

Ike Is Resolute On Korea Trip

Aboard Eisenhower Special in Pennsylvania, Oct. 27—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, opening his final drive of the election campaign, said today he will not be turned aside by any criticism from the view that South Korean troops should be in Korea against the Communists.

He told a Philadelphia crowd jammed into the big concourse of the Pennsylvania Railroad's 30th street station that he holds this view "entirely aside from any political considerations."

Eisenhower repeated his determination to go to Korea himself if he is elected President.

This statement, first made last Friday in Detroit, brought a barrage of critical comment from the Democrats and Eisenhower apparently was referring to this reaction when he said he would not be deflected by criticism.

Governor Adlai Stevenson, his Democratic opponent for the presidency, has withdrawn his pledge, declaring that the solution to the Korean war lies in Moscow and not in Korea.

In Lancaster, as he did in Philadelphia, Eisenhower reacted to the question of his subversion in government.

Gen. Eisenhower, who owns a farm near Gettysburg, told his Lancaster audience that his ancestors came from Germany and settled in the Lebanon-Lancaster area.

The general stood on the State House steps in Harrisburg and accused the Truman administration of being "compliant" about Communism in government.

Eisenhower repeated his taunt that the Democrats have stopped trying to defend their record in office. He accused them of bungling and lack of firmness of purpose.

Waite and extravagance in government, he said, has brought the highest taxes in history. "It still leaves them with between 12 and 15 per cent of the bills of government that they carry."

Then, switching to the issue of subversion, "they (the Democrats) have been complacent about disloyal people in government offices. When those people were pointed out, they cried 'red herring' and 'witch hunt'."

At Harrisburg, gave Eisenhower a reception that was exceeded only by crowds in the largest cities around the country.

After a full day today in Pennsylvania, the general planned to return to New York for an intensive sweep through that city and its populous suburbs tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday.

Another appearance in Chicago has been set for Friday and there was a possibility he might go from there to California. His departure is scheduled to be in Boston next Monday.

Ex-GI Trial For Aiding Japs Opens

New York, Oct. 27—(AP)—A former Army staff sergeant in the Pacific went on trial for his life today, accused of treason in a weird kowtow to the wartime Japanese, when federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan directed both parties to begin picking a jury to try John David Brooo.

Judge Noonan denied a series of defense motions to dismiss the charges against the honorably discharged veteran. The defense argued lack of evidence and double jeopardy.

The court reserved decision on a defense request for two Japanese interpreters to translate testimony of an anticipated 20 Japanese witnesses. Witnesses also expected from Australia, Italy, Great Britain and Korea.

Provo, now 36, was indicted almost three years ago on 12 charges of treason, including one allegation that he caused the Japanese to execute a U. S. Army captain in a war prisoner camp. U. S. Attorney Miles J. Lane

Bellwether County Poll Indicates Win for Ike

New York, Oct. 27—(AP)—It is generally considered likely to give Eisenhower "a very slight edge," Editor says several factors favoring the Republican candidate in the Democratic primary held in Bellwether County, N. Y., today.

The Democratic plurality has been dropping in recent national elections. The vote may set a record this year. Wendell Wyatt, Republican, is leading in the primary script between President Truman and Eisenhower.

Some Democrats are concerned that some Democrats are not much of anything.

Vanderburgh County, Ind., which Evansville is located, has been visited by both Eisenhower and Truman.

On the basis of a postcard poll, the Evansville Press estimates the county will vote 52 per cent for Eisenhower, 48 per cent for Truman.

"I believe the 'need for a change' sales talk has taken hold, but a lot of independent voters are leaving the Hoover, many other Independents haven't made up their minds."

Next door in Onk, Belmont County, Ohio, coal and steel are the big industries.

A. V. Dix, publisher of the Martins Ferry Times-Leader, said the daily newspaper in the county lowered an earlier estimate of 60 per cent Eisenhower to 52 per cent in mid-October because:

"Many known Democrats think it is time for a change."

A hit farther east, in Marion County, W. Va., this is the word from C. E. Smith, veteran editor of the Fairmont Times, a staunch Democrat and Stevenson supporter.

"Marion County has proven an excellent bellwether county."

Plane with 15 Feared Lost in Typhoon Hunt

Manila, Oct. 27—(AP)—A U. S. B-29 Superfortress plane, last heard from Sunday as it flew straight toward a howling typhoon in mining and feared lost in the Pacific between here and Guam, has been found.

Planes and ships are searching an area about 200 miles east of Samar in the central Philippines. The storm hit Samar last night.

The B-29 left Andersen Air Force Base on Guam to track the typhoon bearing down on the Philippines. It was scheduled to give weather data on the storm, then land at Clark Air Force Base near Manila.

Early Sunday the plane reported "radio" equipment was out of order but that it was going into the typhoon. The second B-29 in six days—glowed a trail of destruction across the central Philippines today.

Fields of rice were south of the typhoon which last week took nearly 400 lives.

As the storm lashed Samar, northern Leyte and Masbate islands this morning and headed for the Sibuyan sea, its center was about 100 miles east of Manila.

Ruling Due On Balk at Picket Line

Washington, Oct. 27—(AP)—The Soviet Supreme Court today agreed to say whether an employer may fire a worker for refusing to cross a customer's picket line at a customer's plant while on duty.

The court also agreed to rule on whether the 1947 portal-to-portal act puts a two-hour time limit on the filing of suits by the United States charging child labor violation.

And the Tribunal upheld by a 4-4 vote a decision that Bell Aircraft Corporation is entitled to reimbursement of $2,266,819 for cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts with the United States for large number of fighters planes.

The picket line case was appealed to the Supreme Court by the Justice department, on behalf of the National Labor Relations board.

The NLRB had asked the U. S. Circuit Court in New York to enforce a board ruling that Charles Waugh be reinstated with back pay as a truck driver by the Rockaway News Supply Co., Inc. The firm distributes newspapers and magazines on Long Island.

Waugh was a member of the Independent Deliverers' Union of New York and vicinity at the time he was fired in March 1950. He refused to cross a picket line at the office of the Nassau Daily News-Star, in Rockaway, N. Y., at the time members of the Nassau County Typographical union were picketing the office.

The labor case stemmed from a decision by the U. S. Circuit Court in New York that the act does not put a time limit on the filing of suits by the United States charging child labor violation.

Stevenson then will leave for New York where he will speak at Hotel Theresa, in Harlem.

East week in Cleveland, Stevenson asserted that Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower had taken over a smear campaign—and must bear the responsibility when talk from Chicago (8:30 p. m.) said over a nationally televised broadcast.

Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire said in a statement in New York that the general's political enemies planned to "stop at nothing this week" to win the election.

"We are only a week away from the election and still don't know precisely what the Republicans propose to do about the election."

Stevenson Predicts Smear by McCarthy

En Route with Stevenson in New England, Oct. 27—(AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson declared today the nation will hear "the most magnificent of all smears of all times" tonight when Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R., Wis.), makes a national broadcast on Communism.

Opening a blistering attack on the Republicans, the Democratic presidential candidate told a police estimated crowd of some 2,000 at Quincy, Mass.

"Tonight you will hear the most magnificent of all smears of all times when the junior Senator from Wisconsin tries to save the face of the Republicans."

The crowd erupted with a chorus of "hooray" for Stevenson, McCarthy, and Stevenson shouted: "I'm not worried, are you?"

The crowd yelled "No!"

Stevenson's accusation that the Republicans are planning a last-minute smear campaign matched the statement from McCarthy that the Democrats had night that the Democrats—with President Truman in the lead—will lose a barrage of "below-the-belt" charges.

Lewis Tells Coal Miners To Resume Work at Once

Washington, Oct. 27—(AP)—John L. Lewis told coal miners to get back to work at once.

The chief of the United Mine Workers' national executive board said the miners may have a $1.00 a day pay increase which the industry has agreed to. The Wage Stabilization board (WSB) item means the rise to $1.50, holding that a higher boost would violate the government's anti-inflation program.

Direct Appeal

President Truman had appealed directly to Lewis to get the miners back to work.

Truman invited Lewis to the White House last night and made the request. Lewis promised cooperation, immediately after this conference, the President left on his final political campaign tour.

The industry and the union have jointly approved the decision of the wage board. Their appeal is to Roger Putnam, Economic Stabilization director, who has authority to override board decisions.

Union headquarters made public the following telegram from Lewis to the industry:

"The joint industry request to the executive branch of the government for approval of the industry agreement is pending. It will require a reasonable time for review of attendant facts and reaching of the decision."

"It is my opinion that our industry should be operating during that period and then the best interests of the mine workers and the public will be served."

"I am therefore requesting an immediate resumption of operation at all mines in all districts and am urging each member of our union to return to work at once."

Ask for Full Cooperation

"Please notify all local unions and all members of the message and utilize the services of all officers and field representatives in notifying their fullest cooperation. Please acknowledge receipt of this telegram and state what steps are being taken in your district."

Even before the Lewis telegram was made public here, its receipt could provide the Russian answer to the question of the U. S. whether he would speak today in answer to the long indictment in Russia in the Korean war, voiced last Friday by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

A staff officer told AP correspondents that the U. S. press reports that the Communists had seized one end of the Hook, killing an estimated 300 Red.

"They dug them out of the bunkers and trenches and ran them back with grenades and rifles," the officer said.

After savage hand-to-hand fighting, the Marines secured the fish hook-shaped mid-long ridge northeast of Panmunjom at 5 p. m. Farnell said. Allied tanks and planes pounded the Reds during the fierce battle.

The Reds poured 17,000 rounds of mortar and artillery fire on one Marine regiment from dusk Sunday to dusk Monday. That was the heaviest shelling ever received in any war by a single Marine regiment," the officer said.

Farnell said the Reds and North Koreans "alike were actually pouring over the week end with Mrs. Jiwahafal Nehru, but a delegation spokesman said a minor threat against the hook."

In a message to the U. S. Gen. E. Pollock, First Marine Division commander, said:

"You have all the air support and ammunition you need in back of you."

Seoul, Korea, Oct. 27—(AP)—Punishing Red artillery fire tonight drove U. S. Marines off the crest of "The Hook," a bitter close-quarter fighting. A Marine officer at the front of the crest and forward slopes at Panmunjom.

There was no indication whether the Chinese Communist would occupy the high ground.

The Reds earlier had attacked with 2,000 men along a three-mile front.

The Marine officer said: "The Communists made only a small penetration in our line. It was contained and never got out of hand."

Main target was the Hook and Marine outpost along a three-mile line to the north. The Hook is about 10-12 miles east of Panmunjom, site of the recent armistice.

UN Expecting Red Reply to Acheson Blast

United Nations, N. Y., Oct. 27—(AP)—The United Nations Assembly rounds out its second week today on a note of nervous expectancy, hoping but doubtful that Russia will give the word to break the 10-12 mile east of Panmunjom, site of the recent armistice.

A pronouncement by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky before the scheduled assembly committee this afternoon could provide the Russian answer to the question of the U. S. whether he would speak today in answer to the long indictment in Russia in the Korean war, voiced last Friday by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Waiting for Vishinsky, the delegates kept their names in the debate list.

In the political committee, delegates will hear whether the Soviet Union—accused by Acheson of actual control of North Korea—has since its invasion of South Korea—is ready to agree that war prisoners should be returned to the Communist lines against their will.

Acheson urged in his statement "bolstering a 21-nation appeal for agreement on an armistice that the UN Allies would always oppose forcible repatriation."

Acheson said if the assembly votes the armistice appeal, the UN must consider how to strengthen for further resistance.

General Eisenhower has been taking. They are, of course, feeling for General Eisenhower. It is his direct, pronounced opinion of principle, and in his direct, pledge, still the middle of the road, no deviation on domestic affairs, no reactionary, and still the internationalist advocate of collective security in foreign affairs.

What, meanwhile, has been happening to these elements, who may have thought for a few exhilarated days, that they had taken over the General? In their role in the campaign more prominent, or less prominent, than it was before General Eisenhower went through his procedure with them? Are they more important, or less important? Are they closer to determining party policy, or farther from it? The answer is that the place they are dominating the campaign is in Democratic territory which, of course, loves to promote them as it can use them as targets. It is only the Democrats who place them in the forefront of the Republican campaign. Members are requested to wear costumes and makeups. A small fine will be imposed on those who do not. These will be the most original and funniest costumes. Following the unmasking a brief business meeting will be conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reichenbach are in charge of the program which will consist of games and refreshments. It will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walters and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Turk.

Issues 2nd Call For Yule Gifts To Servicemen

Mrs. Lillian Wait, in charge of the Red Cross project, "Christmas on the High Seas," has made a second appeal to organizations and individuals in Manchester to help the local chapter supply gifts which will be distributed to servicemen on ships' on Dec. 25. "We have only until November 15 to pack and ship the 50 small gift boxes which Manchester has been asked to provide as our share of the gift. It is our hope that many clubs, church and service groups have been happy to make up these packages in the past. Individuals have packed their own boxes or sent in the $2.50 which is the average cost of each gift package, knowing that some lonely servicemen away from home and family at Christmas time will welcome this small remembrance. "But our deadline is very near," she went on. "We would appreciate it if those groups or persons who wish to participate in this

We Two Party Means Costumes

The October meeting of the "We Two Party" Club of Concordia Lutheran Church will take the form of a Halloween party tomorrow at 8 p. m. at Center Springs Lodge. Members are requested to wear costumes and makeups. A small fine will be imposed on those who do not. These will be the most original and funniest costumes. Following the unmasking a brief business meeting will be conducted.

The Issues: Captivity

General Eisenhower has doubted the capacity of the Republican Party to resist its own worst elements in the event of party defeat in 1952. He is, on the other hand, worried about what these elements would be able to do to his own administration if he were elected.

Why not?

The answer is that there are two ways to diminish the role of these elements in American political life. One is to defeat the individuals involved. The other, if they cannot be defeated, is to blanket them and their ideas under a strong and wholesome kind of policy and accomplishment which overshadows them and relegates them to a back seat.

The problem is, to express it frankly, how to handle Senator Joseph McCarthy—and those like him. The happiest way to handle it would be for the voters of Wisconsin to go for Eisenhower and defeat McCarthy for those of Indiana to go for Eisenhower and defeat Jenner for those of Missouri to go for Eisenhower and defeat Kem. And the Democrats who would come into the Senate as a result would be of more help and support to an Eisenhower administration than McCarthy, Jenner and Kem could ever be.

Suppose, however, this much-to-be desired outcome of the election does not materialize, and then gentlemen some back to the Guard, the sneer guard of the Republican party, will not have more power than it has had in the past few years, when, to tell the truth, it has, in league with Southern Democrats, actually controlled Congress?

For a key to the answer perhaps we ought to look frankly at what General Eisenhower has done in the campaign. He has had his meetings with these individuals, he has related them in the campaign, he has given them various degrees of personal support, bringing as he did so and he has finally, tossed some "retrospective" phrases their way, phrases which have been inferential comfort to their point of view, and which have, truly enough, amazed and alarmed some of General Eisenhower's own original independent supporters.

But there is a difference between oratorical inferences and touches—the things a candidate throws out for those who like them to grab while he himself does not assume final responsibility for them—and the business of the straightforward campaign pledge, or the straightforward pledge of personal belief on the part of the candidate.

Let us admit that we do not like to have candidates hitting even casually, notes in which they themselves do not really believe. But let us also admit that we are all used to it, in political campaigns, and that we recognize the difference between such touches and the frontal direct statements in this latter category of statement. General Eisenhower has quite obviously, not yielded an inch to those party elements which he has admitted appeared in his some of his lesser campaign speeches.

And all we would have to do to have the courage to not stand against them in Congress just a little time ago, now no longer have the courage to stand by their own side. One of those who has turned, under the joint barrage

Campaign Split

We know Senator McCarthy is not the president. But both sides in the presidential campaign have suddenly turned on his immigration act in order to curry favor with various social and religious groups. There must be rather extraordinary considerations involved when members of Congress begin coming against a measure they voted for only a few weeks ago—and in which the favored members of Congress passed it over a Truman veto.

So it is in politics, we would agree, that Senator McCarthy and his own narrow-minded racial theories own this sudden torrent of criticism heading their way. People who supported McCarthy and his theories, and who did not have the courage to vote against them in Congress just a little time ago, now no longer have the courage to stand by their own side. Why doesn't Senator Bill Benton's Opponent repudiate the record of The Conn. Manufacturers Assoc.?

HE SERVED AS ITS' VICE-PRESIDENT AND PRESIDENT 1947-50

Last Monday Senator Benton said on television: "My opponent has spent his life as a businessman. He has been a success . . . When I tell you that I have discovered that my opponent doesn't have any record in public life, I must mention the one significant exception. This is his prominent record as an official of the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association as Vice-President in 1947-1948, then as President in 1949-1950". (He resigned from its Board of Directors and the Board of Directors of the National Manufacturers' Association when he was nominated for the Senate) . . . "I am not suggesting that there is anything wrong for a business man to be an officer or director of these groups which represent the special interests of business. . . . But to the best of my knowledge my opponent has never questioned or repudiated any of the record of the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association — while he was President and Vice President — if he wants to repudiate it, let him do so. . . . But if he repudiates it, we shall then have the strange picture of a man who denies responsibility for the actions of a powerful business group during his tenure as Vice President and President." Senator Benton in his speech to the Hartford Advertising Club on Thursday offered to feature his opponent's repudiation on his own television program. No repudiation has been forthcoming. Senator Benton's opponent may still try to claim that he doesn't know what was going on when he was serving as Vice President and President of the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association. But he is a businessman and in the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association he was in his chosen field of business. This is quite different from General Eisenhower leaving the Army and turning to politics.

Most certainly, it doesn't seem credible that Senator Benton's opponent could have failed to know that the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association, during his tenure as Vice President and President, opposed a minimum wage; urged the open shop; fought price controls; denounced social security; battled better schools; denounced rent ceilings and low-cost public housing; and called a school lunch program "socialistic." The usual Republican answer to any embarrassing question during this campaign has already been made to Senator Benton's T. V. broadcast of last Monday: "smear, innuendo, insinuation, and the rankest kind of sophistry." These are strong words, and we won't try to answer them with stronger ones. We would, however, like to do one simple thing. We would like to present the record to Connecticut voters — who have always shown themselves capable of understanding facts and making up their own minds.

NOW LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD

Bill Benton has made a record of public service to ALL the people. For sixteen years since he sold out and retired from his advertising business at age 36, he has largely devoted himself to public service; for eight years as a part-time officer of a great university; as founding vice-chairman of the great liberal businessman's committee, the Committee for Economic Development; in three jobs in Washington including over two years as Assistant Secretary of State; in serving as a delegate representing the United States at eight international conferences; and finally in three years as United States Senator. Here is a side-by-side comparison of where Senator Bill Benton stands on issues vital to Connecticut voters and where the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association, of which Senator Benton's opponent has been President and Vice President, has openly and avowedly stood.

TAXES
BILL BENTON
 FOR spread of tax cuts to benefit everyone in community. Led fight to bring special interest tax loopholes. Has sponsored hearings and taken leadership on tax revision to benefit small, independent business.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency or vice-presidency of William A. Purcell. Repeatedly demanded tax cuts for primary benefit of big incomes and corporations.

FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES
BILL BENTON
 Has vigorously fought FOR non-discrimination because of race or religion. Has led the fight against the Hillman, which prevents passage of civil rights legislation.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under vice-presidency of William A. Purcell. In July, 1947, said FEPC was "unwise legislation" on the preposterous ground that it aids "Communism or the subversive."

PUBLIC HEALTH
BILL BENTON
 Believes that the country must have adequate hospital service; is consistently FOR adequate support for the Public Health Service; supports federal aid for education of greatly needed dentists and doctors. Firmly FOR the right of every American to choose his own doctor. Has always opposed socialized medicine.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency of William A. Purcell. In February, 1949, denounced "hospital construction and maintenance, medical training and research, and public health programs," if federally aided, as aids to Communism. While Purcell was a Director: CMA's legislative representative opposed a bill to let injured workmen pick their own doctors, saying, "We are opposed to employees being given a free choice of medical care."

SOCIAL SECURITY
BILL BENTON
 In every case has been FOR a strong system of pensions for men and women old enough to retire. Favors letting them also earn all they can without limitation on their productivity. Supported broadening of social security coverage. Believes that workers should be paid solely on the basis of their merits, and not on a basis of age.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency of William A. Purcell. In February, 1949, published an editorial opposing "State old age pensions, aid to the blind, aid to dependent children, new public assistance programs." Those, according to the CMA, also aid Communism! While Purcell was a Director: Opposed legislation to prevent wage discrimination against workers over 40 years of age.

HOUSING
BILL BENTON
 One of the strongest enemies of the real estate lobby. Has been FOR aggressive and adequate public housing legislation. Is FOR rent control in periods of emergency. Has consistently fought inflation and supported controls to combat it.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency or vice-presidency of William A. Purcell. In January, 1949, published an editorial opposing public housing. Opposed any state rent control legislation in 1947.

SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM
BILL BENTON
 Believes that the welfare of the country's children is everybody's responsibility; is wholeheartedly FOR school lunch program. Supported aid to repair nation's old school buildings and construct sorely needed new schools.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency of William A. Purcell. In January, 1949, attacked "better school lunches" as an example of "sharing the wealth," and in February of that year asked all readers to write Congress to oppose the Federal school lunch program.

VETERANS
BILL BENTON
 Believes that veterans are entitled to a real break from the country they served. Supported new GI bill for Korean veterans.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency of William A. Purcell. In December, 1949, published editorial blasting a rebate to veterans on their GI insurance; refers to rebatis as "Robin Hood gifts . . . taken away from the ones who make better living possible."

LABOR
BILL BENTON
 Demands fair labor law. Fought Taft-Hartley. Urged the President to veto Taft-Hartley, is FOR its repeal. Supports equitable wage increases commensurate with industry's earnings. Supports extension of workmen's compensation. Considers it outrageous to make injured workmen go through expensive law suits. Believes in a fair minimum wage. Helped pass the 75 cent minimum for workers in interstate commerce. Supports adequate unemployment insurance based on increased costs of living.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under vice-presidency of Wm. A. Purcell. Labor's worst enemy. In an editorial demanding passing of Taft-Hartley, said Bill Green was one of those who "have already fastened upon some 14 million working men of this country . . . shackles of slavery." In November and December, 1947, urged that "steel say 'no' to a demand for increased wages" in other parts of the country for fear that increases elsewhere might lead to increases for Conn. workmen. Denounced criticisms of "high profits of" corporations, and blasted proposals that labor share those profits. At 1947 legislative session opposed expansion of workmen's compensation to cover more employees. In 1947 opposed even a 50 cent minimum wage in Connecticut. Denounced an increase in unemployment compensation of $2.00 a week as an increase in "the high cost of loafing."

WOMEN'S RIGHTS
BILL BENTON
 Against any discrimination between the sexes.

CONNECTICUT MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
 Under presidency or vice-presidency of William A. Purcell. In 1947 opposed bill in Conn. legislature for equal pay for equal work for women. In 1949 opposed all bills to remove wage discrimination against women; CMA's legislative representative said, "I am opposed to any legislation in connection with this abhorrent."

AND ADD THIS TO THE RECORD

That's the record as far as Senator Bill Benton vs. the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association goes.

THE REST OF THE RECORD IS THIS

Senator Bill Benton, author of the Benton amendment to the Marshall Plan, aimed at keeping American aid out of the hands of Communist labor unions, and creator of "Voice of America," is one of the country's most experienced and powerful fighters against Communism . . . His opponent's experience in this vital field: none.

Senator Bill Benton, who joined Senator Douglas of Illinois in a vigorous effort to cut 7 billion dollars from federal expenses, who was one of only two Senators consistently to support Hoover Commission proposals since 1953, has been a leader in cutting federal expenditures . . . His opponent's experience in this field: none.

Senator Bill Benton has fought steadily FOR small business in proposed tax reforms, defense contract allotments, and his own Senate "Small Business Clinics." He is an experienced, successful business man who has fought his way up from the very bottom. He is a member of the Senate Small Business Committee, of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report, and was organizing vice-chairman of the Committee for Economic Development . . . His opponent's experience: runs a business and does it well; former President, Connecticut Manufacturers' Association; Director National Association of Manufacturers; U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Senator Bill Benton is one of the leading and most vigorous opponents of the discriminatory investigation law which passed this year with overwhelming Republican support . . . His opponent's experience in this field: none.

Fred Blish Gets Ace In Remarkable Round

With his golf game hotter than a seven alarm fire, Fred Blish turned in one of the most remarkable rounds ever played at the Manchester Country Club yesterday afternoon.

The lanky Manchester businessman scored a hole-in-one on the 12th hole, using a No. 6 iron, to cap a perfect performance.

From the eighth to the 12th hole, Blish needed but 13 strokes. Five under par, he set a stinging pace for his foursome which included Jay Rand, Ray Warren and Clarence Thornton. Fred's card showed but two strokes on the 8th, four on the 9th, three on each the 10th and 11th and one on the 12th.

Fred's score was 41-36-77, one of the best rounds he ever put together. He is a 10 handicap player.

Incidentally, Fred also scored an ace on the 8th hole in 1943.
