Booster Club Growing Fast

In Less Than One Week, 463 Join Unit to Help Support School Events

Response to the Manchester Booster Club, an organization formed recently by an enthusiastic group of local businessmen to aid in the extra-curricular program of the school system, was good. The group, which has been meeting on Monday nights for several weeks to plan the membership drive that is now underway, made first returns last night. Seventeen of 28 membership solicitors who made returns reported 463 members had joined in less than a week.

The initial goal of the Booster Club is to raise a necessary sum of two weeks' dues to start a fund of 1,000 members. Nearly half that goal was reached after the first meeting. The club will publish a daily list of members, the first of which appears today. Other objects and places of the Booster Club can be found on the sport pages. Sports Editor Everett T. Foster, manager of the Booster Club Steering committee.

Board Will Not Meet Tonight

Not Enough Directors Available, Mayor Says; Will Arrange Session.

The special meeting sought for tonight by Democratic Director Katherine Bourn on the question of the Water Department's finances could not be arranged, according to Mayor Harold A. Durling, because of the unavailability of some of the directors.

Mrs. Bourn yesterday requested that special meeting be called tonight at the library building, in order to discuss the whole question of the department's financial condition and the correctness of the town's covering the department's debts without authorizing the Board of Directors.

Turkington said this morning that he had several other members of the board had prior commitments for this evening which would prevent them from attending.

As to whether the question could be included on the agenda of next Tuesday's regularly scheduled meeting, the mayor did not believe that he could do so. There are already a great number of items scheduled for discussion. However, he did say he would try to arrange a special meeting on a Saturday and a fine exhibit on a new house for children and adults was shown.

Watkins Offers New-Type Carpet

A handsome rambling-textured carpet featuring the first new weaving process in over a hundred years is now being offered in the Manchester area by Watkins Brothers, Calloway "Tremont" and woven by the Mohawk Carpet Mill. This new carpet has a looped, twisted knot pile that hides footprints, eliminates "fluffing," keeps shading and soiling to a minimum, and lends new reality and luxury to floors.

Wear tests prove that this new weave has a better than normal wear value. In comparison with other carpets in the same price field, tests also show that this weave can be cleaned commercially without endangering its texture. Excellent for either period or modern type decorating, the new weave is being made in the four leading colors in the today, gray, green, rose and beige.

Taft, Connally Swap Abuse on Foreign Policy

promptly let fly with an answering barrage from the Senate floor. Taft then declined to return the fire, saying he had no comment on Connally's Senate speech.

Chambers' Senate speech was a "chameleon" one, willing to subordinate his integrity and his truthfulness in order to grasp a few filthy votes.

Connally, shouting angrily and leaving his arms, said Taft had charged that the Truman administration "invited the Communists into Korea" with "an asset" from Connally as chairman of the Senate-Foreign Relations committee.

Connally's blast kept his Senate colleagues late for dinner by touching off a lengthy and stormy debate. Democrats came to Connally's defense, and Republicans hit into the Texas.

Coming on the eve of today's presidential primary in New Hampshire, the exchange took on added interest. Taft is entered in the contest a front runner along with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on the Republican ticket.

Such praise came from Sen. Long of Louisiana. Monroney of Oklahoma, McFarland of Arizona, Sparker of Alabama and Humphreys of Minnesota.

Monroney called the remarks attributed to Taft "the rankest kind of political clapnet."

Myrtle Reiter, No. 2, Woman's Benefit Association, will preside at a meeting on Tuesday evening, March 18, with a potluck at 6:30 in Odd Fellows Hall.

Prio, before leaving the Presidential Palace yesterday, had pointed out that Batista's action came at a time when all political parties of Cuba were ready to participate in a civic demonstration.

Prio, barred from re-election, was supporting the nominee of his own authentic revolutionary party, former Secretary of State Charles McNamara, Batista and Roberto Agra-

GENERAL OF THE ARMY DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

AMERICANS NOW IS THE TIME

When we the people, of these United States must decide whether we will continue down the road to national destruction or reaffirm our belief in the principles upon which this republic was founded, we must once again pledge "our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor" if we are to preserve them for future generations to come—"there comes a time in the lives of men, when they must certify as to their beliefs, not only by words, but by direct action. Therefore, let us act now, and declare for a man who can lead us to victory. Soldier, statesman, educator, but above all, a great American.

THE PAST: Never since the beginning of our history have we as a nation lost so much and gained so little as in the past seven years. Under the Truman Administration we have paved the way for the Communist conquest of China, sent countless thousands of Americans to die in Korea in a war our government does not call a war. (We are now in the process of losing it by stalemate), expended billions of dollars in a Europe we cannot yet defend. We even, as a nation, have been forced to pay tribute in the form of blackmail to a half-rate (-rat) misbegotten Communist satellite government to ransom four American citizens.

THE PRESENT: For the present, we as active supporters of General of the Army Dwight David Eisenhower can bring the force of public opinion to bear on both the delegates to the state and national conventions. To those critics of the General who complain that they don't know where he stands on issues both foreign and domestic, we can point out that as President of Columbia University, he made many speeches concerning these issues. In future advertisements, we will quote whenever possible, until such time as the General returns to once again speak for himself. Remember, we must work for him, while he works for us.

THE FUTURE: The future can be secured, if as a nation, we make certain that the present administration is replaced in the next election. It would be well to remember that in any future government, we must have a President who will institute and direct a strong foreign policy, not the policy of appeasement that typifies our present State Department, nor would we want a "Fortress America," and let the rest of the free world die beneath the tyrant's heel. We want instead, a man like General Eisenhower who can in the words of the late great Theodore Roosevelt, "Speak softly but carry a big stick." Then and only then will our future be secure.

OPEN LETTER TO SENATOR ROBERT TAFT: Dear Senator Taft: In the past few months you have consistently inferred that General Dwight Eisenhower does not have the qualifications to become President of the United States. You have stated that you want to call a spade a spade. We'll call you Senator. Examine your record as a politician as against that of General Eisenhower as a soldier, statesman, educator, and great American. His actions speak louder than your voting record. Hold your cards up, Senator. We can see your hand.

Sense and Nonsense

Oh, shade tear. For Lillian Hoover. He tried to do more. Two State cops over.

Report—Why did you become an actress? Actress—Well, what does the clock say? One way to fight inflation is by not having goods which may become scarce.

He stumbled up the stairs at 8 a.m. and into his bedroom. Wife—Well, what does the clock say? A very excellent lady was desired by another to preserve her secrets after she had been married.

Gerard—Horse racing is the sport of fools. What do you mean? Gerard—I always kiss my dough goodby!

What a day! What a day! Can hardly talk! Bugs Bunny.

They don't gab so much since I had those gloves in. I can't pop out every five minutes! Toonville folks.

Business of trying to shake the little brother. If it hadn't been for this pile of dirt, I never could have given you the slip.

Freckles and his friends. Look, we're here! Look, we're here! Only but little better. Only but little better.
