Heard Along Main Street

And on Some of Manchester's Side Streets, Too. We don't quite understand the logic that induced a group of property owners in the Chestnut Hill section to petition the city to have the street widened. The petition was filed with the city engineer's office last night. It is not clear whether the petition is for the widening of the street or for the widening of the sidewalks. The petition was filed with the city engineer's office last night.

 Miss Edith Mason of the Extension Service of the University of Connecticut sends the following regulations that should be observed when rationing of canned goods, etc. goes into effect on March 1. Always carry your rationing book when you shop. Loose stamps are not accepted. 2. Each person will have 48 points to use during the rationing period which will be about a month. 3. Use your high-point stamps first. 4. Scarce values, abundant products will have a lower value even though money and nutrition value are the same. 5. Point value will be the same in every store; prices may vary. 6. All commercially canned vegetables, fruits, soups and juices are on the rationed list. 7. Canned fish and canned meat will not be on the rationed list at present. 8. A person is allowed to hold five cans of products. If more than this is held some point stamps will be returned from the rationing Book 10. The

SERIAL STORY 'I AM A MURDERER'

BY MORRIS MARKEY

Search Rewarded Chapter XXIV
 During these years I lived in Cleveland, O. The nature of my business affairs had taken me there, and I had settled into a comfortable life. My mother was in the utmost simplicity, and avoided friends from the same time I would change my name to a new one.

For, from the very outset, I knew that the clear conscience of my mind must have my own history, my own trail through life, a misty and confused one. The boy named Richard Frye was slowly erased from existence upon the same time I would change my name to a new one.

Rockville Ration Books To Be Issued

Rockville, Feb. 22 (Special)—Registration for War Ration Book No. 2 will take place in Rockville today, Thursday, Feb. 22, and Friday, Feb. 23, at 10 a. m. to 12 p. m.

Teachers and others, including some members of the senior class, will work in shifts to keep the rationing books up to date.

Each consumer must bring with him a rationing book, and if he has none, he must obtain one at the public distribution office, or at any of the public distribution offices.

The children of the Maple street school presented a patriotic program today in keeping with the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington. The pupils in the lower grades presented songs and poems.

No Ships Sunk During Week

By The Associated Press
 No Allied or neutral cargo ship was announced as sunk by the enemy in the western Atlantic last week, representing the first seven-day period since Pearl Harbor without loss to shipping in those waters.

Only four such sinkings were officially disclosed in the three previous weeks. The Associated Press tabulation shows today's six announced sinkings.

Regional Conference
 The first of a series of Regional Conferences will be held at the home of the Rockville Public Health Nursing Association on Tuesday afternoon at seven thirty o'clock. These conferences have been arranged to keep the nurses informed of the new trends in the field of medicine and public health. Nurses will attend from Hartford, East Hartford, Manchester, Stafford Springs, Mansfield, Enfield, Windsor Locks and Glastonbury.

A Thought

The Lord giveth; and blessed be my meek and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation.—II Samuel 22:47.

I fear no force with Thee at hand to seize, its have no weight and tears no bitterness.—Henry Francis Lyell.

"Suitcase" Simpson

THE LOCAL RATION BOARD HAS ISSUED A SPECIAL RULING THAT HE IS TO GET ONLY ONE PAIR OF SHOES A YEAR

There was a wait. "Hello. We haven't got much on him either. One of our boys picked up a pair of shoes, and we ran it. That's about all I know. He hasn't been in the news much, but I believe he has some good sense."

"Telephone calls to the corporations listed produced a fact: All of them were singularly averse to talking about Wesley Hope Merritt. "Colonel" Merritt had been given instructions that he is to receive no publicity."

It was simply a matter of routine to complete my business affairs and take the train to New York.

What the 5-year-old young lady of 10 will wear this spring is right here—a really printed ensemble consisting of play suit, overall and evening gowns. It is the happier for these clothes the youngster because they are so pretty and sensible and her mother because they are practically no bother at all.

Pattern No. 8363 is in sizes 1, 3, 4 and 5 years. Size 2 dress (skirt) is right here—a really printed overall, 1-3/4 yards, play suit, 5 yards. Evening gown, 5 yards.

For this attractive pattern send 3 cents, plus 1 cent for postage, in coin, with your name, address, pattern number and size to: Anne Cabot, The Manchester Evening Herald, 106 Seventh Avenue, New York City, Enclose 1 cent postage for each pattern ordered.

Anne Cabot's Fall and Winter Album now available—dozens of suggestions for smart, warm knit and crocheted garments, patch work ideas, quilts, embroideries, send for your copy. Price 15 cents.

By Mrs. Anne Cabot—This pattern make a pair of trouser slippers that will delight any bride. The one ball white and one ball of royal blue, pink or any other color that will match her gown or evening dress. Two balls of wool yarn are used for the thick, good-looking soles. Two good for Army brides who have to pack pretty clothes in very small space! Slippers launder beautifully.

To obtain complete crocheting instructions for Bride's Slippers send for your copy. Price 15 cents.

Sense and Nonsense

Monday, Feb. 22—George Washington's birthday. Here was a man who never lost his head. He could not be stirred by silly emotionalism. He was a man of great sense and common sense.

"The Little Maid's Reply"
 The little maid opened wide the door. To get the honored Washington in. The first in war, in peace, in every heart. "A better office to you, dear," said he. And placed his hand benignly on her head.

With courtesy quaint and reverent, smilingly. "Yes, sir, to let you in," she answered. "But I'm not home."

Mean when the paper says some man went to a convention as a delegate-at-large? Did it mean his wife didn't go with him, son.

A true lover of music is one who on hearing a blonde singing in the bath tub, puts his ear to the keyhole.

FUNNY BUSINESS

It was the basic necessity, indeed, which led the basic principle of the plan. Not the details, of course. Those must wait upon the events, upon the imperatives of chance and of human caprice.

But in all of its essentials, the plan was formed.

It was a long-term plan, indeed. It contemplated serious use, upon the grand scale, of that playing which I had diverted myself in the past.

It required the creation of two characters, not one. For the preparation of them—or at least of the one who was to be the actor, to go to California. The choice was obvious. Nobody had ever heard of the neighborhood of the one conspicuous spot on earth where there is a picture studio, even though it is a picture studio, even though it is a picture studio, even though it is a picture studio.

Do Joins War Effort

Los Angeles—(AP)—It was getting someone around the G. E. Picture Studios, was the dog. De Villiers and two sons were in the Army. Mrs. De Villiers and her daughter were in the Army. Mrs. De Villiers and her daughter were in the Army. Mrs. De Villiers and her daughter were in the Army.

Draws No Ropes

Peoria, Ill.—(AP)—Grocer John Ferris is letting his wife operate his store for the duration while he goes his bit toward the war effort. Ferris, who said the store brought in enough to support him and his family, got a job in a war plant but he doesn't draw any wages. He told the personnel clerk to put all his pay in war bonds.

Chairman (of the town's health committee, discussing the type of milk which should be supplied to the school children)—What this town needs is a supply of clean, fresh milk, and we should take the bull by the horns and demand it.

The Negro preacher had just finished his sermon about free salvation and asked a Brother to take up the collection. At this point a member of the congregation rose and protested: "Member of Congregation—Parson, Ah thought you said salvation was free—free as the water we drink."

Parson—Salvation is free, Brother. It is free and water is free, but when we pipet to you—how are you to pay for the piping?
