Reveals Work of OPA Agents

Director Explains What Went Before Black Market Trials.

Black Market Trials. Hartford, April 2.—(AP)—Charles Lewis, state office of price administration director, today revealed that 18 OPA agents had been assigned to investigate the activities of black marketeers, slaughterhouse wholesalers and agents during the past month's state-wide investigation of alleged black market activities.

During this period, 300 retailers and 100 wholesalers were interviewed and hundreds of retailers and wholesalers were searched. This campaign will continue until the health of the nation's economy is restored.
