well, for whether isolationist John Wilkie or not, he cannot boast out of the past that the Republican party, by having Wilkie as its titular leader, by the adoption of the Chicago principles by the National Committee, by the leadership of former Governor Raymond E. Baldwin in his own state, completely refuted its doctrine propounded at the meeting of the international point of view should be assigned to the Democrats alone.

In the face of such development, Senator Danaher will have a tough time, we think and hope, making isolation the exclusive cause of the Republican party.

Argentina Feeling Shortage of Fuel

Winter Winds Sweep Through Houses; Auto Travel Cut by Rationing of Gas and Tires.

By J. M. McEvoy
Buenos Aires, Aug. 7.—(Wide World)—The economic effects of the war are being felt more acutely day by day in Argentina. Fuel is the most serious of these.

Winter winds sweeping through heated houses have brought about a shortage of fuel. Motor travel has been cut by rationing of gasoline and tires, and rationing construction by the paring of available iron and steel.

In step with the scarcity of vital necessities is the rise in the price of living costs, which has the government scrambling to provide an answer to mounting public discontent.

News reports from Buenos Aires bring good news to Buenos Aires. They have said, too, that the government's decision to recognize the German blockade zone off the eastern United States might cause additional difficulties for Argentina.

Argentina's principal trade partner is the United States. The Argentine government is seeking to purchase new ships from the United States to replace those lost to the Axis.

Officers Who Found Germans Retreating Are Together Again

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Two Air Corps officers who first discovered that the Germans were retreating in France just before the armistice in 1918 and who hadn't seen each other since that night are together again at Geiger field.

Major John W. Jordan of Indianapolis, who reported for duty at the field, told the story. His commanding officer, Col. W. G. Schauf, was the other man.

Noted Empty Tranches
Nov. 4, 1918, Major Jordan then was a lieutenant and an observer on a telephone and reported directly to Maj. Gen. William Mitchell who confirmed our report. The American Army surged forward and kept a constant pressure until the end came.

Both men were cited for the night. "Ambulance" comes from the French "ambulant" meaning "to walk."

Longing lightened around Enid's heart. She wanted this, a baby of her own to cuddle in her arms, a little house of her own, and a woman's age-old right of helping that man to make a home.

She was so tired of the office, of the dry routine of typing letters eight hours a day and only half days a week. She had been in that job for five years.

And she was on the same job she had started with. There was no chance for promotion for a girl in the complicated set-up of the industrial plant.

Enid sighed perpetually. She wanted to get married. But would she give her the kind of a marriage she dreamed of, or the kind of a marriage—that Letty had?

Letty who was old-looking at 20. Letty who had been married when Phil's wages were only adequate for one. Letty who had been married when Phil's wages were only adequate for one.

Satho Has No Regrets On Making Alaska Home

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 7.—(AP)—A good crop of 100 bushels of potatoes and rutabagas into town and sold directly to merchants.

Two years after the unemployment of Richmond, Va., machinist broke loose from all ties in the United States, built a crude "ark" and sailed across the sea.

His root cellar will be well-stocked with potatoes and rutabagas. Satho's homestead is 25 miles up the Eagle river. He has grubbed up 100 bushels of potatoes and rutabagas into town.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Hullett, Jr. United States World Sports Columnist

New York, Aug. 7.—Henry Armstrong's "comeback" as everyone figured, was dictated by lack of dough, but did you know just how broke Henry is? Well, the other day he sold a $30,000 auto, on which he had paid $18,000, for only $14,000. Dick Sims, the rascal, reports from Chile that there's a terrific boom in the mat racket down there since they imported grant-and-grant tactics from the United States.

Commission Approval Granted to Allow for Garden Court Houses.

The Manchester Corporation will start at once the erection of 64 garden court type houses on the north side of Middle turnpike, west, and east of Adams street as a result of permission given by the Zoning Commission last night to change eight acres of land from rural to zone C. The land at present is owned by the Farm, Land Exchange Corporation who will transfer the property to the Manchester Corporation.

Mezra, Slitch and Bickler of the Manchester Corporation appeared for the request. They explained that they had plans underway for the development of the front and rear sections of the garden type. The land to be used would be that of lot part along the Middle turnpike, west, and extending to the Hilliard road on the north and to the lower section on the east. Houses would be built along the Middle turnpike front and rear sections of the garden type. The houses would be built with four or five rooms and in groups of four or two on a lot.

Seek to Better Zoning Plans

Raymond W. Goole, chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals and Edward F. Taylor, secretary of the same board, appeared before the Zoning Commission last night and called attention to conditions now existing in the zoning regulations that they felt should be effected with assistance by the Selection and the town engineers.

To Try to Prevent Errors That Call for So Many Exceptions.

The general discussion that followed it was voted to have Mr. Goole of the appeal board and Mr. Holman of the commission, make a further study of the situation in Manchester and in other places and to present to the Selection a plan whereby this method could be effected with assistance by the Selection and the town engineers.

The registrars of voters will be in session until 7 o'clock tonight starting at noon today. They will add new names to the caucus lists and also correct the lists and make changes where asked. At Manchester no longer has a "to be made" list it is not now necessary to file in advance with the registrars a name to be added to the lists. This can be done up to and including the day that the registrars meet for the purpose of making voters.

The subject of Rev. James Stuart Nellis' sermon at the union mission meeting at the church of the South Methodist and Central congregations at St. Mary's Episcopal church will be baptisms.

Urges Action to Bring About Recognition of Indian Independence and Permit Indians to Use Liberty in Favor of Allied Cause.

Bombay, Aug. 6.—(P)—Mohandas K. Gandhi appears to be in America today to act "while there is yet time" to bring about recognition of Indian independence and permit Indians to use liberty in favor of the Allied cause. Shortly afterward, the All-India Congress Committee ruled out of order an amendment to Gandhi's "British quit India" resolution that had been moved by Pandit Ghalindra Sharma opposing an immediate campaign against the British Indian government.

Gandhi made his appeal in a letter to "American friends" which he said would be published in the United States. The letter, which will be published in the United States tomorrow, was delivered exclusively to American correspondents today. Although Gandhi had said earlier that he would give Britain time to make her proposals, he held after a series of meetings. Gandhi appealed to Americans to accept as sincere his proposals, which he said would be published in the United States tomorrow.
