City Officials Not Satisfied

Rockville's new fire sirens not heard in all parts of the city.

Rockville, Feb. 21.—(Special)—Fire Chief William Conroy and the city officials were not satisfied with the new fire sirens which were installed last Friday at noon, and immediate steps will be taken to remedy the situation.

Chief Conroy states that it is planned to have an engineer from the siren manufacturing concern come to Rockville and study the local situation which in many instances is a maze of streets. The engineer will also see the advice of the State Police. The city officials were not satisfied with the new sirens because they were not heard in all parts of the city during the test.

Television Set to Aid In Civilian Defense

New York, Feb. 21.—Inspired by four test programs over as many weeks, television is going smoothly into the question of aiding civilian defense.

Starting Monday the NBC station in New York, WPTZ, will broadcast a simultaneous relay by WPTZ, Philadelphia, in putting on morning, afternoon and evening telecasts the first three days of the week as part of the training for air raid wardens and others. They will continue for six weeks.

Classes for the television lessons are being set up in police stations about the city, a total of 76 receivers having been installed. Also, private homes with sets are cooperating as far as possible.

The series, undertaken by NBC at the request of the New York Police Department, is described as "the first use of the instrument of a strictly educational nature," particularly in the field of defense.

The spirit of '42 defense sets on CBS is to join in the Marine Corps recruiting drive to obtain 6,000 limited service reserves, by having seven of the men who have enlisted in this branch as interview guests in the program at 2 p. m. Sunday.

On Saturday night the war—7:30 MBS; 8:35 CBS; 10:00 MBS; 10:15 CBS; 11:00 NBC; 12:00 NBC CBS Blue; 12:30 MBS; 12:55 NBC CBS Blue.

De Milie and Drafty Barn To Mark 30th Birthday

By Franklin Arthur

Hollywood, Feb. 21.—This isn't about a drafty barn in the middle of a lemon grove, except incidentally.

But the barn is going to have its 30th birthday. It is going to have its 30th birthday. It is going to have its 30th birthday. It is going to have its 30th birthday.

The guys who don't say much

You can see them in any American crowd, in any American town, in any American discussion.

The guys who don't say much.

Who let the other fellows make the speeches and do the bowing.

But they're the salt of the earth.

They think and they feel and they know. They have an inner sense of what's right and what's wrong that no mountains can shake and no babbling can hide.

And when they read their papers, and listen to their radios, and sort of feel trouble, bad trouble, closing in on them, they know there's plenty wrong!

For the first time in 25 years, somebody is talking of pushing these quiet people around. Somebody is saying liberty is too good for them. And the terrible part of it is that this somebody is a bloodthirsty madman.

Yes, he wants to change things around here. He doesn't like the confident air you can breathe in America . . . that you can see in the friendly wave of a hand to a neighbor . . . in the good-natured jostling of a crowd at a ball game . . . in the unsuspecting greeting you give to a stranger . . . in the clanging, sweaty, laughing, contemptuous way we build, tear down, and build again!

Change that, eh? That's America!

And the people who don't say much are beginning to think a lot now. They're stirring—they're starting to rise. And they can do converge into a torrent, they can overwhelm anything, on this earth, or its waters, or in the air above it. But they'd better do it quickly for there's just no time to lose!

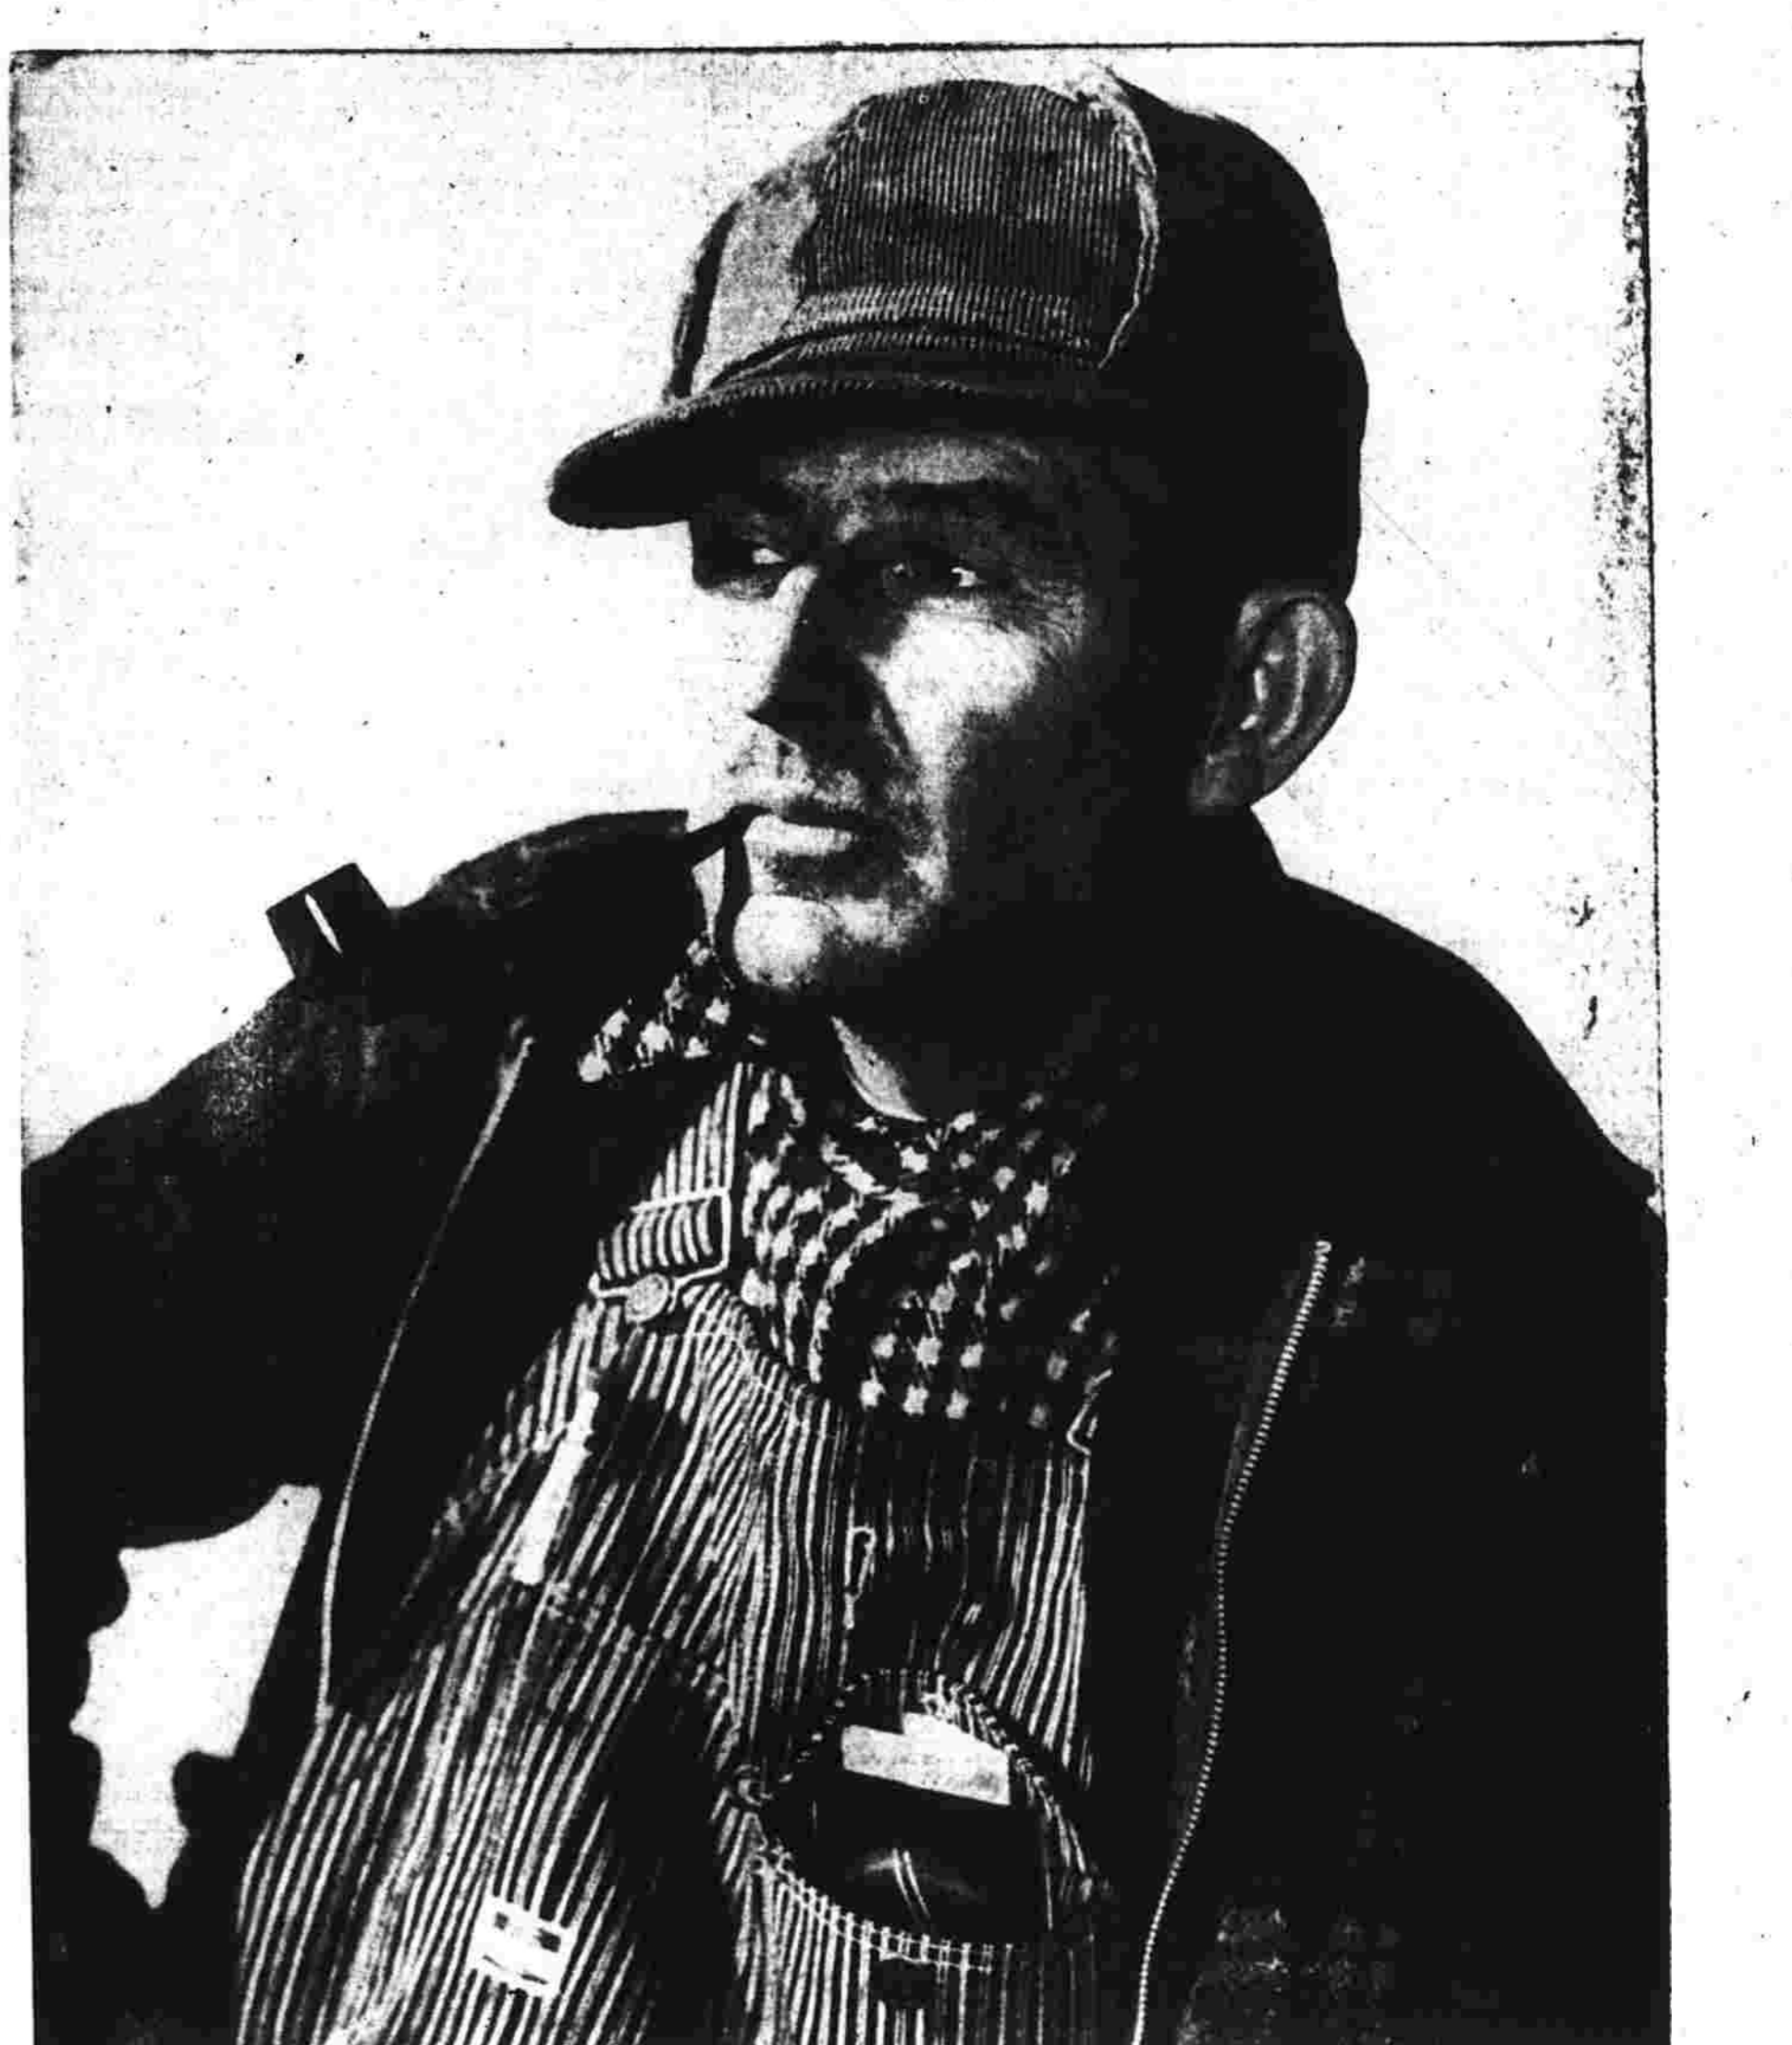

Some of them can, some of them are, going into our Army, and our Navy, and our Air Force. Some of them can, some of them are, building our guns, our tanks, our ships, our planes.

All of them can, all of them should, take their money out of banks and pay checks and cookie jars, and go without things even when it pinches, to buy Defense Savings Bonds!

They can save their dimes into quarters! They can save their dimes into quarters! They can save their dimes into quarters! They can save their dimes into quarters!

The guys who don't say much are buying a share in America!

Join them! Get Defense Savings Bonds and Bonds today!

Questions and Answers about Bonds and Stamps

- Q. How much do Defense Bonds cost?
- A. $18.75, $37.50, $75, and up. (In 10 years, you get $35, $50, or $100.)
- Q. Do I have to pay at least $18.75 all at once?
- A. No. You can get Defense Stamps for as little as 25 cents. When you get $18.75 worth, you change it for a Bond. There are also Stamps for 50 cents, $1, and $5. You get attractive values to stick them in.
- Q. Can I get my money back if I need it?
- A. Yes. After 60 days, your Government will buy your Bond or part of it back, with interest to date.
- Q. If I lose my Bond, or it's burned up, am I out of luck?
- A. No. A duplicate will be issued on proof of loss.
- Q. Can my youngster buy Bonds and Stamps?
- A. Certainly. Thousands of youngsters are buying them today.
- Q. How will my money help the country?
- A. It will actually buy defense equipment. And the more money raised the less each implement will cost—the lower prices will be.
- Q. Where can I buy Defense Bonds and Stamps?
- A. You can buy Bonds at your post office or bank. You can buy Stamps there, and in many stores.
