LaBelle old the board that the negative approach to the zoning problems in Manchester would be to stop low ousing and concentrate solely on ndustry and business zones. La-Belle pointed out that the zoning code is several years behind times, partly the fault of the Planning Commission and also the fault of the town's people. He said that industry and business zones must be sought along with the increased statement by General Manager George Waddell when the latter expressed a belief that the tax rate would eventually jump to 50 mills, unless something is done.

Secretary Harry Russell first reported a telephone call from Colorado while the application was being read. William Hill called to voice his opposition to the application. Hill continued that he had a petition to file, but forgot to before leaving on his trip. Other residents of the area ap-peared in opposition with a peti-tion drawn up at the last minute

Ralph Godfrey and his band of trained mules have been playing donkey ball for the past 16 seasons, and they never fail to draw large crowds, and this evening should prove no differently. So youngsters don't waste precious time, get mom and dad to hurry down so you can get a good seat.

This will mark the third consecutive season that a donkey game has been staged at Robertson Park for America's funniest game with the original pandhandle donkeys.

Ralph Godfrey and his band of trained mules have been playing donkey ball for the past 16 season's game, and when on the mound he is a snow in his own.

This will be Godfrey's only appearance in Manchester this year, so for an evening of entertainment you'll long remember, you can't afford not to follow the crowd to Robertson Park for America's funniest game with the original pandhandle donkeys.
