Man About Manhattan
By George Tucher
New York.—There are a number of legends that no amount of fact could destroy. Indeed, these legends flourish best in a soil of mystery. Most of them have a certain logic of their own, but it is the mystery that makes them so comfortable for people to believe.

The Welders
The strike of welders in west coast shipyards is directly the result of labor's own failure to solve one of its own problems fairly. When this trouble began last summer, it was caused by the fact that the American Federation of Labor required members of the independent unions to join it.

Consider the wholly erroneous notion that "Somebody" Maughan made no money at all out of the "Rain." A dramatization of his short story "Miss Thompson" during the three-year engagement of the "Rain" was a success. At that time, Maughan had disposed of the rights for a few dollars.

Offers Public Morgan Stock

Martin Plans To Keep Post
Intends to Retain Republican Chairmanship Until After Elections.
Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.) quietly reported of an interlocking struggle for control of his party's machinery by announcing today that he intends to retain his post as Republican national chairman until after the November congressional elections.

Stars in Hilarious New Comedy
Monty Woodley, Betty Davis and Ann Sheridan in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" Broadway's sensation is being shown on the State theater screen Wednesday through Saturday.

Meat Packing In High Gear
Plants Humming With Activity; Are Employing More Than Ever.
Chicago, Feb. 3.—(AP)—War has kicked the nation's meat packing industry into high gear—full speed in a never before.

No Choice Between Fronts
There is no doubt, to follow the debate and the approach in England, or to note the trend of public comment in the United States, that there is a real and anguished division of opinion over which way the heaviest guns of the democracy should face.

Broadway prefers to believe that the best known name in the industry is Arnold Rothstein, never lost a cent. That, of course, is absurd. Rothstein took his share of the profits at cards at the racetrack and even in the sold-out theaters.

The statement does not concern the road party and state is interrupting defense work in the United States. The Automobile Board of Directors, Secretary Knox, Secretary Simpson, and Admiral Lord of the Maritime Commission does not concern the road party.
