Head-On Collision
 Perhaps one of the most important votes in the whole history of the United Nations is scheduled to be taken today. It is the election of a new member of the Security Council—the member who will represent the "region" of Eastern Europe. With the vote has been United Nations tradition and "gentlemanly agreement" that the various "regions" of the world shall be entitled to send their own rotating candidates for the Security Council, with the rest of the UN membership deferring to the regional choice. Under that system, the Latin American nations select the Latin American member, the Near East nations select the Near East member, and the Russian bloc of nations in Eastern Europe has selected the member for Eastern Europe.

So far as Eastern Europe is concerned, this arrangement has amounted to giving Russia two seats on the Security Council, her own permanent seat and that of one of her satellites.

The vote today may end that arrangement. Yugoslavia, which is still in Eastern Europe, but which is no longer in the Soviet bloc of nations, has pushed its candidacy for the Eastern Europe place on the Security Council.
 The rest of Eastern Europe supports Czechoslovakia.

The United States is supporting Yugoslavia, and some time ago instructed its diplomats in those countries where it has influence to inform the governments of those countries that we would like to see Yugoslavia elected.
 Britain, feeling that the selection of Yugoslavia would be an unnecessary violation of the veto, is supporting Czechoslovakia.

Many of the delegates at Lake Success regard the program we are being called upon to make such a choice, and are wishing that a situation so potentially explosive, with issues so debatable, could have been kept from coming to such a head. They think such a willful head-on collision might have been avoided.

But it is scheduled to take place today, and the diplomats at Lake Success will be holding their breath until they see what the aftermath may be.

Black Has Turned White
 With the Washington mind what it is—and we are not instab-ing that any one we could imagine would have a better mind in the same situation—was being in-sulted by the fact that the atom had not yet exploded in the hands of men—it was inevitable that our first answer to the news of Russia's possession of the atomic bomb should be the announcement of a program of expansion for our own atomic industry. An extra $300,000,000 is to be devoted immediately to this objective, and it will be used to enable us to make bigger and more atomic bombs faster.

This is the routine, predictable, instinctive answer to the Russian atomic explosion. The trouble is that our age has not yet understood the moral revolution which enables us to make bigger and more atomic bombs faster.

Connecticut Yankee
 By A. E. O.

It is a little like being asked to believe that black is white. Nonetheless, that is so. Black in our time, has become white. The so-called security of yesterday, which was never too good even yesterday, has become the danger of today.

We write as if this were a new truth. Actually it is at least as old as Christianity itself. For centuries the world has been kidding itself that, aside from the usual ebb and flow of the religious creed which it pretended to live. It has thought that the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the Golden Rule, these things are abstractions which could safely be kept on the shelf until such time as mankind grew to a stature where it could reach the tops of the mountains. Because they were always going to start living by these rules in some perpetual tomorrow. Meanwhile, the practical realities of the world demanded that we keep our eye on the prize. We could hate, kill, and deny one another our own brotherhood under God because we told ourselves, it was still that kind of world.

Time has run out for that kind of world. It is now or never on with it and we shall come face to face with our own complete despair, which is even now the inner emotion of every thinking American who reads that we are going to make a "major expansion" in our production of atomic bombs. There is only one answer to all our problems in the world today, and only one safety. It is that we begin the effort to live by the rules we have hitherto considered ourselves privileged to violate. More atomic bombs to be part of any such effort.

Conciliation Falls Again For a second time, United Nations conciliation efforts have failed to produce a formal peace pact between Russia and the rest of the world. For a second time the stumbling block has been the refusal of Greece itself to ar-render its own territorial claims to southern Albania.

In the Greek-Balkan territorial claim is one of those passionate things typical of the gerry-mandered nations of the Balkans.
 One of the chief concerns of British and American policy in Greece, now that the guerrilla threat has been largely ended, has been that the Greeks might pursue their military campaign with the object of conquering the territory in question. A few weeks ago, the Greek Government even proclaimed the legal right to invade Albania.

A year ago, at Paris, a United Nations Conciliation Commission had the Balkan parties close to peace, except for this one issue.
 And it was this same issue which produced our deadlock at Lake Success the other day, even after the guerrilla movement had announced its own retirement from active operation. In both instances, Greece refused to agree that its present border with Albania could be regarded as a permanent border.

So the war which has been regarded as a battle to preserve the independence of Greece must now continue alive. It would appear, in recognition of the future territorial ambitions of the Greeks. To them, obviously, full independence means possession of Southern Albania, but that does not ease the problem for world diplomacy which is trying to achieve some stability in the Balkans.

The Play Begins
 The Germans of both Ger-manies know well enough what that show of independence granted by the Russians to their new puppet in Eastern Germany is worth.

Nonetheless, the leaders of Western Germany have just no time in making the first play open to them. It was to approach the western powers and warn them that Eastern Germany was a good idea if these powers made some new concessions to the German government of Western Germany.

This is what both Russia and the western powers have let themselves in for with their partition of Germany. Each will be under pressure to outdo the other in liberality to the Germans. And the Germans, playing their own position with Germany and the west, will collect from both.

Declares Russians Encourage Nazis London, Oct. 19.—(AP)—The British government said today that Soviet authorities in Germany have openly encouraged Nazis and militarists to participate in public life in the Soviet zone.

The statement was contained in a note to Czechoslovakia rejecting that Russian attitude's protest that establishment of the west German government was a violation of the Potsdam agreement.
 "While the Western powers have fulfilled the tasks of denazification and demilitarization imposed on them by the Potsdam agreement, the Soviet authorities are openly encouraging Nazis and militarists to participate in public life in the Soviet zone," said the note, made public today.

It is an almost identical note munist governments Oct. 9 and 6.

Breaks A. A. Branch Window Toronto, Oct. 20.—(AP)—William Selig, 49, was charged with manifest damage today after police said he threw a rock through a window in the doorway of the A. A. Branch. He had a partyful bottle of wine in his pocket when arrested. Selig told police he tried to borrow a quarter from the club and "they wouldn't give me a nickel."

Burnham Gets Prison Term Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter in Fatal Stabbing of Two

Hartford, Oct. 20.—(AP)—George E. Burnham, 34, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., today received a 10 year sentence in state prison to serve for the slaying of two men.

Burnham, former kitchen worker at the Avon Country club, pleaded guilty to a Superior court here yesterday to manslaughter in the slaying of two men.
 He was charged with having fatally stabbed Henry J. Cap-paman, 44, of Windsor, and Paul W. Clark, 40, both employed at the club. The two deaths resulted after a drunken argument at the club last April 17 and 18.
 Burnham was held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Public Defender Reinhard L.
 Gleason asked for a lower mandate at the slaying of two men connected with the deaths of drinking connected with the deaths and confused testimony made facts of the case hard to decide.

Thank You, Mr. & Mrs. N. M. Davies of Congers, New York
 We're Sure That Millions of Farmers and Consumers Feel Just as You Do!

One of the wonderful things about Americans is their great sense of fair play. Ever since the anti-trust lawyers announced their intention of putting A&P out of business, tremendous numbers of people like Mr. & Mrs. N. M. Davies of Congers, New York, have deluged us with letters, wires and phone calls. These people are telling us, as Mr. & Mrs. Davies do in the following letter, why they like A&P and why they don't want to see this company destroyed.

Gentlemen:
 We have been distressed by the possibility that the A. and P. stores, because of unfair accusations, may cease to exist. I wonder if you will see that our letter reaches the proper source, if there is one.

We are farmers, as you know, and not only sell our products, daily, but necessary food from local A. and P. stores. This includes two A. and P. markets, whose managers very wisely buy on longer time from the farm to store, due to excess handling, transportation and longer time from the two A. and P. stores. Our price to sixteen stores is the same as we get from the two A. and P. stores.

We wondered whether the low prices we see all the time in A. and P. stores might mean that sales people were underpaid. Evidently not, for we have noticed that the same employees stay on year after year, and we know and risen to responsible positions.

That what is this all about, if the consumers, the salespeople, the laborers and the farmers those who manufacture your brands, the truckmen, the laborers and the farmers are ALL satisfied?

We believe the answer is simple. The A. and P. has developed an organization whose efficiency should be an example to all stores handling food. If there were so, independent grocers could not expect larger profits. The solution is not in destroying something that has taken years to build, but in encouraging all merchants to still further improve the efficiency of their operations.

Very sincerely,
 Niles M. Davies

Mortensen Is Speaker Before G. O. P. Women

Former Mayor of Hartford Receives Rousing Welcome at Meeting at Country Club

William H. Mortensen, Hartford's former mayor and a member of the Connecticut State Development Commission, principal speaker at the joint meeting of the Manchester Republican Women's Club, with presidents and members of the other G. O. P. women's clubs in Hartford county, made a decided hit at the meeting and tea yesterday afternoon at the Country Clubhouse. Mr. Mortensen was endorsed last month by the Republican Town Committee of Hartford for 1950 Republican nomination for governor, and more recently by the delegates at the Hartford City Convention.

Introduced by County President Mrs. Howard Garden of Hartford, as he goes to speak Mr. Mortensen gave a rousing welcome. He thanked the women for their interest in addressing the meeting. He had enjoyed the trip from Hartford, he said, and the opportunity of viewing the stands along the highway filled to overflowing with New England fruits and vegetables. He complimented the excellent banquet given at the meeting, the Manchester Country Club, and the beautiful lake reflecting the sunset and green of the trees on the banks of the sunshine of the October afternoon.

He said he was pleased to find present to greet him the leader of the Senate, Charles E. House, and the new members of the Republican town committee, William K. Davis, and so many of the women prominent in Republican affairs throughout the county.

Compliments throughout the town. He took the opportunity to compliment Publisher Thomas Ferguson, and Editor-in-Chief Alan H. Clear, laudatory editorials, such as one might expect to find. He mentioned many times the size of Manchester. He complimented the front page and felt that the Herald compared favorably with that of any other newspaper in the country. He complimented the women's clubs for the invaluable service they render in seeing that young people and newcomers made voters, telephoning to make sure they get to the meeting and checking the lists.

He spoke feelingly of his mother, and especially his mother who now lives in a rural section near Orlando, Florida. She had enjoyed the women's meetings when she lived in Hartford. The members were always solicitous of her comfort, and some of them when in Florida have called upon her to renew acquaintance, he said.

Tells of Early Life. In a reminiscent mood he told of the hard work and thrift practiced by his parents after they came from Denmark in 1855. He was born in Hartford, July 13, 1883, and as a boy he worked in a liver soap in his little express wagon. Some of the other present remembered that their own mothers conducted soap clubs when the Larkin Company at Buffalo, and that means received articles of furniture for their homes.

Mrs. Mortensen was also present yesterday and her husband frequently referred to her as "Alice," and said he must save time for a word or two about his home, some of them written for Alice nearly twenty years ago in the "Atlantic" magazine. He recalled a few rhymes, all of which were amusing and interesting.

'One World' Stand Urged

Hartford Clergyman Elected Head of Foreign Missions Unit

Minneapolis, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Churches must be the first to recognize that this is "one world," and that the only way to bring about peace is through the promotion of international understanding, said Dr. Russell H. Stafford today.

His total project—social action, home and foreign missions—is our awareness that we must be practical in that recognition," said Dr. Stafford, Hartford, Conn., pastor of the First Baptist Church. "We must be practical in our recognition of the fact that we are living in a world of interdependence."

While Mayor he established the non-partisan charter revision commission, which drew up the present Charter of the City of Hartford. He was elected state senator from Hartford in 1948. Mayor of Hartford, carrying the whole Republican ticket with him by a 600 vote. The first Republican mayor of Hartford in many years.

He has been an active member of the Chamber of Commerce and has held directorates in half a dozen of the city's banks and organizations. His campaign has been conducted with skill and close aid, particularly Mr. Olympia's, and well organized, with economical methods.

Mr. John Pickles of the hostess club opened the meeting by raising her right hand, the Girl Scout salute, and welcomed the speaker. Another noted G. O. P. woman present was Mrs. Corinne Alap of Avon, who took the opportunity after Mr. Mortensen's talk, to urge the women to report from the Panel Discussion Saturday at 11 o'clock at the Hotel Bond, with luncheon at one o'clock. Mrs. Sherwood Bowers and their assistants served delicious sandwiches, cookies, candy, tea and coffee. Mrs. Howard Garden, county president and Mrs. Fred Miller, president of the local club, poured. The buffet table was centered with red poinsettias, autumn leaves and late garden flowers.

Steel Walkout Pinch Is Felt

Hartford, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Though slight, local industries are beginning to feel the pinch of the steel strike in orders, production and employment.

Couple Put Behind Bars

Escaped Prisoner and Married Boy Friend Both in Custody

Hartford, Oct. 20.—(AP)—The efforts of Detective Sam Rome of the state police gave Dan Cupp a knockout punch and put an escaped prisoner from Long Lane farm, Middletown, and her married boy friend behind bars.

The principals were Norwin D. Soupp, 36, of Glastonbury, and Miss Nellie Egan, 19, of the escapee.

Loe Angeles, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Alex Inoups, 31, and his wife, Betty, 25, gave a new excuse when they were arrested on a street corner on a charge of selling a "spoon."

While supplies of raw materials are still adequate for another month or so, manufacturers here said today that the most serious aspect of the steel shutdown rests in the termination of orders from industries more directly affected by the strike.

Steel Supplies Adequate. Officials at Jacobs Manufacturing, a manufacturer of machine tools, said his company has already sold this could become apparent in a few weeks if the situation continues.

Mr. Conrad said there was every indication that the level of business would pick up when the steel strike ended the picture.

Agricultural Experiment Station to Celebrate Next Year

New Haven, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Celebrating its 70th anniversary next year, the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station has set Sept. 29, 1950, as the date for the official observance of the event. It was announced today.

The Connecticut station is the oldest institution of its kind in the United States, and its founder, Dr. Samuel Johnson, originated the movement that has led to the establishment of an experiment station in each of the 48 states.

Plans for Celebration. Dr. C. L. W. Robinson, chairman of the Anniversary committee, said in a speech at the station on Tuesday morning, "Science and Agriculture in the afternoon. Scheduled for the evening is a special program of the station. All events will be open to the public.

Special invitations will be sent to representatives of other experiment stations in the country and to the Federal agricultural agencies, plant scientists in private industry and to the Connecticut colleges, state agencies, and agricultural and other organizations.

While the official celebration is limited to one day, the station is planning special events throughout the anniversary year. Many state agricultural organizations and national scientific societies are being invited to hold their meetings at the experiment station in 1950, to help celebrate its founding.

Urges More Girls To Become Nurses

New Haven, Oct. 20.—(AP)—An appeal that more girls consider nursing a career was made here last night by Dr. Thomas Parran, former surgeon-general of the United States.

Dr. Parran, who said that "we are desperately short of nurses," said it wasn't a career that he was talking about, but a "way of life" that he called "nursing." He said that the "nursing" profession is one of the most noble and useful in the world, and that it is one of the most important in the world.
