Dixiecrat Bolt Sought by Ike

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Dwight Eisenhower went to Texas today and called on the South to rebel against the Democrats. He said the Truman administration has been "discredited," that it is "weak-kneed and soft-headed." Adlai Stevenson, the general's foe for the presidency, lashed back at the Republican's attack from the podium. He said they were more interested in "algebra, emotion and content" than in the issues of the day.

It was on the occasion of his 62nd birthday that Eisenhower returned to his native Texas in quiet of the "biggest chunk of electoral votes in the South—24."

Crowd howls "No, no," as Eisenhower told them he was advised not to campaign in the South because "the administration has done these states in the biggest way."

The Republican nominee was introduced by Price Daniel, Texas attorney general who is running for the Senate. A leading figure in the Texas revolt agency, the national Democratic leadership, Daniel said "Texas can no longer be taken for granted by any political party."

Stevenson flew to Capers, Wyo., to deliver a speech asserting that "Old Guard reactionaries (have) induced or forced the general to alter his own positive principles."

The Illinois governor said Eisenhower has come to adopt "views that favor more of isolation and retreat than security and confidence."

Sen. Richard Nixon, Eisenhower's running mate for vice president, flew back in the national midnight last night with a radio-television address challenging Stevenson's fitness for the presidency.

Sen. John J. Sparkman, the Democratic candidate for the vice presidency, who speaks at James-town, N. C. tonight, took off.

Supersonic Delta Plane Ordered by Air Force

Washington, Oct. 14—(AP)—The Air Force announced today it has ordered "initial production" of America's first supersonic delta wing fighter plane, the F-102.

The new aircraft will be built by Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. (Convair), at San Diego, Calif.

The Air Force announcement said the F-102 would resemble in general the Convair-built XP-57, the first known delta-wing aircraft to fly. A delta plane is triangular in shape, roughly like a half diamond, and it has no horizontal tail.

"Designed for very high speeds in the atmosphere, the F-102 will incorporate significant improvements in armament and electronics," the announcement said.

Details Secret
"Performance and migration details may not be revealed for security reasons."

The XP-57 was built as a research interceptor, and has been known many times since, chiefly at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. It has been the highest supersonic speed plane, but it reportedly never has exceeded the speed of sound.

The speed of sound varies, depending upon temperature, humidity and other factors, from about 760 to 800 miles an hour at sea level to 1,000 to 1,100 miles an hour at 50,000 feet. An airplane which barely exceeds that speed in the transonic range, however, the F-102 will be definitely supersonic, as are several other Air Force and Navy swept-wing aircraft now flying.

Lodge Uses Democrats' Words to Build Up Ike

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Lodge continued, Senator Sparkman said this.

"We believe that you, General Eisenhower, more than any other President, are especially equipped to give us the leadership that we need and that we deserve."

The name of Alger Hiss, former State department official convicted of perjury in the Whitaker Chambers case, was mentioned on two occasions last night.

Senator William Benton, Democratic seeking reelection, referred to Republican attacks on Stevenson for having given character testimony for Hiss, and said Hiss also enjoyed the confidence of top Republicans.

Dallas Herald Hiss
"Of course Alger Hiss' reputation for honesty and integrity was good in 1947 when Governor Stevenson knew him," said Benton. "It was so good that John Foster Dulles, now the top foreign policy adviser of the Republicans, hired him at $200 a year as president of the Strategic Endowment even though he had heard rumors of perjury in the Whitaker Chambers case."

Girl Agrees to Have Heart Operation

Pearl Simon, 8, of Vernon, La., tells her father in Boston that she will go ahead with a planned operation on her heart at the city's Children's Medical Center. Louisiana doctors have said the cure lies only about four more years without an operation and neighbors raised $2,000 to help pay for Pearl's treatment but she left the hospital the previous week saying God told her in a dream she would die. The girl's father, Alton Simon, a rice farmer, flew north to persuade her to return to the hospital. (AP-Wirephoto).

Area Gas Line Work Suspended

Hartford, Oct. 14—(AP)—Construction and operation of the Algonquin Gas Transmission Company's natural gas pipeline, which would serve the Hartford Gas Company, has been suspended by a decision of the U. S. Supreme Court.

A spokesman for Algonquin in Boston said, however, that another appeal and an application for a stay of High Court action was made today.

The decision not to hear an appeal from Algonquin, made Monday by the High Court, meant that the certificate of convenience and necessity granted by the Federal Power Commission is null and void.

Algonquin has virtually completed a $50,000,000 pipeline across Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, and was scheduled to deliver natural gas to the Hartford Gas Company and others in Connecticut by Nov. 1.

The Hartford Gas Company is in the midst of a $1,200,000 conversion program for the use of natural gas. Algonquin claims that the conversion will be completed by the end of the year, but the conversion program is being delayed by the court action.

The decision was a surprise to many in the industry, and it is expected that it will have a significant impact on the gas industry.

Charges Jean Purging To M

Tehran, Iran, Oct. 14—(AP)—The opposition newspaper, Shargh, charged today that the Iranian government has been "eliminating possible successors" to Premier Mohammad Mossadegh.

The government announced yesterday it would sentence to six to 18 months in jail and a $10,000 fine, Shargh editor, a former member of the cabinet, and a former member of the parliament.

The Shargh editor, a former member of the cabinet, and a former member of the parliament, were convicted of "inciting to rebellion."

The government also announced that it would sentence to six to 18 months in jail and a $10,000 fine, Shargh editor, a former member of the cabinet, and a former member of the parliament.

5 Stall Probe For U. S. Reds On UN Payroll

New York, Oct. 14—(AP)—A search for American Communists on the United Nations payroll has been stymied in part by the refusal of five witnesses to answer questions by U. S. Senate investigators.

The five—four present U. N. employees and one former U. N. stenographer—refused yesterday to say whether they ever were Communists or whether they knew any Reds in the U. N.

All based their refusal on the constitutional grounds of protecting themselves against possible self-incrimination.

The three-man U. S. Senate internal subcommittee continues its hearing today.

The four U. N. employees questioned yesterday were Alfred J. Van Tassel, Joe Gordon, Frank C. Bancroft and Stanley Grimes. The former employee was Eugene Wallace's brother-in-law.

Van Tassel, a $12,840-a-year operations director for the U. N. Technical Assistance Administration, argued that questions about Communist ties were "certainly irrelevant."

Reds Name Stalin, 10 Aides To Revamp Party Program

Moscow, Oct. 14—(AP)—The 19th Congress of the All-Soviet Communist party has named Prime Minister Stalin and 10 aides to revamp the party program in line with changes in Russia's international relations and internal developments.

A similar revision commission was named by the last party congress in 1953, but World War II and postwar reconstruction postponed completion of its work, a Moscow radio broadcast said.

Later today the Congress is expected to elect a central committee empowered to organize a congress to replace the present Politburo. It also must choose a secretary and a party control committee and elect a central inspection committee.

A radio announcement said the revision committee members will include four Politburo members, all deputy premiers of the Soviet Union, and five other members.

Others on the committee are: President, chairman of the Council of Ministers, P. N. Pospelov, head of the Marx-Lenin Institute and former editor of Pravda; B. E. Saburov, chairman of the State Planning Committee who presented the five-year plan; and a party control committee member.

United Nations Picks Pearson as President

Washington, Oct. 14—(AP)—Rep. Chief (D., R.) said today: "I find no fault" with the United Nations' decision against prosecuting Rep. Rev. Beck Bosome (D., Utah) on charges of violating the Corrupt Practices Act.

Chief, chairman of a House Judiciary subcommittee which is investigating the department, got out a statement of his view in releasing a letter from Attorney General McCraney outlining the reasons for the department's decision.

McCraney previously had announced that Bosome would be prosecuted although he said there had been technical violations of the law forbidding a Congress member from accepting campaign contributions from employees. Mr. Bosome has acknowledged receiving $665 in contributions for the 1950 campaign from two of her office workers.

The Attorney General's letter said the contributions were voluntary and originally were made without Mr. Bosome's knowledge.

"Technically, Mr. Bosome is guilty under one section, the contribution under another, but there is no proof as to any of them except their own admissions."

"If they are indicted the government can hardly expect the contributors to testify against Mr. Bosome or Mrs. Bosome to be a witness against the prosecution."

"It is clear that neither Mrs. Bosome nor the contributors were aware of the prohibition against such contributions, and she would not have reported them."

McCraney said this case differed from that involving Rep. J. P. Cullen, who was indicted by Rep. Walter E. Williams (R., Ohio), both of whom were convicted of violating the act. His letter said:

"The Thomas case was a fraud case—payroll padding. The Brem case involved the use of compulsion and coercion in securing the contributions from the employees."

The initial charges carried the attack force to the crest of Triangle ridge, which is about 1,800 feet high.

Thomas was accused in 1948 of requiring certain workers to contribute to the fund for the purchase of a house.

The sharp shale-covered slope held the crest of Triangle and rolled hand grenades and rocks down the slope. Front reports said Red resistance on Sniper ridge was considerably lighter.

Brem was convicted last spring of unlawfully accepting a $1,000 bribe.

UN Ground Attack Heaviest of Year

Seoul, Oct. 14—(AP)—Allied infantrymen lashed out today with their heaviest ground attack in nearly a year and grabbed portions of two Chinese-held hills on the central Korean front. The attacking troops, backed by heavy tank and artillery fire, knocked the Reds off two peaks of Triangle hill, north of Kumhwa. Two miles to the east they swept over a ridge called "Sniper ridge." Both hills are about 1,800 feet high.

Union Chief And Family Threatened

Thompsonville, Oct. 14—(AP)—The leader of a textile local now on strike against the Bigelow Sanford Carpet Company here reported today that he had turned over to postal authorities three anonymous letters threatening his wife, two small children and himself and two other letters attacking his character.

William M. Goldsmith, an organizer for the United Textile Workers Union of America, said that some of the strikers also had received verbal threats, but that in six years of union activity in the area he had never experienced in which a worker's family had been threatened.

He said the union has arranged for guards at the Perrano home in six years of union activity in the area he had never experienced in which a worker's family had been threatened.

The strike, which began Sept. 1, was a "no strike" clause in the contract. Goldsmith said, involves some 2,200 workers.

7th Session Will Debate Over Korea

United Nations, N. Y., Oct. 14—(AP)—The United Nations General Assembly today elected Canada's Lester B. Pearson to preside over critical debates on Korea and colonialism.

The world organization met for the first time in its spanking new building on New York's East river. An assemblage of diplomatic envoys contrasted sharply with the gloom contrasted sharply with the gloom contrasted sharply with the gloom contrasted sharply with the gloom.

The new president got 51 votes in the secret balloting and Mrs. V. P. Fawcett of Britain, who served on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, was elected to the post.

Foreign Secretary of Canada, is former head of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Two years ago he served on the U. N. mediation committee which tried unsuccessfully to end the Korean war.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei G. Vishinsky met in front row seats as the retiring assembly president, Louis "Padilla" Novales of Mexico, handed the gavel at 11:20 a. m.

Greetings Outlined
The leaders of the opposing free world and Communist bloc did not meet one another as they entered the 12½ million dollar hall where they will convene during the next few weeks on such subjects as Korea, disarmament, Germany, Austria and independence for colonial countries.

Retiring president Novales said the possibilities of peace are darker than at any time since the war. He deplored "all activities are directed by the fist of a future war."

In this atmosphere, there was a sharp clash to talk about agreement and conciliation.

Because of this, the American diplomat declared, "it is urgent to assert that our function is particularly the function of conciliation, which is a function of peace."

Novales said that the question of Korea—expected to dominate assembly proceedings—now again being debated with the representatives of 60 countries in the oval room listened intently. "It has not diminished the hopes which rest on the peace work," he said. "It has not diminished the hopes which rest on the peace work."

The hall, whose dominant colors are olive green and pale blue, was jammed to its 2,054 capacity. It is the third and last completed building of the $8 million U. N. headquarters.

Outside the domed assembly building workers still labored on a tunnel which will help prevent flooding.

Area Gas Line Work Suspended

It is possible that the whole area will return to the Federal Energy Commission for another set of hearings on the Algonquin pipeline.

An Algonquin spokesman said a meeting that company attorneys in Washington had requested for a stay on the appeal to the Supreme Court was asked for a hearing a second time.

Such a procedure, say legal experts, would take time and the second appeal is pending any not-stop operation of the line.

If the case is remanded to the Federal Energy Commission, hearings may be required, and this is a lengthy process.

In either case, a decision could be made by the Federal Energy Commission.

It is not clear whether the case will be heard by the Federal Energy Commission or the Supreme Court.

with economy as a force that would simply convert us into a rich and defenseless prize for the big aggressor.

"Real security demands both military strength and solvency. It involves complex logistics but it also involves simple mathematics.

"This ideal of the middle way also points to the method of defending against Communist subversion.

"Here we all know the two most extreme approaches. The first attacks the danger with a zeal that takes no account of our civil liberties. It wounds the innocent as well as the guilty. It is a parody of righteous justice.

"That extreme I have firmly and explicitly renounced. We cannot pretend to defend freedom with weapons aimed only to the arsenal of tyrants.

"The opposite extreme is no less repugnant to me. This extreme talks in the slick vocabulary of "freedom" and "phantoms." This new label of the opposition leaders to bring to a halt the whole ugly record of Communist subversion, sublimation, and and I do regard it lightly. We will not treat it that way.

"The truth and freedom way
 leads back to health with repeated
 blood transfusions.

"It would be, if you were the
 wife of the man returning from
 the front, the man who has been
 run into and demolished by a
 speeding driver, and whose life
 hangs on the balance for weeks
 the doctor successfully brought
 him back to health with repeated
 blood transfusions.

"It would be, if you were the
 husband of the woman hemorrhaging
 in childbirth, who suddenly depravedly needed a transfusion of
 eight transfusions to save her life.
 These were all Manchester people. Can you be sure the need will
 be met?

"Next Monday, Oct. 20, from 8
 to 8:30 p. m., the Bloodmobile unit
 will be stationed at Woodruff Hall
 for the purpose of blood donations. But no one seemed to consider it important to rescue lowly
 legislative candidates from a miserable fate.

Connecticut Yankee
 By A. H. O.

Democratic State Chairman
 John Bailey is suffering from mastalgia, and we share it with him,
 to some extent.

"His mastalgia is for the good old days when Connecticut had presidential and gubernatorial elections in the same year. This being the first year in which we are not holding a gubernatorial election, it is particularly conspicuous of the change, and he is even trying to do something about it.

"This is reflected in his repeated invitation to Governor Lodge to take the platform and discuss state issues with him. Governor Lodge is not on the ticket; nobody can vote for him or against him in November; but Bailey wants him to act as if he were running for office, just the same. Since Bailey has nominated no shadow candidates to oppose Lodge in this important kind of campaign, Lodge apparently expected to accept Bailey as his opponent, and debate
 with him.

"There is, of course, some pragmatic sense in Mr. Bailey's imprudence. He does have his eye on the elections in the General Assembly. He would like to retain his Democratic Senate. And there are hundreds of candidates running for the General Assembly, but he has no chance of winning. He has no chance of discussing state issues.

"The institution of the General term for governor was designed to take Connecticut gubernatorial candidates off the coat tails of national candidates in presidential years. But no one seemed to consider it important to rescue lowly
 legislative candidates from a miserable fate.

"So these lowly legislative candidates, who at least need to

Deaths Last Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six-Seven, France—Gaston
 Raly, 67, one of France's best known literary producers, died at his home in Paris, after a long illness. He was born in 1885 in Eastbourne, England. Sir Maurice Landon Gwyer, 74, first chief justice of India, one of the architects of India's Constitution, and vice chancelor of the University
 from 1944-1950, died Sunday.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

Rangoon, Burma, Oct. 14 (AP)—
 "First," he said, "comes the major question of our time: What is the proper province of government in the life of each of us?"

"We know what the extremists
 say. One cries: 'This is the cry of the masses.' This is the cry of the people who have little or no faith in the people, who look on free man as so weak, so irresponsible that an all-powerful government must direct and protect him.

"The end of this road is dictatorship.

"The other extremists are those who deny the obligation of government to intervene on behalf of the people even when the complexities of modern life demand it.

"The end of that road is anarchy.

"Both extremes are wrong. Both are dangerous. One attacks man in the power of central government. The other attacks man in the power of his fellow and returns him to the law of the jungle. Both rob him of his chance to be what he can become.

"Whatever the problem from electric power to family health government should proceed along the middle way. This we keep balance the twin ideals of security and liberty. To work for one at the expense of the other ends in endangering both.

"We will strengthen both liberty and security. That is the aim of this crusade.

"Next, what is true of government is true of labor. Here again we know the extremes probably for more alluring solution. Radicals hail American workers as their registered bondsmen, and hope to climb to positions of power over their backs.

"Reactionary extremists attack
 American unions as un-American, or greedy, and hope to climb to wealth on their knees before the master of labor discipline.

"The middle way is to stand for the simple, honest, and neglected ideal of voluntary arbitration. I stand for no consideration that labor problems need and should not be exploited for employers for economic gain or politicians for political gain.

"Am deeply suspicious of compulsion by any side by union leaders, by employers or by a government.

"What is true of these problems of government and of labor is equally true of problems of foreign policy. Bluster in words here could mean national humiliation.
 Re, too, would mean appearance in deeds. The way to international security is something different from either extreme: quiet firmness in words, effective strength in purpose, in productivity, and in arms.

"The specific problem of arming our nation presents a particularly clear problem in finding and adhering to the middle way.

"One extreme would have us
 arm with hysterical speed, leading to an unmanageable financial problem. The opposition extreme is less dangerous; its obsession

Blood Donor Program

Bloodmobile Day should be a regular day on your calendar.
 It would be, if you were the mother of the little girl who had been in an automobile accident
 and who needs blood transfusion
 to save her life.

"It would be, if you were the
 wife of the man returning from
 the front, the man who has been
 run into and demolished by a
 speeding driver, and whose life
 hangs on the balance for weeks
 the doctor successfully brought
 him back to health with repeated
 blood transfusions.

"It would be, if you were the
 husband of the woman hemorrhaging
 in childbirth, who suddenly de-
 pravedly needed a transfusion of
 eight transfusions to save her life.
 These were all Manchester people. Can you be sure the need will
 be met?

"Next Monday, Oct. 20, from 8
 to 8:30 p. m., the Bloodmobile unit
 will be stationed at Woodruff Hall
 for the purpose of blood donations. But no one seemed to consider it important to rescue lowly
 legislative candidates from a miserable fate.

"So these lowly legislative candidates, who at least need to have the privilege of riding on

Important Facts About Packard's Proved Power Brakes

Outstanding Advancement in Car Control Sets New Standard of Motoring Safety!

NOT SINCE 1924—when Packard was first to offer four-wheel brakes as standard equipment—has there been so important a contribution to driving ease, convenience and safety as Packard Power Brakes!

- Proved faster acting, far easier to apply and completely safe at all times, Packard Power Brakes give you quicker, smoother stops with 40% less foot pressure—as thousands of Packard owners have already learned through hundreds of thousands of motoring miles!
- You don't even have to take your foot off the floor to use them. You merely pivot your toe from the accelerator to Packard's low-level brake pedal. This alone cuts 29% from the average time it takes to apply brakes! Gentle toe-press pressure is all that Packard Power Brakes require.
- First power brakes on any passenger car that you don't have to lift your foot to apply. Proved Packard Power Brakes use engine vacuum to produce 40% of the braking effort and to assure a normal "feel" to pedal action. They give you smooth, straight-line stops every time!
- The only car with these proved power brakes, today's great Packard offers you another braking exclusive in its Saffi-Set Parking Brake. This convenient hand brake is either "ON" or "OFF"—it can't be accidentally left halfway on to cause brake lining wear when the car is moving.
- SEE, COMPARE AND DRIVE A PACKARD before you spend $2500 for a car. Only Packard gives big-car comfort, performance and safety at medium-car cost and economy. And remember—"Built like a Packard" means built to last!

Reds Name Stalin To Revamp Party

plan objectives to the Congress. D. I. Chenskov, I. I. Rumyantsev and P. A. Yudin.

The announcement said the Congress had decided to reshape the party program because of great changes in international relations and in the building of Socialism in this country.

The revised program will be presented at the next party congress slated to meet in 1953.

The revision committee will use as its guide Stalin's 25,000-word statement, "Economic problems of Socialism in the U. S. S. R.," which was published on the eve of the congress opening Oct. 5.

One of Stalin's main points was that conflicts in the capitalist camp make war between capitalist nations more likely than between socialist countries and Russia.

The broadcast said the congress also had adopted two resolutions:

1. Approving draft statutes of the party with amendments and additions by a commission of the congress, as submitted by the party's central committee.
2. Statutes confirmed by the congress henceforth will be statutes of the party.

The Congress also decided that the party's name — "the All-Union Communist Party of Bolsheviks" — was out of date.

It was changed to the "Communist Party of the Soviet Union." The Bolshevik designation had been used to differentiate from the Mensheviks, who faded from the scene after the Communist revolution.

Reject U. S. Protest Moscow, Oct. 14 (AP) — Russia has brushed aside America's protest over Soviet treatment of U. S. ambassador George Kennan, labeling the U. S. note a worthless effort to justify a false hostile statement by the enemy.

The official Soviet news agency, TASS, announcing the Russian note, said it was delivered to the U. S. embassy yesterday. In tones that made it clear Russia considers the Kennan matter closed, the statement branded the U. S. note as a "gross contradiction of fact."

(A state department spokesman in Washington said last night the Russian reply had been received but that no one in authority had seen it yet.)

Reporters in Berlin quoted Kennan on Sept. 10 as saying an American diplomat's life in Moscow was much the same as being interned by the Nazis in Germany during World War II. At the time Kennan was en route to a meeting of U. S. diplomats in London.

Six-Day-Old Girl Kidnaped in N. Y. (Continued from Page One)

Sunday from a Bellevue Hospital ward. Officials also were on the watch at New York's airports, bus terminals and railroad stations in case the woman might try to take the baby out of the city.

Police said the infant, the child of Anna and Raphael Hernandez, was claimed by an unidentified woman who gave a hospital attendant the impression that she was a relative of the child's parents.

The attendant, Nellie Brown, was quoted as saying the woman asked for "the Hernandez child," produced clothing for the infant, and took her away without giving cause to question her action. Miss Brown said she gave the woman the baby's feeding formula.

It was not until yesterday that the disappearance became known. Mrs. Hernandez, being released from the hospital, asked for her baby and the child could not be found.

Miss Brown said the unidentified woman did not speak much English and appeared between 40 and 50 years old. The attendant said the five-pound, six-ounce baby was clad in a yellow sweater, bonnet and booties, and long white stockings and was wrapped in green and white blankets.

The kidnaping recalled a similar case here two and a half years ago when a nine-day-old Negro girl was taken from an incubator at Lincoln Hospital by a young Negro mother heartbroken by the death of her own twin babies.

The child was found after a widespread search 23 days later, appearing peacefully in the storeroom of a hotel here. An 18-year-old Chamberland at the hotel was committed to the Massachusetts State Hospital for the Criminal Insane after being charged with kidnaping in the case.

Judson Laire, the "Papa" Hansen of "I Remember Mama," takes time out to relax from his jaunts with the children in the neighborhood of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright at 411 Lydall street where he was a guest this week end. Antoni N. Sadlak, Republican, section chief at U. S. Representative-at-large, brought his name into a discussion of tariff schedules which he said allowed the importation of European clocks and watches at prices that cost New England 40,000 jobs and at most a billion dollars a year in income.

Sadlak, addressing a meeting in the clock making center of Bristol, said the tariff schedules were set at a meeting in Torrey, England, which had been arranged in 1950 by him. They were held secretly with United States labor and industry unrepresented, Sadlak said.

Other members of the committee, Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) and Sen. Willis Smith (D-N. C.), had a sharp exchange with Van Tassel when the UN employee said it was "deplorable" to hold the hearings on the UN general assembly was about to open.

The hearings, Van Tassel said, "will create tremendous resentment among the people of Asia, Africa and throughout the world."

Ferguson and Smith asked if Van Tassel thought these people whether U. S. efforts to leave whether its citizens were loyal and if Van Tassel thought the U. S. "should stand by idly if there is subversion on the part of

Lewis Charts Personal Tour To Help Adlai

was the first time Lewis has gone overseas in the Democratic party column, since he supported the late President Roosevelt in 1936.
 Later, he broke with Roosevelt and in 1940 supported GOP nominee Wendell Willkie. He opposed choices of both parties in 1944 and 1948.
 The decision of the 72-year-old miners' chief, in endorsing Stevenson, put virtually all organized labor in Stevenson's corner, since both the AFL and CIO previously had come out for the Democratic nominee.
 In his speech, Lewis laid stress not so much on qualities attributed to Stevenson, but on criticism of Stevenson's opponent, Republican nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower.
 Lewis pictured Eisenhower as a "professional soldier... educated and trained in the arts of warfare... at public expense... without background of economic understanding."
 "He will issue commands to regiment the population according to the will of his masters who made the war," Lewis said. "Thus I see the Republican candidate."
 "I care not whether a citizen works in the coal industry or the steel industry or the railroad industry or the manufacturing industry or lives on a farm or works in an office or a counting room. I think the interests of all that great mass of Americans are identically placed where all may see in his campaign and they may decide whether they will go on this side of the line and take the professional soldier, Eisenhower, or whether they will go on this side of the line and take the humanitarian, Stevenson."
 "For me, I choose Stevenson."
 The endorsement strongly indicated that the support of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) for Eisenhower, plus the Republican party platform's praise for the Taft-Hartley act, authored by Taft and bitterly criticized by organized labor, were important reasons for opposing the Republican party.

Michigan State Vaults into Top Spot in Poll

Badgers Drop To 12th Spot After Defeat

New York, Oct. 14.—The combination of Michigan State's one-sided victory over Texas A & M and Ohio State's upset triumph over Wisconsin set the pace for the top of the Associated Press football poll.

The four last-period touchdowns which turned State's game into a rout apparently were enough to convince the nation's sports writers and broadcastmen that the Spartans, who were first in the previous poll and led the weekly ballot, should be ranked No. 1.

Thirty-nine of the 123 writers who participated in the poll picked Michigan State as the new No. 1. The Spartans moved up from second place to top spot, 122 points of a possible 123.

Three Manchester Linemen with Connecticut Gridders

Three linemen with the University of Connecticut football team this fall had from Manchester. Shown above they are, left to right, Al Williams, Al Rogers and Doug Wise. The W-Bos, Williams and Wise played freshman ball last fall. Both are guards. Rogers is playing his third season of varsity ball after one year with the varsity. Williams and Wise were going on to UCONN.

besides snapping the "Pump" 24 game victory streak, shot Penn 24 to 14th place. The Quakers had made a similar comeback in 1951, when they defeated the Red and White 27-0. The leaders points based on test for first, nine for second, and one for each of the other 100 teams.

Michigan State's 39-10 upset of Texas A & M was the biggest victory in the poll's history. The Spartans had been ranked No. 2 in the previous poll, but their loss to Wisconsin last week had dropped them to No. 3.
