Quotations Woven Into Talk Before Book Group

Members of the Manchester Book Group completed their first session with a picnic supper at the Tolland Turnpike home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan H. Khatkhaty last evening, honoring their discussion leader, Mr. Gilbert Hunt, with an appreciation for their conduct of the group during the year.

The session of the evening, made by Miss Helen Estlin, in a list of quotations from the year's authors, studied during the year, was delivered on the picnic lawn as follows: "Each of us had to decide whether to be a member of this Great Book Group. Presumably we all decided that we gave the world to man in common, but since he gave it them for their benefit and the greatest convenience of life they were capable to draw from it as they pleased."

The large lantern in this church were in loving memory of the Rev. Philip King, pastor from 1918, and will be unveiled by Mr. King's grandson, Philip King, of Manchester, Conn., on Saturday, July 22.

Lion Reverses Picture Theme

Fort Lamy, French Equatorial Africa.—(AP)—French commandant Mahuzier, wanted some shots of a lion killing a lion. He got just the opposite. When his safari finally cornered a lion Marcel Vincent, the hunter, fired and wounded the lion. He had then two bullets left in his gun. He went closer and fired into the air to scare the lion out again. The lion hit one bullet. Vincent fired to watch him drop. The lion ran away with his rifle and ran to the nearest tree. He didn't make it. The lion was on his back. The rest of the safari turned up then by a lion. Vincent died. Just two hours later Vincent died.
