Atlantic Pact Seen As American Moral Pledge of War Aid

Senator Donnell Says Attitude Taken by Leaders of European Nations; Talk Slows Expected Senate Approval of Foreign Aid Authorization Bill; Repeats Earlier Demands

Washington, March 25.—(AP)—Senator Donnell (R., Mo.) told the Senate today that leaders of European nations regard the North Atlantic pact as a moral—if not automatic—pledge by the United States to go to war if any of them are attacked.

Donnell said he expected approval of a $5,500,000,000 foreign aid authorization bill for a lengthy discussion of the defense bill. It is not yet before the Senate.

United Nations officials had been hoping, of course, that the coronation ceremony would be regarded as a world event of major significance. And, since hypocritical professions are about as plentiful as they are, they were foolishly hoping that when President Truman came to the ceremony, he would once more balance his actions by some oratorical words about how much he and this country love the United Nations.

Jury Indicts Three Killers

Face First Degree Murder Charges in Two Elm City Deaths

New Haven, March 25.—(AP)—First degree murder indictments have been returned by a grand jury which heard evidence concerning the deaths of Samuel S. Kahan, local jeweler, who was fatally wounded during an attempted robbery, and Mrs. Dorothy T. Robinson, stabbed to death, in the Kahan slaying.

Kahan died on March 10 from a bullet wound received a month earlier when two men broke into his store and stole jewelry worth $10,000. He was shot in the chest and attempted to rob him. Mrs. Robinson was killed on March 9 in a New York street cleaning establishment where she was employed.

Arraignment of the three defendants for jury trial was postponed for the season in the individual class with 93.37. The high individual single game went to Pearl Burham with 127 pins and high individual three strings was awarded Jean Farman with 344 pins. Prize for high game went to a mark with 94 went to Joyce Emily Parent received the consolation award for her low average of the season of 73.

Death Takes Bone Surgeon

Dr. Robert M. Yergason Dies, Aged 63

Hartford, March 25.—(AP)—Dr. Robert M. Yergason, 63, of West Hartford, a noted orthopedic surgeon and the Connecticut State Medical Journal, died last night at St. Francis hospital after a brief illness.

A graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University in 1909, Dr. Yergason started general practice of medicine and surgery here in 1912. He had specialized in bone and joint surgery since 1918.

In the course of his professional career, Dr. Yergason gained a wide reputation for many contributions to orthopedic practice. Some of his developments, the Yergason screw used in some fractures, and the Yergason suture, have achieved general use in the field.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Amelia R. C. Yergason; four daughters, Mrs. Marian Quinn of New York, Mrs. Eleanor Moquet of New Haven, Mrs. Marion P. Johnson of New York, and Mrs. Theodora P. Spang of Atlanta, Ga.; a son, Everett M. Peterson of Glastonbury; a sister, Mrs. Maud Y. Hoffer, of Glastonbury, and several grandchildren.

Three in This Area Receive Awards

Forty-one Winners of Youth Awards from the Connecticut Development Commission

Forty-one winners of Youth Awards from the Connecticut Development Commission, including three from this area, received their awards from Governor Chester Bowles today at the Hotel Bond, Hartford, at 12:30 p. m. Sidney A. Edwards, managing director of the Commission, assisted Governor Bowles in the presentation ceremonies.

Awar winners in this section are Nancy Gates of Coventry, Tolland County 4-H; William F. C. O'Connell of Coventry, Windham High School V-O-A-G and Paul Blais of Vernon, Tolland County 4-H. This marks the 10th anniversary of awarding certificates to deserving 4-H Club and Vocational-Agriculture group members.

As a part of the acceptance program, Miss Sheila Burdett of Torrington presented 4-H Clubs and Maurice W. Grossbacher of New Milford represented the Vocational-Agriculture group. Following the luncheon and presentation Charles Larson of Portland gave an illustration of his trip to Europe last year. He was selected as "elder youth" from all parts of the United States to make the trip. Most of his time abroad was spent with a farm family in Denmark where he lived for two months, getting a good insight into the farm problems.

Three young people from Tolland County received awards today at a luncheon at the Hotel Bond in Hartford from the Connecticut Development Commission.

Department Chairman Miss Emma Bata of Rockville was the principal speaker.

Young People Have Program

Special Missionary Service for Them at the South Methodist

A special Missionary program has been planned for the Intermediate and Young People of the South Methodist church in West Hartford and will be held during the church school session, starting at 9:30 a. m.

The program, which has been prepared by Mrs. F. H. Kohler, superintendent of the Intermediate department, will feature Miss Kathleen L. McLaughlin as special speaker. Miss McLaughlin, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Willard McLaughlin of the North Methodist church, will give a talk on "India" where she lived with her missionary parents for sixteen years. The young speaker moved to India when she was only two years old and received her education through high school at Woodstock school, Massachusetts, and college at the University of Chicago, Illinois. She has a slightly different perspective on the land than they would have as an adult observer.

From 26 Nations

With pupils drawn from 26 nations and from many colors and cultures, the student group at Woodstock was an education in itself. The school, primarily for children of missionaries, is situated at an elevation of 6,000 feet in the Himalayas where the climate is retiree of the South Methodist church. A special missionary service will be taken during the Sunday morning. All parents and friends are welcome to attend the program which will be held in the church auditorium.

Retired Executive Dies

Columbus, Ga., March 25.—(AP)—Annie Rose Robinson, who got her dying wish for cotton candy, died last night. Persons throughout Georgia were given the seven-year-old victim of leukemia the requested treat last week. Doctors had given her only 24 hours to live. None of the candy was available here.

Tax Collector Makes Report

About $12,000 Is Held Back Because of Litigation; His Figures
Tax Collector Samuel Nelson will not be able to show as good a record on the collection of taxes this year, because there is about $12,000 being held up because of litigation. As of March 1, the total uncollected taxes are about $21,000, and seven received since the first of the month totals about $2,000. This leaves about $19,000 still to be received, including the $12,000 being held up because of litigation.
