

FOREIGN WAR VETS TO MEET TONIGHT

Thomas Morrison, senior vice commander of the State Department and the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Connecticut, and Department Inspector, Arthur Bolton will make a regular visit this evening to Anderson-Shea Post, VFW at the local club at Manchester Green.

Vice Commander Morrison will speak to the post on recent activities conducted and events planned by the Department throughout the state. The regular inspection of the full committee will be made at the meeting.

Commander Valluzzi requests a full attendance of members for this evening's meeting at 8 o'clock.

DAILY PATTERN

Pattern 8834

Surprise your "little daughter" with this pretty skating outfit! All the girls are wearing them and wanting them, and with pattern No. 8834, you can make the suit at home in a few hours and at a fraction of the ready-made price. Note the pretty, clinging lines of the Princesse dress. It includes hood and skating pants, and you can make it up in her favorite color, for the skirt is lined in a contrasting color, also used in the pants.

The same pattern can be used for a party dress, giving her two favorite outfits for her Christmas tree. For the skating suit use velveteen or corduroy if you want to be very dashing, and for the party dress a smooth rayon crepe. The pattern No. 8834 is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 54-inch fabric. Skirts: 3-8 yard. Party dress: 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch and 2-3 yard contrast.

For a pattern of this attractive model send 15c in coin, your name, address, style, number and size to The Pattern Book, Inc., 1067 Ave. of the Americas, New York, N. Y.

Everything smart! Fashions for everybody from little size 2 to stately size 18. Wearable, practical, practical versions that will fit right into your daily life and give endless satisfaction. That's what you'll find in the new Pattern Book. Send for it this very day—right now!
