Grandma Wise Gives Big Hand To George's Dad... To such American diplomats, we would recommend that, representing the world's most powerful nation, they shed their fears, abandon their negative techniques, carry some imagination and positive principle into their negotiations with Russia, and give the one essential ingredient of any conference, which is the spirit of compromise, a chance to exist.

What Their Mission Is... Those Americans who take the point of view that the whole Korean intervention was a ghastly mistake, and who seem able to cry out that the war there is none of our business, should be terminated by bringing our soldiers home are all, from their own motivations, doing something to make Stalin's presumptuous discussion of American fighting men in Korea come true.

Our Fear Of Confines... Reluctantly the United States diplomacy is moving to permit a Big Four Conference on the problems which are "disturbing the world."

Connecticut Yankee

By A. H. O.

Those who have been wondering why Democratic State Chairman John Bailey should, at the beginning of the present session, have been an extraordinary comers with Federal rules which would keep any of his 19 Democratic senators from running out on their party to throw control of the Senate to the 17 Republican members, should accompany us back to a Washington's Birthday of 19 years ago.

That was the day another precious Democratic Senate majority disappeared. The 1933 Senate had 18 Democrats, 17 Republicans. The House as usual, was Republican. The Governor was Republican, masterminded by the House of the Legislature deadlocked, the nomination of judges went to a Democratic Governor, and the development of the main leadership of the Democratic party at that time hoped for.

But there was one beneficiary of the so very notorious deal which has since very publicly proclaimed himself against all pretensions of decency and honor, without ever recanting their part in the deal. We would remember that it is, today, to recall the names of any such.
