So They Say—

We are in a serious time in history and I think that people who have definite views and feelings on it should have the right to express them.

There are limits beyond which this thing must not advance, and I must be damned back.

I think the nation faces graver perils from the subversive warfare now in progress in Europe than from a shooting war.

He (Wallace) ought to go to the country he loves so well and help them against his own country, if that's the way he feels.

The Republican Party saved the Union once by bringing about the end of secession.
