All Churches Organize For Red Cross Drive

Members Are Selected To Do Work During Campaign; Catholics Collect $475.

Under the capable leadership of the Rev. Dr. Ernest Bantley, of the First Baptist Church, and other prominent churchmen, a drive to collect for the Red Cross is being conducted in Manchester. The Rev. Dr. Bantley, who is in charge of the drive, has selected a committee of representatives from all the churches in the city to do the work.

Encouraging Reports

This group has already received encouraging reports from the churches and the general public. The Rev. Dr. Bantley is confident that the drive will be a success.

Up to 100 Saturday a Total

The Rev. Dr. Bantley has estimated that up to 100 people will be participating in the drive on Saturday. The drive is being held in the city of Manchester.

Rev. James Timmins, Pastor of St. Bridget's Church

Rev. James Timmins, pastor of St. Bridget's Church, has been selected as one of the representatives for the drive. He has been working hard to get the drive off to a good start.

Sense and Nonsense

King Lady—My poor man, your coat is full of fents. Here is a needle and thread.
Gritty Griggs—No use, mum. These rents are too big to be collected.
Idleness—Any man with a streak of idleness in him may well make up his mind that necessity will be his lot. It requires sustained, whole-hearted effort to climb. It ought to get to the top—and together to stay there. Success isn't measured by hours.

RED RYDER

"I wish them pups were under my hat for the money!"
"Would you really, Martha?"
"Thanks so much for your help, darling. Jimmy and I will always remember you for the million times."

SIDE GLANCES

"I don't know much about Brazil, Miss Jones, but just ask me about Kahili or Dobo or some of those places my big brother has bombed!"

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

FEELING HIS OATS: "HEY, PULL OVER TO THE CURB!"
"ANYTHING WRONG?"
"NO, MA'AM—I WAS JUST TRYING TO GET MY BAGS!"

HOLD EVERYTHING

The Country Editor: "show up" when it comes to the "show down" if the stomach is full of fents. Merchants who find collections a little slow have nothing on Uncle Sam. A man can stay away from a funeral as long as he wants. The corpse may owe him money.
