Local Educators At UN Meeting

Forty-one Manchester teachers visited the United Nations at Lake Success. This was the second such trip sponsored by the Association for Professional Standards of the Manchester Education Association, which arranges for the in-service training of teachers. Mrs. Florence Woods, Vice-President of the Association, arranged the conducted United Nations tour.

In the Trusteeship Council the Korean situation was under discussion. Poland and Czechoslovakia questioning the intervention of the United Nations since they considered it a civil dispute.

The Economic and Social Council was discussing the rights of non-self-governing countries, Iran and Pakistan, both represented by women, were heard.

The group also attended a meeting of a committee of the Security Council.

Dinner was served by previous arrangement, in the delegates' dining room.

An unusually large crowd, including groups of teachers from other states, was present at the various meetings.

Weddings

Vineck-Blanchard
A Palm and chrysanthemum formed the setting at St. James' church Saturday morning at ten o'clock for the wedding of Miss Lucille Cavolin Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas F. Blanchard, of 407 Center street, and Albert Alfred Vineck, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Vineck, of 318 East Middle Turnpike. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Edgar Farrell, Eugene Morrisette of Hartford sang "Ave Maria."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride had as her matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Myles Meeker of New Britain. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Theodore Cummings and Mrs. Charles Balch, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Alfred Bielefeld, all of this town.

Edward Vineck served as best man for his brother, and usher was George Vineck, nephew of the bridegroom, Zigmund Sobiski and Maria Wrobel.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle, fashioned with sheer off-the-shoulder neckline with satin band, fitted bodice, long sleeves, full bouffant skirt and chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught at the top by a helmet cap trimmed with pearl. She carried a mother of pearl prayer book with an orchid.

The matron of honor wore a gown of gold satin, fashioned with a shirred mandarin collar, cap sleeves with a shirred cuff, bouffant bodice and full bouffant skirt. She wore matching mitta and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

The bridesmaids' gowns were fashioned the same as that of the matron of honor but were of candy green satin. Their flowers were white orchids.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Blanchard chose an aqua dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Chrysanthemum decorated the garden Grove for the two o'clock reception for 200 guests. When leaving for a wedding reception at Washington, D. C. the bride wore a cocoa brown suit with dark fur accessories.

IT'S JUST A FEW DAYS...
Yes, it's just a few days before Thanksgiving, and time to remind you that... AS IN PAST YEARS—PINEHURST WILL BE HEAD-QUARTERS FOR FINE TURKEYS, CAPONS AND ROASTING CHICKENS.

Our experience over the past 30 years has taught us where to buy the finest poultry—and you can assured of the finest quality Turkeys and other Poultry on any orders you entrust to us.

So far as ROBERT'S SUPPLY will allow, we will feature Robert Farm Fresh Conn. turkeys. Robert is not in a position to give us all the turkeys we want, so orders will be filled as received.

ROBERT HEN TURKEYS WILL RUN IN SIZE FROM 13 TO 16 lbs., likely more 14 to 15" than any other size.

Heavy Tom Turkeys, also from Robert Farms will be in plentiful supply and at 10c a lb. below the Hens, the price is very attractive.

ROBERT TOM TURKEYS, with simply stacks of slices of tender white meat, will weigh from 20 to 24 lbs. Phone service from nine until 5 Wednesday if you care to order a Robert Farms Fresh Conn. Turkey or other poultry.

Rockville Council O.K.'s Budget for '51

Rockville, Nov. 14 (Special)—At a meeting of the Common Council last evening a budget of $171,263 was adopted to be recommended to the voters at the city meeting to be held December 5, for the city's fiscal year of 1951. This is slightly higher than the 1950 budget which totaled $174,670.25.

The recommended budget adopted at last night's meeting is as follows: Administrative, $45,000.00; General Expenses, $14,975.00; Judicial, City Court, $4,825.00; Miscellaneous, $12,025.00; Public Works Department, General Maintenance and other expenses, $47,280.25; Police Department, $25,200.00; Fire Department, $18,300.00; Lighting, $10,900.00; Health Department, $16,125.00; Filtration, $7,150.00; Recreation, $5,000.00.

Included in the final bills voted at last night's meeting was one from Pagan Bros. for $3,139.25 for the purchase of a new recreation on South street, will hold a regular communication at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 21, at the City Hall.

The following report by Alderman James Rohan of the Finance committee, several abatements and transfers on the tax list were approved.

Building Inspector Roland White gave his report for the month of October which showed two dwellings, one on Franklin street and Great street, being erected. There were eight permits granted at an estimated cost of $14,500. During the month, $14,500 was collected in fees. Upon the recommendation of Alderman Rohan, the sum of $1,889.42 now in the People's Savings Bank will be used under the supervision of the chairman of the Recreation Board, to be turned over to the City Treasurer, with expenditures to be under the control of the Recreation committee. Several departmental transfers as suggested by Alderman Rohan in the 1950 budget were voted.

Mayor Frederick Berger announced there was nothing further to report at this time in regard to the petition for new gold for the gasline station on Union street.

The next meeting of the Common Council will be on Tuesday evening, Dec. 5, prior to the city meeting.

Girl Scout News

Troop 36, Brownies, held investiture ceremonies for the following girls at the regular weekly meeting last Wednesday: Carol Beat, Sharon Lucius, Jo-Ann LaBaron, Joan Kauderian and Joyce Helton. The older Brownies did the investiture of the new girls. Mrs. Eric Scott, leader, read it on sale, including breads, beans, stews, soups, etc., and also prepared food to be picked up between 10 and 11 o'clock on Tuesday. A phone call to Mrs. Palmer, Rockville 9073, or Mrs. Good, Manchester, will bring someone to collect the food. The proceeds of these food sales will be used for a special gift to the new girls.

Fayette Lodge No. 49, will hold a regular communication at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 21, at the City Hall.
