

More Antiques Are Identified
$5,000 Worth Claimed By Maine Women at Hartford Warehouse

About Town
Manchester Assembly, No. 15, Order of Rainbow for Girls, has plans practically completed for the annual Father-Daughter banquet.

Atlantic Range and Fuel Oil
L. T. WOOD CO.
51 Bissell St. Tel. 4496

Home Show Exposition
The Hartford Times and Home Builders Association
April 3 through April 10

Are You Interested In Saving Money?
Try Shopping At The LARGEST FURNITURE STORE IN TOLLAND COUNTY

Are You Interested In Saving Money?
Try Shopping At The LARGEST FURNITURE STORE IN TOLLAND COUNTY
LADD and HALL CO., Inc.

Plane Lands On Farm Here
Pilot, Off His Course, Is Told Location, Hops Again for Airfield

Public Records
Certificate of Trade Name
A business owned by Allen Waddell is located at 216 Main street.

Broilers and Roasters
Dressed, cleaned and washed. Wrapped in cellophane and held in deep freeze for your convenience.

Modern Floral Arrangements
By experienced florists. For Weddings, Anniversaries, Funerals, Etc.

Over Three Hundred Finished Monuments and Markers in Our Display Yard To Choose From!

CENTER PHARMACY
Professional Pharmacists E. W. Brown, Pharmacist

John H. LAPPEN INC.
INSURORS-REALTORS
Rutland Bldg. Tel. 5810

Inspect Roads In New Jersey
Town Officials Will Study New Methods Used by the State

WANTED TO RENT
5 to 10 acres of good land in or around Manchester.

New Tires Famous Brands
Best Buys At MILLER MOTORS

Anderson Greenhouses
155 Eldridge St. Tel. 8486

Your Thoughts Take Wing on these New Rust Craft Cards for HASTI-Notes

The Dewey-Richman Co.
Jewelers - Stationers - Opticians

Sage-Allen EAST HARTFORD
STRIPED COTTON CASUAL 7.98

Return the salute on Army Day
A STRONG AMERICA IS A PEACEFUL AMERICA

Wanted to Rent
5 to 10 acres of good land in or around Manchester.

Imported FROM PARIS
Zofaly's FAMOUS PARFUM PASSION

Weldon's PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY
SCENT SHOP

Radio's best buy! AT PRE-WAR PRICES

TRAV-LER $995
The outstanding value of the industry! It's the perfect radio for every room in your home.

Today's Radio
WTRH-1410 WTRT-1410 WTRB-1410

WTRH-1410 WTRT-1410 WTRB-1410
WTRH-1410 WTRT-1410 WTRB-1410

Plan Your Spring House Painting Now!
Time Payments Arranged 10% Down Balance Monthly

THE OFFICE OF DR. LOUIS H. BLOCK
566 CENTER STREET WILL BE CLOSED UNTIL APRIL 18

Going To Refinish Your Floors?
Rent our new, heavy duty sander and edger.

Larsen's FEED AND HARDWARE
34 Depot Square, Tel. 5406

Notice To Contractors
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the General Manager of the Town of Manchester.

Mrs. Trewhella Elected Regent
Bridgeport, April 1-10 - Mrs. Kenneth T. Trewhella of East Hartford was elected regent.

Wants to Repeal 16th Amendment
Bridgeport, April 1-10 - Miss Vivian Kellems, whose fight to change the wrong laws of Westport is pending in the courts.

What is this thing called "Bouquet?"
Gardenia? Lilac? No - hop buds! They are delightfully aromatic and delicately elusive.

Only Budweiser TASTES LIKE BUDWEISER
ANHEUSER-BUSCH ••• ST. LOUIS

Paves its own way!
Come in... learn the secrets of the famous Packard Ride!

INSURE
McKINNEY BROTHERS
Real Estate and Insurance

FENDER AND BODY WORK
Solimine and Flagg, Inc.
624 Center Street

MANCHESTER PIPE AND SUPPLY CO., Inc.
248 NO. MAIN STREET TEL. 6265

Firestone FINEST IN TOOLS AND SUPPLIES FOR LAWN and GARDEN

Get ALL Your Garden Needs Now
Pay on EASY Firestone BUDGET TERMS

For the best job Get the Best Tool!
GARDEN HOE 79c

YOUR USED TIRES ARE WORTH MORE AT FIRESTONE

BOY'S De Luxe BICYCLE $38.95

Automatic RADIO $39.90

Now MAKE YOUR PRIVATE SEWERAGE SYSTEM A WELL BALANCED UNIT

Firestone FINEST IN TOOLS AND SUPPLIES FOR LAWN and GARDEN

Get ALL Your Garden Needs Now
Pay on EASY Firestone BUDGET TERMS

For the best job Get the Best Tool!
GARDEN HOE 79c

YOUR USED TIRES ARE WORTH MORE AT FIRESTONE

BOY'S De Luxe BICYCLE $38.95

SEAT COVERS $5.95

Automatic RADIO $39.90

MANCHESTER PIPE AND SUPPLY CO., Inc. 248 NO. MAIN STREET TEL. 6265

Local Woman Bitten by Dog

Truman about the provision to include Spain in ERP. He indicated that the president is utterly opposed to that provision.

Ten Attacks by Canines Reported Here in the Past Two Weeks

Phoned upon and bitten under her arm by a dog yesterday afternoon. Miss Hannah Hyde, 18 Wellman road was treated in the 24-hour hospital emergency room for the wound.

Agree to Remove Aid for Franco

The committee, each side voting as a unit. Vandenberg said the joint conference would meet again in a few days but declined to make any predictions as to when an agreement would be reached on the whole foreign aid bill.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

Call Man. 2-0752 Or Hartford 7-5895 No Phone Calls Will Be Accepted After 1 P. M. On Saturdays

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

We have cash customers waiting to buy duplexes or flats (5 and 6 or 8 and 6) in good condition on the following streets.

Experts Working On Compromise

(Continued from Page One) Senate bills are pretty much alike. Both provide for a $5,000,000 one-year European recovery program to help 16 nations get on their feet.

Seen Misinformed On Dog Licenses

Town Clerk Samuel J. Turkington, today corrected a misimpression that seemed to exist on the part of dog owners.

Personal Notices

In Memoriam To loving husband and uncle, George Weir, who passed away, April 1, 1948.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Dinner Meeting Of Church Group

The monthly dinner-meeting of the Merry Wives at the Second Congregational church last night was attended by more than fifty, including guest couples who are prospective members of the organization after an absence of some years.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Dinner Meeting Of Church Group

The monthly dinner-meeting of the Merry Wives at the Second Congregational church last night was attended by more than fifty, including guest couples who are prospective members of the organization after an absence of some years.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Hospital Notes

Admitted yesterday: Lorraine Butler, 728 Tolland Turnpike; Mrs. Helen Clark, 15 Forest street; John Holmes, 47 Charter Oak street; Mrs. Alice Cahoon, 13 1/2 John street; Mrs. Anna Kutach, 65 Maple street; Beverly Godfrey, 31 Jarvis road; Mrs. Ann Kuntz, Pease, Ellington; Mrs. Grace Phelps, 51 Phelps road; Mrs. Emma Harding, Norwich; Mrs. Mary Crowe, 336 Adams street.

FOR SALE

Four room Cape Cod—Steam heat, can finish top on second floor. New house situated in the country, large lot. Full price $8,500. Building Lot, Florence Street $650 Doane Street $650 Keeney Street $1,250 Lakewood Circle $2,100

REAL ESTATE

Is Our Greatest Basic Value! When you buy it, sell it or trade it you want maximum value for your money. When You Engage The Jarvis Organization To do any of these transactions you get maximum value backed by a highly trained and experienced organization.

Manchester Package Delivery and Light Trucking

ALL KINDS Cabinet Making—Refinishing HAROLD J. DWYER ROUTE 85 BOLTON, CONN. Phone Manchester 5326

CALL 5141 CITY CAB

Five Room Single and One Car Detached Garage For Sale on AVONDALE ROAD First floor rooms consist of: Living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, bedroom and bath with shower.

Merger Plan Gains Favor

Wethersfield, April 1.—(P)—The votes of 149 Congregationalists in State Approve Combining Hartford, April 1.—(P)—The votes of 149 Congregationalists in State Approve Combining Hartford, April 1.—(P)—The votes of 149 Congregationalists in State Approve Combining

Army Discontinues Search for Body

Wethersfield, April 1.—(P)—The Army has discontinued its search for the body of Lt. Joseph P. McMillan, 26, of Derry, N. H., whose P-41 Mustang crashed in a swamp here Sunday morning.

Roomer Seeks Rent Increase

London, April 1.—(P)—The judge said it was "absolutely unprecedented" that a furnished bed-sitting room from Mrs. V. Irving, went to court to ask that her rent be increased from $4.50 to $5.50 a week.

Spring Lawn Care Should Start Now

If you're been wondering what the severe winter has done to your lawn and how you can correct the damage with the ease of an expert, just remember this most important of all lawn care rules—get started early. We'll admit that a few patches of snow may still be scattered across your lawn—but don't let that stop you. Even professional lawn care can be done in the snow.

For Birthdays—Anniversaries Showers—Weddings

SELECT ONE OF OUR MANY FINE GIFTS Come In and Look Around MARY'S GIFT SHOP 144-146 Center Street Stationery—Cards—Gifts Telephone 5002 Mrs. Stanley Nichols

ARTESIAN WELL DRILLING

IRVING W. TAYLOR 18 Warren

The Innocent Impostor

By Renee Shann

The story of a woman who went to London three times a week to attend a dancing school. The only freedom allowed her by the two old-fashioned sisters was to bring home a book or two with which she lives in the country.

She returned home one day with a package. Paul Taylor takes the same train and for some time now has been trying to pick her up. But Paul is too proper to talk to a strange young man. One evening, an accident hits the train about a mile from her station. Paul offers to walk her there, so she won't be too late getting home and she accepts. He asks her to meet him at the station the following Saturday for tea and movies. Paul tells her he has never met her before. He says he is a student at the university and that he is going to London next week. He says he is a student at the university and that he is going to London next week.

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

"I'll be for you on the train on Monday."

"She was looking out of the window now. She rather wished her kiss her goodby. And felt a little shocked at herself for wishing it. "Get home safely. Don't speak to any strange man, remember."

"I shouldn't be likely to."

"It was a strange man! Still, I had heard never to make you speak to a man."

"Ah, but you didn't seem at all strange. I saw you so often traveling down in the same car."

"Oh! So you noticed me!"

"Of course."

"Gosh, you're adorable! Gosh, that's made you go quite pink!"

The guard blew his whistle. She looked out of the window impulsively, holding out her hand to him.

"Goodby, and thank you."

"He just asked me to know as it began to move slowly down the platform," he called.

"Well, I suppose you know I'm in love with you!"

"She gaped. She didn't know what to say to him. She had stood there at the window watching him, trying to him as at last he stopped running, her hand bumping madly. Then she sank down in the seat wondering if she were dreaming. She was very still, her hands folded in her lap, trying to quite down a little. She was the way her mother had felt when first she met her father. Well, she had daughter, knew what had happened. She'd run away. Been out off completely by her family. Been deserted by her lover. And left to die of a broken heart. Shouldn't that be a warning to her?"

Oh! If only her mother had lived on that day. Patience had grown up with her to guide her. She'd have understood that a time was bound to come when something like this would happen. How could Aunt Helen and Aunt Alice be expected to know the way she was feeling? They were two old, old, maddie. They were neither of them ever been in love in their lives.

They were in the sitting-room when she got in, sitting in their customary chairs either side of the fire. Two middle-aged sisters, neatly dressed, with kindling eyes and not too mobile voices. Except perhaps Aunt Helen's which on occasions could have an edge to it. Just as her eyes too could flash sparks if something happened to annoy her. They were flashing sparks now as

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

"I'll be for you on the train on Monday."

"She was looking out of the window now. She rather wished her kiss her goodby. And felt a little shocked at herself for wishing it. "Get home safely. Don't speak to any strange man, remember."

"I shouldn't be likely to."

"It was a strange man! Still, I had heard never to make you speak to a man."

"Ah, but you didn't seem at all strange. I saw you so often traveling down in the same car."

"Oh! So you noticed me!"

"Of course."

"Gosh, you're adorable! Gosh, that's made you go quite pink!"

The guard blew his whistle. She looked out of the window impulsively, holding out her hand to him.

"Goodby, and thank you."

"He just asked me to know as it began to move slowly down the platform," he called.

"Well, I suppose you know I'm in love with you!"

"She gaped. She didn't know what to say to him. She had stood there at the window watching him, trying to him as at last he stopped running, her hand bumping madly. Then she sank down in the seat wondering if she were dreaming. She was very still, her hands folded in her lap, trying to quite down a little. She was the way her mother had felt when first she met her father. Well, she had daughter, knew what had happened. She'd run away. Been out off completely by her family. Been deserted by her lover. And left to die of a broken heart. Shouldn't that be a warning to her?"

Oh! If only her mother had lived on that day. Patience had grown up with her to guide her. She'd have understood that a time was bound to come when something like this would happen. How could Aunt Helen and Aunt Alice be expected to know the way she was feeling? They were two old, old, maddie. They were neither of them ever been in love in their lives.

They were in the sitting-room when she got in, sitting in their customary chairs either side of the fire. Two middle-aged sisters, neatly dressed, with kindling eyes and not too mobile voices. Except perhaps Aunt Helen's which on occasions could have an edge to it. Just as her eyes too could flash sparks if something happened to annoy her. They were flashing sparks now as

Jitterbug Contest Tomorrow Night

A jitterbug contest is to be the featured attraction at the annual spring dance, to be held tomorrow night at 8:30 in the Italian American club on Eldridge street. Considerable interest connected with the contest has been created both locally and from out of towners and it is the present all indications point to a most interesting and keenly contested affair.

Rules governing the contest drop all barriers to competition. Any couples desiring to compete are urged to do so. The two best couples selected by the judges each week for four weeks will be featured in a dance-off to determine the two best couples. Couples falling to win in the first week are still eligible for the following weeks.

Trophies to be awarded to the winners and second place couples.

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

"I'll be for you on the train on Monday."

"She was looking out of the window now. She rather wished her kiss her goodby. And felt a little shocked at herself for wishing it. "Get home safely. Don't speak to any strange man, remember."

"I shouldn't be likely to."

"It was a strange man! Still, I had heard never to make you speak to a man."

"Ah, but you didn't seem at all strange. I saw you so often traveling down in the same car."

"Oh! So you noticed me!"

"Of course."

"Gosh, you're adorable! Gosh, that's made you go quite pink!"

The guard blew his whistle. She looked out of the window impulsively, holding out her hand to him.

"Goodby, and thank you."

"He just asked me to know as it began to move slowly down the platform," he called.

"Well, I suppose you know I'm in love with you!"

"She gaped. She didn't know what to say to him. She had stood there at the window watching him, trying to him as at last he stopped running, her hand bumping madly. Then she sank down in the seat wondering if she were dreaming. She was very still, her hands folded in her lap, trying to quite down a little. She was the way her mother had felt when first she met her father. Well, she had daughter, knew what had happened. She'd run away. Been out off completely by her family. Been deserted by her lover. And left to die of a broken heart. Shouldn't that be a warning to her?"

Oh! If only her mother had lived on that day. Patience had grown up with her to guide her. She'd have understood that a time was bound to come when something like this would happen. How could Aunt Helen and Aunt Alice be expected to know the way she was feeling? They were two old, old, maddie. They were neither of them ever been in love in their lives.

They were in the sitting-room when she got in, sitting in their customary chairs either side of the fire. Two middle-aged sisters, neatly dressed, with kindling eyes and not too mobile voices. Except perhaps Aunt Helen's which on occasions could have an edge to it. Just as her eyes too could flash sparks if something happened to annoy her. They were flashing sparks now as

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

"I'll be for you on the train on Monday."

"She was looking out of the window now. She rather wished her kiss her goodby. And felt a little shocked at herself for wishing it. "Get home safely. Don't speak to any strange man, remember."

"I shouldn't be likely to."

"It was a strange man! Still, I had heard never to make you speak to a man."

"Ah, but you didn't seem at all strange. I saw you so often traveling down in the same car."

"Oh! So you noticed me!"

"Of course."

"Gosh, you're adorable! Gosh, that's made you go quite pink!"

The guard blew his whistle. She looked out of the window impulsively, holding out her hand to him.

"Goodby, and thank you."

"He just asked me to know as it began to move slowly down the platform," he called.

"Well, I suppose you know I'm in love with you!"

"She gaped. She didn't know what to say to him. She had stood there at the window watching him, trying to him as at last he stopped running, her hand bumping madly. Then she sank down in the seat wondering if she were dreaming. She was very still, her hands folded in her lap, trying to quite down a little. She was the way her mother had felt when first she met her father. Well, she had daughter, knew what had happened. She'd run away. Been out off completely by her family. Been deserted by her lover. And left to die of a broken heart. Shouldn't that be a warning to her?"

Oh! If only her mother had lived on that day. Patience had grown up with her to guide her. She'd have understood that a time was bound to come when something like this would happen. How could Aunt Helen and Aunt Alice be expected to know the way she was feeling? They were two old, old, maddie. They were neither of them ever been in love in their lives.

They were in the sitting-room when she got in, sitting in their customary chairs either side of the fire. Two middle-aged sisters, neatly dressed, with kindling eyes and not too mobile voices. Except perhaps Aunt Helen's which on occasions could have an edge to it. Just as her eyes too could flash sparks if something happened to annoy her. They were flashing sparks now as

Parsons Is Placed On State Payroll

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—State Senator Robert G. Parsons (R-Farmington) has gone on the state payroll as lieutenant governor.

The comptroller said his decision that Parsons should receive the lieutenant governor's $4,500 a year salary was based on advice from Attorney General William L. Hadden.

Parsons will be paid the salary retroactive to March 7 when Gov. James L. McConough died. On that date Lt. Gov. James C. Shannon succeeded to the chief executive post, and Parsons, as president pro tempore of the state Senate, was elevated to the lieutenant governorship.

Parsons will be paid the salary retroactive to March 7 when Gov. James L. McConough died. On that date Lt. Gov. James C. Shannon succeeded to the chief executive post, and Parsons, as president pro tempore of the state Senate, was elevated to the lieutenant governorship.

THE MANO SHOP

6 Pearl-Street Tel. 4029
Free estimates on thorough and guaranteed dentistry.
Tuning $3.00

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

"I'll be for you on the train on Monday."

"She was looking out of the window now. She rather wished her kiss her goodby. And felt a little shocked at herself for wishing it. "Get home safely. Don't speak to any strange man, remember."

"I shouldn't be likely to."

"It was a strange man! Still, I had heard never to make you speak to a man."

"Ah, but you didn't seem at all strange. I saw you so often traveling down in the same car."

"Oh! So you noticed me!"

"Of course."

"Gosh, you're adorable! Gosh, that's made you go quite pink!"

The guard blew his whistle. She looked out of the window impulsively, holding out her hand to him.

"Goodby, and thank you."

"He just asked me to know as it began to move slowly down the platform," he called.

"Well, I suppose you know I'm in love with you!"

"She gaped. She didn't know what to say to him. She had stood there at the window watching him, trying to him as at last he stopped running, her hand bumping madly. Then she sank down in the seat wondering if she were dreaming. She was very still, her hands folded in her lap, trying to quite down a little. She was the way her mother had felt when first she met her father. Well, she had daughter, knew what had happened. She'd run away. Been out off completely by her family. Been deserted by her lover. And left to die of a broken heart. Shouldn't that be a warning to her?"

Oh! If only her mother had lived on that day. Patience had grown up with her to guide her. She'd have understood that a time was bound to come when something like this would happen. How could Aunt Helen and Aunt Alice be expected to know the way she was feeling? They were two old, old, maddie. They were neither of them ever been in love in their lives.

They were in the sitting-room when she got in, sitting in their customary chairs either side of the fire. Two middle-aged sisters, neatly dressed, with kindling eyes and not too mobile voices. Except perhaps Aunt Helen's which on occasions could have an edge to it. Just as her eyes too could flash sparks if something happened to annoy her. They were flashing sparks now as

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

"I'll be for you on the train on Monday."

"She was looking out of the window now. She rather wished her kiss her goodby. And felt a little shocked at herself for wishing it. "Get home safely. Don't speak to any strange man, remember."

"I shouldn't be likely to."

"It was a strange man! Still, I had heard never to make you speak to a man."

"Ah, but you didn't seem at all strange. I saw you so often traveling down in the same car."

"Oh! So you noticed me!"

"Of course."

"Gosh, you're adorable! Gosh, that's made you go quite pink!"

The guard blew his whistle. She looked out of the window impulsively, holding out her hand to him.

"Goodby, and thank you."

"He just asked me to know as it began to move slowly down the platform," he called.

"Well, I suppose you know I'm in love with you!"

"She gaped. She didn't know what to say to him. She had stood there at the window watching him, trying to him as at last he stopped running, her hand bumping madly. Then she sank down in the seat wondering if she were dreaming. She was very still, her hands folded in her lap, trying to quite down a little. She was the way her mother had felt when first she met her father. Well, she had daughter, knew what had happened. She'd run away. Been out off completely by her family. Been deserted by her lover. And left to die of a broken heart. Shouldn't that be a warning to her?"

Oh! If only her mother had lived on that day. Patience had grown up with her to guide her. She'd have understood that a time was bound to come when something like this would happen. How could Aunt Helen and Aunt Alice be expected to know the way she was feeling? They were two old, old, maddie. They were neither of them ever been in love in their lives.

They were in the sitting-room when she got in, sitting in their customary chairs either side of the fire. Two middle-aged sisters, neatly dressed, with kindling eyes and not too mobile voices. Except perhaps Aunt Helen's which on occasions could have an edge to it. Just as her eyes too could flash sparks if something happened to annoy her. They were flashing sparks now as

Patience, still in a daze, was suddenly remembering that she had not yet taken the train. She looked at her watch. "But, dear child, when did you last have it?" asked Aunt Alice. "It's not like you to lose things."

"It's really most tiresome of you," said Aunt Helen sternly. "The very thing I sent you into Hartford to get."

"I know, Aunt Helen. I truly am most terribly sorry. I'm afraid I must have left it in the train. The elder Miss McDeville made a clicking sound of disapproval. "I must say I feel most vexed about it. Her aunt looked at her more closely. "You're looking very flushed. Why is that, I wonder."

Patience more towards the window. She said she was perfectly well. No, of course there was nothing wrong with her. "I think perhaps a hot drink and an early night might be a good idea," said her Aunt Alice, who was never in bed a moment later than 10 whatever might happen."

Patience said from the room and prayed that when she came down next morning she would find her book. But she said upstairs for a little while. She was alone. She got over it all again. To save the wonder of it all, she said to herself, "I wonder what she could possibly manage to do."

Senators House Talks to PTA

Tells Highland Park About Plans For New Schools

Senator Charles B. House, chairman of the Board of Education, addressed a large gathering of the Highland Park P.T.A. in the school auditorium last evening. He expressed the appreciation of the Board members for the interest shown by the P.T.A.

In 1944-45, two professors from M.I.T. made a survey of the town's school situation. Mr. House said. Because of the increase in population a re-survey was made in January 1946. As a result of their recommendations, it is planned to build a 12-room school on Otis street and a 12 room school on Princeton street, both to be completed by Sept. 1949.

Two architects have been engaged, Sibby Associates for the Otis street school, and Carl Mainfield for the Princeton street school. He said a thirteen room school is planned for the Broad street area. Provisions for a classroom addition are recommended together with assembly rooms and a cafeteria.

Three new schools are to be built at an estimated cost of three million dollars.

A senior high school for Memorial Field is planned for 1952 at an estimated cost of two million dollars.

Continuing Mr. House estimated for next year 21 to 41 pupils in many grades in the town schools. It is expected that some children and their parents will be transferred to the Porter street school. The House school has six grades in two rooms.

Working for the Best

The Board is now trying to give Manchester the best educational system that the town can afford. The money for the Manchester schools is something to be proud of. It is his hope that additional music teachers will be secured for the coming year. Work is also in progress for a better physical education program.

At the business meeting the following auditing committee was appointed: Mrs. Estelle Little, Mrs. Stanley Mason and Mrs. Virginia Thornton.

The school band played "Graduation March" and "The Volunteer." Mrs. Conroy's fourth grade received the pennant and book for having the greatest number of perfect papers.

Mrs. Herbert Greenberger and her committee served coffee and cup cakes.

29 Fire Alarms During the Month

During the month of March both local fire departments answered 29 alarms. Of this number, eight were answered by the Manchester Fire Department, all being still alarms.

Working on Last Of 47 Residences

Alexander Jarvis who is developing Trobbs Manor this week started to work on the last of 47 houses in the last of the development.

This means an addition of about $200,000 to next year's Grand List. Each house that has been erected costs about $10,000, and this to a grass and woods fire. No. 8 Company extinguished a grass fire at the rear of Waterworth street and No. 1 Company answered a call to Devon Drive. The North End fire department extinguished a grass and woods fire on Horton Road last night at 12:00 o'clock west to North Main street near the Blockman River to extinguish a grass fire.

At 4:20 No. 4 Company went to Birch Mountain Road to extinguish a chimney fire in the home of Thomas Murphy.

Together with the land value will bring the total value to the above mentioned amount.

All these houses will be completed by July, and only four of these, at the time uncompleted, was included in this year's list. In each case, houses erected by Mr. Jarvis have been sold to individuals which add 47 more to the town's taxpayer's list.

Bumblebees wear a "fur coat" but usually die when winter comes.

Recreation Board Meeting Monday

Chairman Ludwig Hansen of the Recreation and Park Advisory Board has called a special meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the East Side Rec. on School Street.

Considerable discussion has taken place on the softball situation during the past two weeks and action on the matter is expected to take place. Several plans have been suggested, including setting out of tennis courts using the local athletic field.

FENDER AND BODY WORK

Sollman and Frazee, Inc. 684 Center Street

Senators House Talks to PTA

Tells Highland Park About Plans For New Schools

Senator Charles B. House, chairman of the Board of Education, addressed a large gathering of the Highland Park P.T.A. in the school auditorium last evening. He expressed the appreciation of the Board members for the interest shown by the P.T.A.

Building Permit For New Dwelling

Building Inspector David Chalmers, yesterday issued a building permit to Edward Ojowski, for a one family, five room, one story dwelling on the east side of Oakwood street, at an estimate cost of $10,000.

Water Too High for Merries

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hartford ferries were supposed to begin their seasons today. But the opening has been delayed to May 1. Why? The boats running? "Water's too high," highway department says.

Water Too High for Merries

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hartford ferries were supposed to begin their seasons today. But the opening has been delayed to May 1. Why? The boats running? "Water's too high," highway department says.

Water Too High for Merries

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hartford ferries were supposed to begin their seasons today. But the opening has been delayed to May 1. Why? The boats running? "Water's too high," highway department says.

Water Too High for Merries

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hartford ferries were supposed to begin their seasons today. But the opening has been delayed to May 1. Why? The boats running? "Water's too high," highway department says.

Water Too High for Merries

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hartford ferries were supposed to begin their seasons today. But the opening has been delayed to May 1. Why? The boats running? "Water's too high," highway department says.

Water Too High for Merries

Hartford, April 1.—(AP)—The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hartford ferries were supposed to begin their seasons today. But the opening has been delayed to May 1. Why? The boats running? "Water's too high," highway department says.

Water Too High for Merries

Household Values

Dazzle BLEACH 1/2 GAL 31c QT BT 17c

Boraxo CLEANS HANDS 8-OZ TIN 16c

Borax 20 MULE TEAM 16-OZ PKG 16c

Wax Paper CUT-BITE ROLL 22c

Vel FOR DISHES LGE PKG 31c

Dreft NEW SUDS DISCOVERY LGE PKG 31c

BROOKSIDE - LARGE GRADE A FRESH EGGS DOZ 63c

Baked Beans FINAST 28-OZ TIN 25c

Brown Bread FINAST 14-OZ TIN 17c

Ketchup FINAST TOMATO 14-OZ BT 19c

Treet ARMOUR'S 12-OZ TIN 49c

Raisins SEEDLESS FINAST 2 1/2-OZ PKGS 25c

Puddings DAINTY DOT 3 PKGS 19c

Mayonnaise FINAST PT JAR 43c

Baking Needs

Pastry Flour HOMESTEAD 5-LB BAG 39c

Finast Flour ALL Purpose 10-LB BAG 73c

Cake Flour PRESTO 44-OZ PKG 39c

Pie Crust MIX FINAST 2 1/2-OZ PKGS 29c

Ginger Bread MIX 14-OZ PKG 25c

Hot Roll Mix PILLSBURY'S PKG 25c

Grapefruit JUICE FLORIDA 2 46-OZ TINS 35c

Blended Juice ORANGE & 46-OZ 21c

Lemon Juice TREWORTHY 5 1/2-OZ 25c

Applesauce FINAST 2 10-OZ TINS 27c

Apple Juice THOMPSON'S 32-OZ BT 17c

Peaches FINAST 29-OZ TIN 29c

Fruit Cocktail RICHMOND 29-OZ TIN 25c

Bartlett Pears YOR GARDEN TIN 39c

</

