Thanksgiving Thoughts...
It seems a pity that so many of us have to live a position before we learn to appreciate it. When we are well, we take our good health for granted. If we are working, we sometimes feel our lot is hard. But when illness overtakes us and we lose our position, we soon realize we were fortunate when we were able to work.
Cats and people are funny animals. Cats have four paws, but they only use three. They carry tails and a lot of people have cats. All cats have fur coats. Some people have fur coats and the ones that don't have fur coats say things about the ones who do have them.
The following essay on "cats" was turned in by a ten-year old pupil:
Cats and people are funny animals. Cats have four paws, but they only use three. They carry tails and a lot of people have cats. All cats have fur coats. Some people have fur coats and the ones that don't have fur coats say things about the ones who do have them.

Neighbors—Have you much room in your new apartment? Mrs. Newby—Goodness, no! My kitchen and dining-room are so small that I have to live on condensed milk and short-bread.
It takes time to be educated: Friend—When your son has completed his studies what will he be?
Main—Oh, about 78 years of age I should think.
Advice to After-Dinner speakers: Stand up to be seen, Speak up to be heard, Shut up to be appreciated.
The longer we live in a town, the more it means to us. In addition to the present there are the accumulated associations of the past.
Make this Thanksgiving Day one of the best you have known. Thank God for your many blessings. Help those less fortunate, if you can. Do not be a chronic grumbler. Develop the cheerful habit. It is easy, if you only try.
Cats and people are funny animals. Cats have four paws, but they only use three. They carry tails and a lot of people have cats. All cats have fur coats. Some people have fur coats and the ones that don't have fur coats say things about the ones who do have them.
