Speaking of Preparedness

Anyhow, one may well wonder the probability of it during these last three years very able-bodied Chinese in China had a half a dozen hands growing that the Japanese would have been out of that country by now.

Hatching Defense Eggs

We confess that we are becoming considerably bewildered over the status of our national defense effort. We are told by responsible people who ought to know a great deal about the situation.

No Joking Allowed

There is one fellow who isn't supposed to be permitted to have any fun. It's the editorial writer. Just let him try to do and somebody generally jumps on his neck.

Crimes of Youth

The news article printed in this newspaper on Thursday stating that a "wave of petty thieves" has struck Manchester is not a mere cry of alarm and dismay.

Washington Daybook

Washington—It isn't always true that even the noisiest congressional observers can detect a change in the legislative program.

Health and Diet Advice

Individuals suffering from a rheumatic toxemia which has poisoned the body are often proud of the fact that they are able to eat a delicacy of "sliced turkey."

Open Forum

Editor, The Evening Herald: I take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the editorial published in your issue of December 11, 1940.

Deaths Last Night

Albena—Princess Maria of Greece, 64, a sister of the late King Constantine and an ex-queen of Greece, died at the Hotel Excelsior, Athens, Greece, last night.

Urges Stage and Screen To Become More Friendly

Hollywood, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Burt Lancaster, the actor, says he'd like to see the stage and screen stop treating each other like strangers.

Condition of State Roads

Construction in force in the State of Connecticut announced by the Connecticut Highway Department for the week ending December 21, 1940.

Man About Manhattan

New York—When I linger in the vicinity of the theater, I am reminded of the fact that I have seen a number of the same faces in the same places.

Escapes Penalty For U-turn

Milwaukee—Tom White, an engineering student, was fined $10 for making a U-turn on a city street.

Best Sellers

There are eight more stopping days between now and that Day. Americans have been taught to buy books from lists of best sellers.

Quotations

America is not only disarmed but its rearmament appears very far from being complete.

DUDE COLLEGE

Chapter XXIV. Ronnie Bailey darted across the smoke-hazed living room and opened the door leading to the big hall.

"What's the matter?" he called to the woman who was sitting at the table.
