12 American Ferry Fliers Die in Crash

22 Killed in Take-Off Accident, Including Purvis, Chairman of British Supply Council

London, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Twelve American fliers enlisted in the transatlantic bomber ferry service were killed yesterday in a take-off crash in which 22 persons in all died, including the Rt. Hon. Arthur Purvis, chairman of the British Supply Council in North America.

The crash, announced by the R. A. F. Ferry Command today, followed an almost identical ferry service accident Sunday in which another 22 were killed, making the weeks' toll 44 lives, including those of 19 Americans.

None Escaped in Crash

Not a man escaped yesterday's accident. The big plane, which was taking the Americans back to America in a group so that they would fly more safely home to Britain, burst into flames immediately on crashing.

Among the American victims was Capt. Joseph Creighton MacKerri, of Kansas City, who was the lone survivor of a crash in Newfoundland last February in which Sir Frederick Banting, co-discoverer of insulin, and two others were killed.

Nine Canadians in Dead

The dead included nine Canadians among them Purvis and one Englishman. Eleven of the Americans were pilots, and one was a radio operator. The other two were radio operators, one was a pilot.

The victims were listed as follows: Capt. J. C. Mackey, Kansas City, Mo.; Capt. J. E. Kesteven, Europe; Capt. J. J. Kesteven, Oakland, Calif.; Capt. E. B. Anderson, Merrick, N. Y.; Capt. M. J. Wether, Jamestown, N. J.; Capt. G. H. Hill, Royal Oak, Mich.; Capt. E. Hamel, Birmingham, Ala.; Capt. F. Lee, Jr., Frederic, Md.; Capt. R. C. Fry, Fort Worth, Tex.; Flying Officer E. W. Watson, Torrance, Calif.

Press Search For Thieves

Gang Suspected of Taking Sewing Machines From Four States

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Police and Federal operatives pressed a search today for members of a gang suspected of having taken hundreds of sewing machines from shops in four states where the machines were being used on national defense orders.

District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey's office yesterday announced the arrest of four Negroes on charges of having received 16 of the machines.

Find Cache of Machines

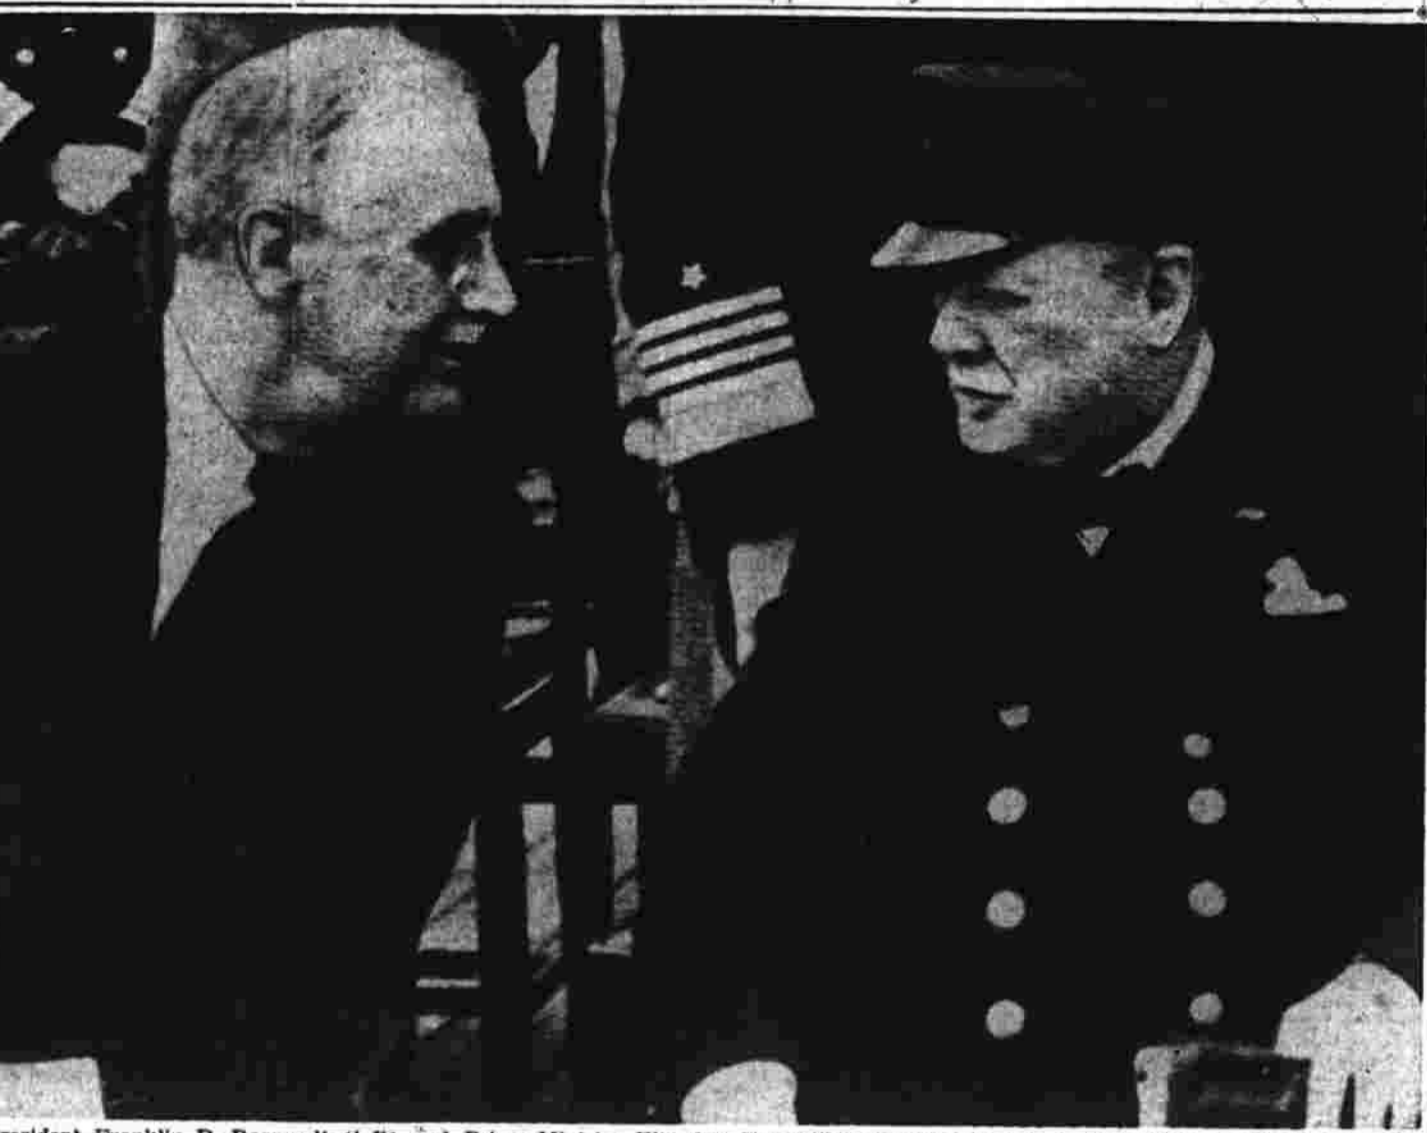

Assistant District Attorney Edward W. Scully said that police found a cache of 92 machines in a vacant store adjoining the New York shop and that they tentatively identified 54 as having been stolen.

Because the thefts were disruptive of the national defense orders, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation joined city detectives in the investigation. The detectives said they believed machines worth $35,000 had been taken during the last year.

The district attorney's office said thefts of machines had been reported by shops in New York City, Philadelphia, Trenton, Camden, New Brunswick and Paterson, N. J.; Middletown and Shelton, Conn.

Special Fund To Add Tanks Is Approved

Joint Senate and House Committee Agrees to Provide $750,000,000 For Ordnance Needed.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Senate and House Joint Committee on Appropriations today approved a special fund of $750,000,000 for the manufacture of additional tanks and other ordnance of "extreme importance to the security of the country," a joint Senate-House Committee agreed today to provide a special fund of $750,000,000 for this purpose.

Senator Adams (D., Colo.) said the conference group agreed to provide that much of a $1,247,000,000 fund, previously approved by the House, but eliminated when the Senate passed a $6,538,456,000 supplemental defense bill yesterday.

They apparently meant the German wedge reported following down the west bank of the river had control of some crossings while the remainder of the waterway, forming a bow ending at the Black Sea.

Adams said the conference also agreed to limit to $2,500,000,000 the $4,000,000,000 previously approved by the Senate, "confidential" emergency expenditures for which President Roosevelt would not have to account to Congress.

Stimson's views were made known in a letter to Chairman Glass (D., Va.) of the committee. The only hint as to the possible use of the special authority was the statement by Democratic leaders that the money probably

Report 4th Nazi Major Drive; Another Fight Seen in Offing

Soviet Troops in Western Ukraine Already Doomed; Claim All of River Crossings Held.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Germans predicted today there was still another fight in the offing in the western Ukraine with Soviet troops not already enclosed between the Bug and the Dniester rivers. But those troops are already doomed, these sources said, for they are receiving the constant attention of the Luftwaffe, which also is within striking distance of the huge power dams at Dnepropetrovsk. They also claimed that all crossings of the Dnieper river south of Kiev for several hundred miles were in German hands.

They apparently meant the German wedge reported following down the west bank of the river had control of some crossings while the remainder of the waterway, forming a bow ending at the Black Sea.

Adams said the conference also agreed to limit to $2,500,000,000 the $4,000,000,000 previously approved by the Senate, "confidential" emergency expenditures for which President Roosevelt would not have to account to Congress.

Plan to Send Bid to Stalin For Meeting

Conference Would Not Only Discuss Supplies For Russia, But Also Position of Allies

London, Aug. 15.—(AP)—President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill were reported today to be planning to send a communication to Joseph Stalin proposing a meeting in Moscow between Stalin and his war chiefs on one hand and high British and American officials on the other.

London sources said that the meeting would discuss not only the types of supplies which the United States and Britain are to send to Russia and in what amount they are to be shipped, but also the strategic position of the Red Army.

The Soviet Army's position in Siberia also is to be discussed, it was said.

The position of the U. S. R. E. H. is also to be discussed, it was said.

Indicates Announcement

He indicated there might be some announcement soon concerning Russia, possibly envisaging a new meeting of American, British and Russian experts on the war needs of the Soviet Union.

The meeting, presided over by the British, would be the first Anglo-American action of a decisive nature which was in the offing to implement the joint declaration of peace aims.

Chicago—The day when one suit or one hat served for all occasions is gone, many men get by with two or three suits and a couple of hats worn by these days.

Strong Plan for Peace
It is analysis of four departments of the world's peace movement which the Fourteen Points of another war by the nations which seek only permanent disposition for the world's peace.

There are, at the beginning, vital differences in setting. In early 1918, there were two separate answers, one by President Wilson and one by the fourteen points.

Today, there is only one answer to whatever proposals Germany may make. It is the one answer jointly arrived at by the United States and Britain.

Point by point, there is in the modern declaration an atmosphere of greater, surer strength and unity of purpose than was ever manifested behind the Fourteen Points.

Notably, this strength is aided by the fact that Roosevelt and Churchill did not attack the question of territorial adjustments with specific geographical pledges.

At the time, there were no pledges of territorial promises. The obvious fact was that the promises of peace were made directly and specifically with individual territorial promises.

Today, the obvious fact is that the promises of peace were made directly and specifically with individual territorial promises.

On territorial questions, the United States and Britain are in complete agreement. They declare that they want no "aggrandizement."

Exactly because they are still at peace, they are able to give the world the most complete assurance of their peace.

Man About Manhattan

New York-Cold feet. That's what I have to think of when I see the late Edna Leonard, who died in New York the other day.

Such a finding is a tribute to the faith of the American people, and also to its good common sense. For the public knows that the revenue must be obtained one way or another.

It is to Roosevelt and Churchill that the revenue must be obtained one way or another. It is to Roosevelt and Churchill that the revenue must be obtained one way or another.

The prospect of disarmament and a general system of security, Roosevelt and Churchill link together. And here they make a practical reservation.

After the last war, the victors made two equally definite pledges. One was to guarantee peace good enough to guarantee itself.

Tomatoes Late Gardeners Say

Local Home Gardeners are hoping the latest crop of tomatoes will ripen within the next few days, as the ground is still dry in many localities.

Thus far many of the growers report some vegetables later than last year. Cucumbers and tomatoes are not ripening fast as one can ascertain by watching the market days and seeing the high prices. Last year at this time these two vegetables were almost in the mass production stage.

Outside of these, other vegetables came along at the normal time. Beans, beets, carrots, lettuce, radishes and early cabbage were prolific this summer despite the late planting season. Early potatoes will be dug next week in many home gardens. Swiss chard and spinach of the various kinds were in good quality and quantity, the gardeners report.

On the bigger farms in this area the owners report that tomatoes are not ripening as fast as they should. One grower said this morning that in one row of 150 plants he only gathered a peach basket of fruit yesterday.

Endives are awaiting a wet day to be transplanted as is late lettuce to head up. Corn is coming along good. It has been harvested for the past three weeks and those who planted successive crops will enjoy the ears for the next two weeks.

Absence of disease and corn borers is noticed by Home Gardeners this year. Rust was noticed in several gardens on corn and on tomatoes the horned green tomato worm was prevalent. Black flies were also prevalent on all vegetables early this summer. Japanese beetles are swarming in some parts of the town and are absent in others. Mexican bean beetles are easily controlled now that the gardeners use sprays.

Taken in all Home Gardeners are glad they planted this year as vegetables are high priced and will be this winter. Shortage of farm help is already being felt in the canning industry.

Human Pole Cat Here To Practice His Art

What might be termed a human "pole cat" has been noticed in Manchester within the past few days. A man, whom no one seems to recognize as having local connections, has drifted into town, bringing with him a habit somewhat puzzling to people who watch him for any period of time.

He spends hours leaning against the nearest convenient utility pole, making grimaces at passersby and occasionally laughing outright at them. Wherever he is, and he has been seen in several different parts of the town, he will find some location that interests him and will rest against the nearest pole, and there, for hours eye what it is that appeals to him.

Police Court

Andover Autoist Given Time to Get Lawyer; Other Cases Decided.

A charge of drunken driving, preferred against Lari Genovesi of Andover, was continued in town court this morning to permit the accused to retain counsel. He was arrested last night on Foster street after the erratic manner of operation of his car had attracted attention of police.

Continued to September 15 was the reckless driving charge preferred a month ago against Nat N. Schwedel of 20 Westminster road after his car and the motor cycle of a state policeman were in collision on East Center street.

Intoxication Charge. Lomina Joyal, of 221 North Main street, was granted a suspension of judgment on payment of costs on an intoxication count. She was arrested last night after police had been called to her address.

Two charges were granted suspension of judgment in the case of Anthony George, Main street service station operator, held for making a U turn on Main street, and for failure to carry his operator's license. George testified he made the turn after a car he was driving threatened to throw a rear wheel. He was going south on Main, he said, halted and backed into Park street, then driving across northward again on Main street.

Police yesterday afternoon investigated two slight accidents in connection with which no arrests were made. In one, a bus operated by Gustave Wais of 21 Hollister street was in collision with the truck of Edward Anderson of 39 Chapel street, New Haven, on Main street just north of the Post Office.

In the second mishap a truck driven by Charles H. Peckham of Andover and a car operated by Miss Muriel E. Nixon of 366 Hilliard street came together.
