asked, if America had lost its battle to the isolationists, and there-fore its battle to Hitler, then, not only would we have been primarily responsible. And in that case we would have known, as the Court does not, apparently, how near, how little real difference there was between those who are "isolationists" and those who are "political dissenters". They were not so far apart as they seem to be. They were only a few steps away from following the Court's verdict that, while one deserved to be jailed, the others merited full license to carry on their work.

Our Cooking School
"Nutrition for national defense" is the theme of the Manchester Evening Herald Cooking School now in its fourth year. The school is held on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 1700 Broad Street. It is a popular annual institution for over 40 years and has been a success from the beginning. There are few experienced housewives who are so completely ignorant of the facts of nutrition that they imagine they have already learned everything there is to know about the kitchen and menu. Even the oldest can learn. And many young housewives, who have perhaps never faced emergency conditions such as those which lie ahead of us all, have a whole wealth of practical knowledge waiting for them.

The press despatch from the Philippines which chronicled the fact that these nine Japanese soldiers had been captured by our troops on the Itoya Peninsula, stated that they had been captured by our troops on the Itoya Peninsula, and that they had been captured by our troops on the Itoya Peninsula.

Daily Radio Programs

Eastern Standard Time

President's Next Radio Address on Monday Night

New York, Feb. 17.—President Roosevelt's next broadcast to the nation, which has been announced for Monday night, has been scheduled for 10 o'clock.

The program is scheduled for half past four, with the President expected to discuss the war situation and probably related subjects. In addition to all networks there will be the usual elaborate shortwave relay to make the talk available to the world.

All owners of amateur radio stations have been advised by their organization, the American Radio Relay League of West Hartford, Conn., to be ready to transmit for the president's address.

The League's announcement said that "only commercially manufactured receivers and transmitters for which standard instruction manuals are available are required at present."

It is in view of the fact that such equipment is more readily used and understood by military operators than home-made units, that the latter type may be of comparable quality.

At present, the league added, the greatest need is for transmitters.

Check-up on the size of the network for the first of the president's new series, "This is War," indicated that it had the largest audience record for any broadcast. It is estimated that something like 700 stations participated in the view of the fact that the programs are being made available to inde-

It is a senior pilot and combat observer, and an expert in the use of the airplane. He has a tremendous record as a pilot, flying 10,000 hours in the Army, and tactical officer at Brookfield, Conn.

And those painted walls that have become drab? That drab woodwork? The dull colors in the curtains? What can you do about them? Well, the simplest and easiest way to give them life and beauty is with soap and water. You'll be surprised what a bath in soap and water will do for your woodwork. Urges Voice In Red Cross Wives, Sisters, Friends Of Fighters, Should Bear Responsibility.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Mrs. Dought Davis, national director of American Red Cross volunteer work, today associates to-day wives, sisters and women friends of America's fighters must be given a voice in Red Cross activities, she said in a speech at the annual meeting of the National War Reliefs Association in Chicago.

Mrs. Davis addressed the annual meeting of the National War Reliefs Association at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in Chicago.

She said that the Red Cross is a voluntary organization and that it is up to the women who are its backbone to see that it is kept alive and active.

STORIES IN STAMPS

Petain, 85, Served France for 66 Years

Few men in the world today have served their country with as devoted loyalty for as long a period as Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, chief of state of France.

The stamp above, issued by France in 1941, bears the portrait of Petain, who will become 85 years old on April 24, 1942. Sixty-two of those years have been spent in the service of France, either in the army or in administrative work.

Petain was born April 24, 1856, the son of a wealthy farm family in the townlands of France. He attended public schools and the Lycée of Metz, where he was graduated in 1878 as a second lieutenant.

He is credited with stopping the German at Verdun and is known to all Frenchmen as the "hero of Verdun." When he took over supreme command of the French forces in 1917 he quit a revolt that had been brewing in the ranks and threatened disorganization of the French army.

Petain saved the day for his country many times. He was called from retirement in 1940 to head his now-subservient nation.
