Washington in Wartime

This $100,000,000 made work program spawned in the depression and expanded to something around 300,000 employees, a generous percentage of them ex-servicemen, is being dismantled. The other day he signed its death warrant. Soon WPA will be a thing of the past.

They Shoot to Kill

Parris Island, S. C.
Some of the Solomon Islands just taken from the Japs by U. S. Marines. Action: A desperate counter-attack by 700 Nips. Result: 670 of the 700 Japs lie dead.

That's shootin' 'em! The Marines are shootin' 'em! You don't see the white of the Japs' eyes before beginning to shoot. They start firing with accuracy from 800 to 1000 yards, having been trained on the size of a man in a crouching position. They on this special island of Guadalcanal, the Marines consistently aim at the world's best marksmen. "Boots" who never saw a rifle before their arrival here for training leave the base with a commission and a medal. They are instructed on the range, which is itself a tribute to the training.

Thinking in the Secret
The secret of Marine marksmanship is in the training and, since the United States entered the war, the secret has been in the hands of the United States Marine Corps. The secret is in the hands of the United States Marine Corps. The secret is in the hands of the United States Marine Corps.

WAAC For a Day

Editor's Note: Margaret Kerneide, the "Maggie" of the Wide World Features, obtained permission to don a WAAC uniform and to accompany a company of WAACs on their march to a new barracks. This is her report of how she felt to be a WAAC.

By Margaret Kerneide
Fort Des Moines, Ia.—Well, why don't you a WAAC?
The question came hurting at me from the barracks in an old red brick barracks of the women's Army training center. It was 4:30 p. m., just before the parade ground and the barracks. We were back from our rehearsal in the old barracks. We were back from our rehearsal in the old barracks. We were back from our rehearsal in the old barracks.

Sense and Nonsense

Anniversary Blues! Twenty thousand people, my dear, I have cooked for you. Since that day so long ago when I said: 'I do!' I have lost my looks, my dear, cooking meals for you. When I walk along the street no one says 'Hello!' I'm ready I return to you; feeling blue and then you just smile at me and ask: 'When do we eat again?' —Marry R. Rounde.

How often does the pain come? Doctor—Every five minutes. Doctor—Am I late? Patient—Well, a quarter of an hour, at least. We have a hunch that any number of women once they get themselves engaged to a man, realize they made a bad bargain but go ahead and marry him because they don't want to admit to themselves or anyone else they have made a mistake.

Funny Business. Father (from head of stairs): Sarah, is that young man of yours an auctioneer? Sarah—No, why? Father—Well, he keeps saying he's going, but he hasn't gone yet. 'Men,' says Sorrowful Sally, 'soon fall into two groups. They're either young and best or young and broke.'

Newark Player Leading Hitter. New York, Dec. 28.—Henry Majors of Newark was confirmed as the International League's 1942 batting champion today by the 34.5, far out in front of rival, 'Three-Eye' League five years ago. It also gave him an average of more than 300 for each of his three seasons with the Bears.

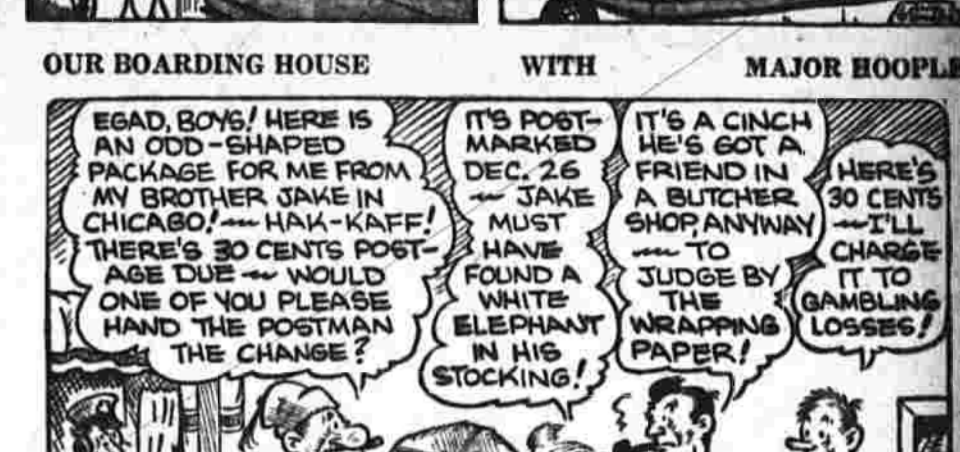

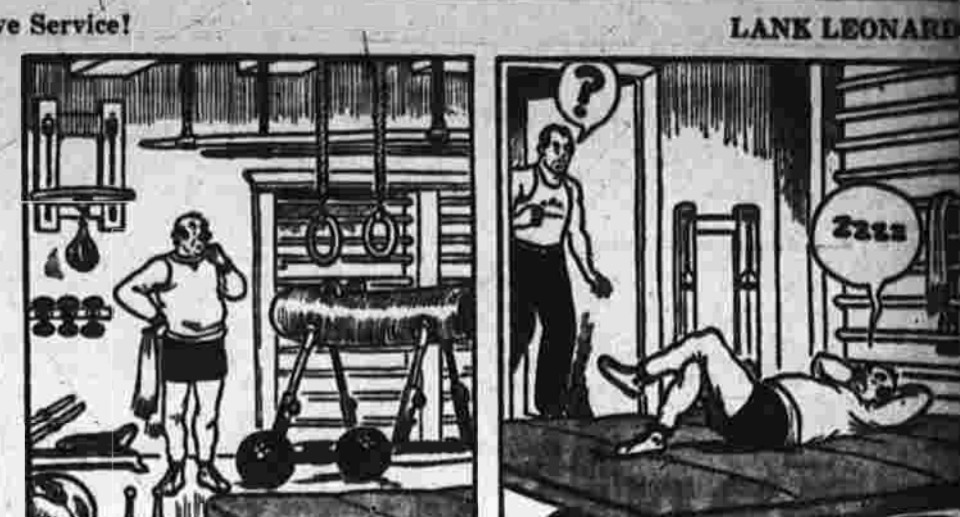

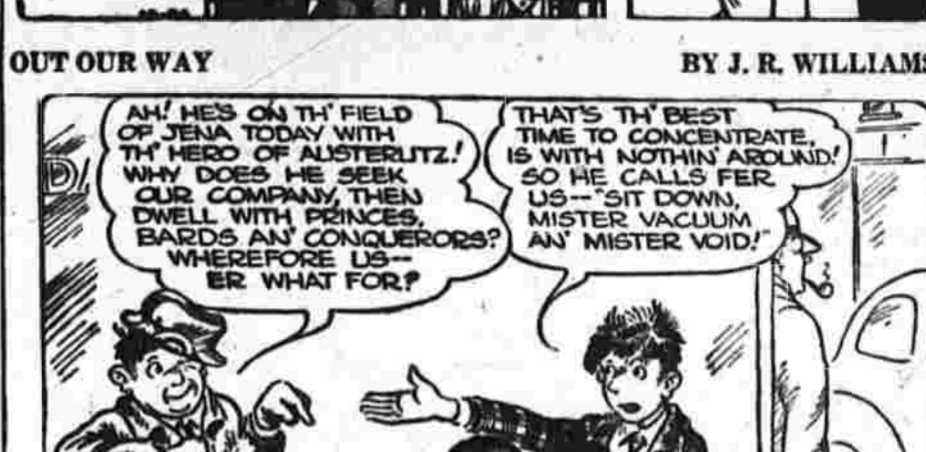

Cowboys Near Hoop Ceiling. shot on its way to the basket, a most annoying trick. 'Tomatoes sometimes call him "Stoop" for the big fellow has been ducking through doorways for many years now. He has a specially-constructed bed.

Schroeder Ready For Bowl Sports. New Orleans, Dec. 28.—Tennis matches and a card of amateur fights were on the Sugar bowl's mid-winter week of sports news here today while Tulsa and Tennessee opposed for the New Year's Day football classic, polished off with drills at nearby GWR Coast training camp.

Wash Tubs. AND TELL ME THE WAY IN ARABIA, MY JIM. OF COURSE, LISKA. I'M GLAD YOU DROPPED THAT LETTER OPENER, LISKA. I DON'T LIKE TO THINK OF YOU AS A PERSON WHO STABS A MAN IN THE BACK.

TOONERVILLE FOLKS. 'LEM WORTLE, THE PRACTICAL JOKER..... IS HAVING HIS USUAL HOLIDAY HIGH JINKS..... WITH THE CHRISTMAS MUFFLERS.
