Here is a Photograph Released by the Public Relations Department of the War Department Showing How Perfectly Living Camouflage Serves Its Purpose in This Army Camp.

WE ARE GROWING AND SHIPPING CAMOUFLAGE MATERIAL

Up And Down The Atlantic Seaboard. Tests have shown that artificial camouflage does not serve nearly as well as living material, and when photographed from the air with a camera using Infra-Red Ray Lenses, shows up in black spots despite the fact that the eye cannot detect the camouflage. Living camouflage blends in with the country-side and photographs without detection.

FOOD COMES FIRST. Yes, despite the fact that our war production by the finest machinery and equipment in the world tops all other, that machinery is impotent without human hands to control it.

It Requires Food To Keep Manpower And Womanpower On The Job. The trees, vines and shrubs we shipped last year have the ability to produce the following quantities of food: Apples, 1,000,000 lbs.; Pears, 375,000 bu.; Plums, 900,000 bu.; Cherries, 1,000,000 lbs.; Grapes, 750,000 lbs.; Strawberries, 118,400,000; Raspberries, 5,000 bu.; Blackberries, 500 bu.; Potatoes, 15,000 bu.
