New Price Index Topic of Session

A conference to discuss the new Consumers' Price Index will be held at the Connecticut Labor Department conference room at 92 Farmington avenue, Hartford, at 10 a. m. tomorrow, it has been announced by Commissioner John J. Egan.

The conference is being held, the commissioner stated, due to widespread interest on the part of management, labor, and the public in the revised index and its effect on wage escalator clauses in labor-management contracts.

Wesley D. Macdonald, New England regional director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, who has had many years' experience in the field of price indexes and who directed much of the work in preparing the new index, will address the conference. He will discuss the basic concept and techniques underlying the revised index.

The explanation of wage escalator clauses to the revision and the differences between the new index and the "old" and "adjusted" series. The new index is based on the years 1947 through 1949, as contrasted with the old series which was based on the period 1935 through 1939. The shift in the base will result in entirely new figures for the index and will pose certain problems for users of the index in linking the two series together.

The meeting is open to the public. The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church meets at 9 p. m. at the parsonage. The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church meets at 10:30 a. m.

Banking Behind Last Week's Total Smith was walking along U. S. highway No. 6A here, supposed to be hitchhiking, when he was hit by a car driven by William H. Burke, 24, of Marlborough. Burke told police he was momentarily blind.

John Andreola, inspector in charge of the local temporary branch of the Department of Motor Vehicles, said today that registration totals thus far are running behind last year's figures. He indicated that this is probably due to the fact that the office will be open for only eight days as compared with nine previously.

Last week's total was broken down into days, Thursday, 467; Friday, 610; and Saturday (only until noon) 406. The office, open daily except Saturday, is located in Town Hall, at the GARF hall. Last year's total was 5,070.

All Tolland and Vernon news items are now handled through the Manchester Evening Herald. Rockville news located at One Market street, Telephone Rockville 5-1192.

Eight Girls Form Club, Put Hearts into Drive

Eight little Brantford street girls have formed a club of their own to help the Heart Fund this week. They brought $3 in contributions from residents to the hospital yesterday for the local drive.

Chairman William P. Slover said every penny will help to meet the goal quota of $6,000. Mail donations received so far amount to about $1,100. Slover said, and the drive is falling far short of its mark. Contributions from school children and the plastic hearts distributed about town still must be picked up and counted. The drive ends Saturday.

Macdonald, New England regional director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, who has had many years' experience in the field of price indexes and who directed much of the work in preparing the new index, will address the conference. Police Hold Man In Berlin Death

Berlin, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Parker Walker, 20, was fatally wounded by a charge from a 12-gauge shotgun last night and police are holding his father-in-law, John Banks, 67, for questioning.

Walker died at 3:15 this morning at the New Britain General Hospital from a gaping wound in his abdomen.

Chief Constable George Kanupka, Sr., said the shooting occurred at the home of Walker's estranged wife, Bank's step-daughter, during a violent family quarrel.

The Christian lane dwelling is just across the New Britain town line and Sgt. Donald Rider of the New Britain police was the first officer to arrive after the shooting. Kanupka quoted Rider as saying he found Walker lying at the top of a flight of stairs leading to the second floor apartment in the two family dwelling.

Sitting in a chair at the foot of the stairs, holding a shotgun was Banks, said Rider.

Kanupka quoted Banks as saying Walker had been warned to stay away from the place. When he came there tonight, police are holding his father-in-law, John Banks, 67, for questioning.

"I don't mean to be bothered by you any more."

When Walker replied with a string of obscenities, Banks according to police said "that made me very, very mad" and he got his shotgun and fired one shot up the stairs at the man.

Martin Forsees Problems In Home Garbage Grinders

Favorable reaction to the idea of mass installation here of home garbage grinders came yesterday from General Manager Richard Martin, but the general manager said that the town would have to face a problem connected with it.

In a recent report to the town of improvements at the town-owned waste disposal plant on Oldcott street, Metcalf and Eddy, Boston consulting engineers, advised considering disposing of garbage with sewage.

Martin said yesterday he has long favored home-garbage grinders as the most efficient and economical way of garbage disposal. Metcalf and Eddy included the garbage grinder study in their investigation at Martin's request.

The major problem Martin would be in providing garbage disposal for persons now served by the Eight Utilities District's sewage disposal plant.

Possible solutions mentioned three possible solutions to the problem. (1) The town could abandon garbage collection entirely. Martin pointed out that some communities do not have garbage collection systems.

(2) Dispose of garbage in the South End of the town by means of the home grinders, but continue the collection system in the area served by the district's plants.

(3) Make an agreement between the town and the district whereby some of the homes in the district would be connected to the town's plant. The effect of the home grinders on the district's plant would then be reduced. A contract for improvements to the plant was awarded recently.

Another problem which would arise in connection with garbage grinder installation, according to Metcalf and Eddy, is disposal of material which is now included in garbage but could not be handled by the grinders.

Martin said a more frequent trash collection would be the answer to the problem. Leon Thorp, a director of the Eight Utilities District, said another difficulty today. He said some of the sewer lines in the district have too little grade to handle more solids in the sewage.

He felt reconstruction of the sewers would be costly. If the installations were made, residents would probably pay for the grinders. The town would contract with Mass. Purchasing and Installation thereby getting the lowest price.

Time to Consider At any rate officials and residents have more than three years to consider the merits of the system because a new garbage collection contract goes into effect March 1 and expires in mid-1956. Metcalf and Eddy estimate that $50,000 of the $1,000,000 estimated cost of improvements to the town's plant would be for the additional load which would be imposed by garbage grinders.

They also feel about $2,600 would be the part of the plant's yearly operational costs which would be caused by disposing of garbage through sewage facilities. No estimate has been given for the cost of purchase, installation and maintenance of garbage grinders.

Under the new contract the town will pay $66,000 a year for contains provision, however, for increases in the amount with increases in the number of homes.

Chief of 'Voice' Is Suspended

The subcommittee, meanwhile, called another hearing closed to the public and to newsmen, in an apparent attempt to determine whether any employees of the "Voice" have Communist ties.

McCarthy says Little to say about this. He told reporters "conflicting" testimony had been received and would have to be checked further before public hearings could be called.

Briggs wrote to McCarthy to suggest that a thorough investigation be made of the "Voice" ship-borne radio transmitter before Congress consented to invest further funds in it.

Briggs said the "Voice" now has one ship called Vagabond A which has electronic equipment for hearing broadcasts into Iron Curtain countries and installing similar equipment on another ship called Vagabond B.

In the budget requests for the fiscal year starting July 1, Briggs said, the State department is asking for $14,000 to equip a third ship to be called Vagabond C.

Briggs also said he understood the full power of the transmitting device with antenna such as the "Voice" has installed and installed on Vagabond A, as it actually functions now, utilizes antennas on the island of Rhodes.

While the advantage of having a mobile transmitter like in making it more difficult to jam signals. Briggs said "these advantages are conditioned upon overcoming" technical difficulties.

"It would appear," he wrote McCarthy, "that we do not actually have mobility in Vagabond A and it seems reasonable therefore that the Voice of America might perfect their original equipment by attempting other experiments."

Having the personal aspect of God on the first word, "Our of the Prayer, the minister pointed out that the very word means belonging to us or pertaining to us. The word indicates a relationship between two personalities—man and God.

The second aspect of God considered by Mr. Simpson was God as "Father." This relationship ascribes to God the quality of caring. He has a concern. If we grant there is a Personality in the universe, the second claim is that that Personality is friendly," stated Mr. Simpson.

Completing the first phrase of the Lord's Prayer, "Who art in heaven," tells the Christian that God is Father, He is the Maker of heaven and earth. Mr. Simpson said. He is above the world, apart from it with a power for goodness. Yet he created man with a freedom of choice—a freedom to choose His way.

Motorists Keep Kerr Staff Busy

Motor vehicle registration renewals were expected to go well over 1,000 today. Inspector Daniel Kerr reported 850 had been issued up to 1 o'clock and the sub-branch office in the Armory was a scene of steady traffic all morning as local motorists secured their 1953 insurances. Civil registration expires at midnight Saturday.

Clerks at the branch were constantly making out 1953 registration forms as the traffic flowed in a steady stream. The office was not crowded at intervals, but the activity was spread all during the morning so that there was no waiting for any long period to secure the registrations.

More than 3,000 registrations have now been issued, Inspector Kerr said. The office will be open daily the remainder of this week from 8:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. Final day will be Saturday when the office closes at noon.

Wilson Hits Idea of Big Budget Cut

Washington, Feb. 25—(P)—Congressional hopes to make a big slash in federal spending were reported today to have received a rude jolt from Secretary of Defense Louis A. Wilson and other administration officials.

Wilson started presentation of the Defense department's fiscal 1954 needs yesterday before a House subcommittee.

Members were reluctant to discuss the budget, but one of them would not permit use of his name quoted as "looking askance" at suggestions of big defense cuts.

"I definitely don't see how the defense budget can be cut much, if at all," Wilson said.

Wilson said that the defense budget is the backbone of the nation's security.
