Reception Committee

About Town

Townsend Club No. 2 will hold its monthly setback party tomorrow evening at the home of Arthur Palmer, 125 Oakland street. Prizes will be awarded to the winners and refreshments served. A brief business meeting at eight o'clock sharp will precede the card party.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holden of 151 1/2 John street have returned to their home after a week's stay at the Hotel Commodore, New York City.

Mrs. Walter R. Hobby of 66 Henry street has as her guest for ten days, her friend and former school teacher, Miss Ellen Bennett of Orange, Mass.

Girls Scouts of Troop 6 of the South Methodist church who plan to attend service Sunday in a group are asked to meet at 10:30 a. m. in front of the church. Girls of other troops affiliated with South Church will be welcome to join with Troop 6 if they so desire.

Non-commissioned officers school for Company H State Guards will be held tomorrow night at the VFW Home, Manchester Green. Any member of the unit may attend the school.

In town court this morning James Ambrosini of 87 Center street was fined $100 and costs on a drunken driving count. He was arrested at 11:45 p. m. yesterday on Main street. The accused was released from jail only last June after serving a term for a theft at Legion hall.

King David Lodge of Odd Fellows will open its meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock. At the close, a special rehearsal on the second degree will be conducted. All those who are taking part are requested to be present promptly. On Friday evening Oct. 31 the second degree will be exemplified by King David Lodge No. 31 on a large class of candidates, this being a meeting of Districts No. 20 and 24. A very large attendance is expected.

A convoy of eight ambulances escorted by state police, passed through the center this morning travelling eastward toward Providence. Each ambulance was marked, denoting it a British War Relief unit and each wore both United States and British flags. It is thought the units are being transferred to take part in a fund raising campaign but further details were not available today. The ambulances were painted a dark green and did not appear to be new.

Temple Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a food sale in its hall, Tuesday, October 28.

The Golden Rule Club of the Tascottville Congregational church will have a costume Halloween party in the church parlors tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. C. A. Goodrich of 81 Robert Road, president of the Hartford County Republican Women's association has called a meeting of the board for Tuesday, October 28, two o'clock in the afternoon at 223 Ashmun street. The legislative and membership chairmen will be present and tea will be served by Mrs. F. J. Ayers, chairman of hospitality and her committee.

The Polish American Girls has held their team will hold its first practice this evening at the East Side Y at 8:30. Any local girls of Polish descent who wish to join the team, or try out for a position, report at the gymnasium to-night.

Brandeis Memorial Service Speaker

Judge Jacob Schwolsky

A special memorial service in memory of the late Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis will be held at Temple Beth Shalom tomorrow night at eight o'clock. Judge Schwolsky who has been a member of the Hartford County Bar for the past 20 years and is now a judge of the town court of West Hartford will be the guest speaker on this occasion. Judge Schwolsky is also the president of the Connecticut Zionist Region and a member of the Administrative Committee of the Zionist Organization of America. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the Memorial Hour.

The Polish American Girls has held their team will hold its first practice this evening at the East Side Y at 8:30. Any local girls of Polish descent who wish to join the team, or try out for a position, report at the gymnasium to-night.

Legion Views State Guards

Company G Inspected By Its Sponsor and Social Follows.

The Legion sponsored State Guard Company G, in command of Captain John L. Jenney, was inspected last night at the state armory in the presence of 150 Legionnaires, members of the Legion Auxiliary and friends.

Company G took the floor and was given physical drill with rifles after which they were given manual of arms and a 15-minute drill, the latter under command of Lieut. Joseph LaBelle.

Make His Appearance The unit made a fine appearance on the floor and in the execution of the various movements of the drill schedule and calisthenics. Previous to the floor exhibition the company stood clothing and equipment inspection in the company locker room by 1st Lieut. Richard E. Miller of the Brigade Detachment, Hartford.

Company Inspected Following the drill exhibition at the armory, the company was inspected by Commander Otto Heller of Dilworth-Cornell post and his officer.

Refreshments were served the officers and members of the company and members of the Legion.

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY! LOBSTER DINNER $1.00 Delicious Sunday Dinners! Hotel Sheridan

In exterior styling, this house patterned after the ever-popular Cape Cod Cottages. The blinds on the front door as well as on the windows add a note of individuality.

Its floor plan is an example of the compactness which makes modern small homes so popular with former apartment dwellers. The bedroom quarters are in a wing by themselves and can be shut off from the rest of the house by a door.

The kitchen and dinette are separated by a partition. As a shelf about four feet high, this partition can be put to good use in serving between the kitchen and dinette. An attractive feature of the dinette is a linen closet which will obviate the common complaint of the housewife of "too little space to put things in."

The living room is large and offers many opportunities for decorating. Interest is centered around the fireplace in the middle of the back wall. This fireplace offers a warm invitation to the guest as he enters the front door. The two side windows make an interesting foundation for colorful drapes. In contrast is the long unbroken wall on the other side which serves as a background for furniture.
