THE SECOND WAR LOAN DRIVE STARTS TODAY

for YOU... for VICTORY... to Raise What It Takes to Pay for What It Takes to Win the War for LIBERTY!

13 Billion Dollars Needed!

This is an awful big job. But, like everything else, it has to be paid for. We get a tremendous kick—a real thrill—out of news like the African offensive, when we read that the United Nations put over the biggest troop movement ever before attempted in history. Lots of us have boys already scattered throughout all parts of the globe. More will undoubtedly be going soon, again and again, till Victory is won. So that's the simplest way for us to look at this problem of paying for the war. See it in terms of what it means to the boys who are doing the fighting. Do we want that paratrooper to have the best possible parachute money can buy when he drops out of a plane over Africa? Of course we do. Do we want to be certain there will always be another round of ammunition for every machine gun facing the Japs? You bet we do. All right, then. Let's start where everything starts... with money. And let's remember that it's a mighty poor American who will set himself up as the one to decide whether his responsibility to the American soldier—his obligation—is fulfilled by 10 per cent or 12 per cent or any other self-determined limitation. There can be only one limitation on the amount we owe for Victory. That limitation is, simply, the maximum we can possibly afford to invest.

During this great drive, millions of dollars will be invested from many sources. But, probably, your interest will continue to be in War Bonds and Stamps. The sale of War Bonds and Stamps is being counted upon to help raise the 13 billion goal required by this second great financing drive. Do your part by putting all the money you possibly can into War Bonds and Stamps, regularly.

The Government of The United States Is Asking Us To LEND It 13 Billion Dollars In The Next Few Weeks. We Can Do It! We Must Do It! They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money

For the next two Mondays these adverts. will replace our regular Monday merchandise adverts. Come to the store as usual where you will find new Easter and Spring Merchandise.
