Solons Avoid All Disputed Bills Today

score of bills, including one appropriating $100,000 to a Gaylord farm, a private tuberculosis sanatorium in Wallingford, are the next two years.

Rep. Nelson Carpenter (R-Canterbury), Appropriations committee chairman, told the House that Gaylord farm formerly received $40,000 a year as one of the general hospitals to which the state makes annual grants.

It properly belongs in a separate category, Carpenter said, reports that if it were not for Gaylord farm, the case load in the state sanatorium would be "materially lessened."

Another appropriations bill to provide $100,000 to establish another surgical unit at the Cadaver state sanatorium in Newington.

Both measures now go to the Senate. The House approved and sent the Senate three claims for payment for property damaged when a National Guard plane crashed in the vicinity of the state sanatorium in Newington.

Other measures approved by the Senate, included bills which would authorize Danbury to issue $100,000 in bonds to enlarge and improve Rogers park.

Authorize New Canaan to issue $50,000 in bonds to build a new grade school.

Limit to seven horse-power the size of motors that may be used in boats on Gardiner's lake.

Authorize the borough of Wallingford to establish a fire department life tenure, depending on good behavior.

THE POWERFUL KATRINKA & GRANDPA'S LIVER TROUBLE. THIS PUMP! THAT CHURN! THEY'RE HARDLY AIN'T TRIED OUT!

FUNNY BUSINESS BY HERSHBERGER. THE STRAW HAT SEASON OPENED TOON, WHAT'S YOURS?

SIDE GLANCES BY GALBRAITH. "Jimmy finally found a way to play and practice at the same time!"

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE. "But, mother, this would be easier to clean if we'd wait till next winter—then a few of us will catch cold and empty some of those old bottles!"

THE HIGH SPOTS. "Pleaso, ma'am, could you spare a man a crust of cake?"

Sense and Nonsense. "Don't Put Things Out Too Late. Experience Thins Us Out. All To Soon. The Distant Future Quickly Becomes The Ancient Past."

MICKEY FINN. "AND YOU REMEMBER I'M SERGEANT HULLIGAN, CONRAD?"

BUGS BUNNY. "I'M WITHOUT A HAT! I GOTTA THINK OF SOMETHING!"

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES. "HOW ABOUT A SMALL RIDE, MISTER? I'VE BEEN AWAY FROM THE HOUSE FOR A DAY."

ALLEY OOP. "MAY I SERVE YOU? YEAR, I'VE BETTER THINKS!"

THE EXPANSION. "I'VE LOST MY HEART IN A LAMINA LADY'S TOE!"

OPEN UP YOUR POTATOES AND VEGETABLES. "OPEN UP YOUR POTATOES AND VEGETABLES!"

WASH IT HIS. "WASH IT HIS!"

Over-Cast. "The world's been lashed to a stage by more than one accepted sage, who never missed among its stars."

LANE LEONARD. "WELL, IT'S ALONG STORY, CONRAD! O.E.Z. KRUNCH IS AFTER A SCALP!"

BUGS BUNNY. "I'M WITHOUT A HAT! I GOTTA THINK OF SOMETHING!"

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES. "HOW ABOUT A SMALL RIDE, MISTER? I'VE BEEN AWAY FROM THE HOUSE FOR A DAY."

ALLEY OOP. "MAY I SERVE YOU? YEAR, I'VE BETTER THINKS!"

THE EXPANSION. "I'VE LOST MY HEART IN A LAMINA LADY'S TOE!"

OPEN UP YOUR POTATOES AND VEGETABLES. "OPEN UP YOUR POTATOES AND VEGETABLES!"

WASH IT HIS. "WASH IT HIS!"

U. S. 'Information Air Lift' Gets New Lease Despite End of Blockade

Berlin (NEA) The Berlin blockade has been lifted, but RIAS—America's "information air lift"—into Soviet-occupied Germany is going to start working harder than ever in a few weeks. RIAS—Radio in the American Sector—has been the most effective U. S. radio weapon in the cold war. Last month it appeared in danger of being silenced for lack of funds, since the American military government's budget was trimmed.

attraction is its own program, designed to combat the Russians in their own back yard. Such features as "Berlin's Free Press" and the dramatization of the book "Against Fear," a satire on Communism, have brought continual protests from the Russians, who have arrested at least one RIAS employee who went into the "Red zone" for broadcast material. More than 12,000 letters a month pour in to RIAS headquarters from listeners, most of them from people in the Soviet zone of Germany. Such letters, if picked up by the Russians, would mean certain arrest, so they are smuggled out or delivered in person. During the blockade, when power was rationed in the western sector, RIAS broadcast vans toured the streets to give Berliners current news broadcasts.

Smugglers Take Much, Bring Little
 Today — (P) — Smugglers are taking out as much out of Japan as they bring in, the finance ministry reports.
 In reviewing the smuggling operations, the ministry said illegal imports from Japan in February totaled 12,900,000 yen (about $400,000) and "imports" were just half that much.
 Items smuggled out included kitchen utensils, chinaware, bicycle, textiles, medicines and tools. Items brought in included sugar, raw rubber, oil, leather, textiles and medicines.

Where friendliness and science go hand-in-hand.
THERE is nothing quite like the American pharmacy anywhere else in the world.
It's the unofficial meeting place of the community—
a convenient store with a cheerful atmosphere and a wide variety of specialized merchandise. And, above all, it's a place where a man of science—your pharmacist—stands ready to help you guard your health.
Your pharmacist has had a long professional training. He has an encyclopedic knowledge of thousands of different drugs, and the technical skill to compound
these drugs into the medicines your doctor prescribes.
Get better acquainted with your pharmacist. Trade

Dead Whale Points Up History

Fort Washable, Wyo.—(AP)—A dead whale near on the Pacific coast by the Lewis and Clark expedition 145 years ago is claiming attention in Wyoming these days.

Sacajawes, the Indian woman who was with the expedition, was impressed by the whale, historians agree. Wyoming people believe she was buried here in 1804. They want Congress to build a big memorial for her.

But other historians say she died in South Dakota in 1812. Wyoming people say that the woman buried here in 1804 often spoke of the whale and other incidents of the Lewis and Clark expedition. They are using these reports to back their claim for a memorial.

Sacajawes was the wife of Charbonneau, a guide for Lewis and Clark. But Wyoming people say Charbonneau had several Indian wives. The woman who died in South Dakota in 1812 was another of these wives, they say. Sacajawes was the one who went along on the expedition and she died and was buried in Wyoming in 1804 when she was 100 years old, they insist.

Mormon Irrigation Over 100 Years Old

Washington—(AP)—Modern irrigation as practiced by the Mormon pioneers in Utah began two years before the establishment in 1849 of the U. S. Interior Department. On July 24, 1847, Dr. Rufus W. Bigelow Young established an agricultural pattern in the arid West

Home Town Honors Leader

Union City, Okla.—(AP)—This farm community in central Oklahoma owes a lot to one man—and it doesn't forget. The man is Dr. D. P. Richardson, who was surprised by 800 persons who joined in celebrating his 80th birthday with a banquet dinner and program. Dr. Richardson has been the only physician since the turn of the century. Besides his profession, the doctor is also president of the town's only bank, the only druggist, and its former postmaster—an office now held by his wife.

Newspaper Growth Hailed By Russia

Moscow—(AP)—The Soviet Union now has 7,200 newspapers. They appear, according to a lead editorial in the newspaper "Pravda," in a total edition each time they come out of 11 million copies. The Soviet Union this year celebrated the 37th anniversary of the first "mass" edition of "Pravda"

Snake Eaten Three Years in Wall
 Sydney, Australia.—A large brown snake has lived in a wall at Marysville, South Australia, for three years. It fell there when half-grown and made its home on the roots of trees in good condition and which have broken the cement wall of the wall. The snake's home is about seven feet down and it has no way of escaping. It is in good condition and provides a continual debate on how it managed to get food.
