Rockville, April 20.—(Special)—The City Court docket may have been on the floor side this morning but the courtroom itself was long on looks. Today marked the first session held in the recently redecorated chambers.

Judge Robert L. Pigeon, presiding in the absence of Prosecutor Harry H. Luce, assistant Prosecutor for Winfield Krier acted for the day.

Speakers and court attendants alike were lavish in their praise of the handsomely outfitted room which includes among its furnishings such items as walnut chairs, round tables and new desks.

On the docket this morning: Thomas B. Powell, 45, of Pittsford, found guilty of intoxication and fined $10.00.

Following the breakfast, Father Cooke remained to meet many of the men who had known him personally during his stay here.

Plans for the 40th anniversary will be made at the meeting of the board of trustees of the Rockville-Vernon High School.

John H. Veomans, clerk of the Superior Court, has issued notices that the Court of Common Pleas for Tolland County, will on May 14, at 10 a. m., discontinue all cases which have been pending for more than two years unless a written request for continuance is filed prior to that date.

Reverend Kulo will offer his first Solemn Mass May 17 at 11 a. m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church here. A Requiem Mass will be held from 3:30 to 7:30 p. m. that afternoon at St. Joseph's parish hall.

Guest speaker at the meeting of the Boys and Girls Club of Rockville-Vernon will be the Rev. Carl A. Kulo of St. Joseph's Cathedral in Hartford.

Issue Licenses Here Beginning Wednesday

Local motorists will be able to get their 1953 driver's licenses at the sub branch office of the Motor Vehicle Department in the Armory here beginning Wednesday.

Office hours will be from 8:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. daily except Saturday when the hours will be 8:30 until noon. There were 8,645 licenses issued here last year and that figure is expected to be surpassed.

Mothers to Hear Woman Physician

Dr. Hilda Crosby Standish will discuss the subject "Teaching the Facts of Life to Your Child" at the meeting of the Center Church Mothers Club Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Federation room of the church.

Dr. Standish, who is considered an outstanding authority on the subject and who is also the mother of five children, is a well known speaker. A graduate of Wellesley College and Cornell Medical School, after interning she went to China as a medical missionary for a year and a half, returning to this country because of illness in the family. She was later in charge of the Planned Parenthood Association for five years and at present is on the medical staff of the Hartford Hospital.

While using the cloak of the U. S. Constitution, it struggles unrelentingly to subvert the democratic principles of our time in a condition in this country which would enable it to check our institutions and preclude a Soviet America, under the hegemony of the Soviet Union.

After 1930 the party was faced with adverse legislation, the board said, and since then it has become increasingly dilatory and unproductive in its efforts to appear as a democratic political party while continuing its subservience to the Soviet Union.

French Hit Tom Martin Slaps at Gun, Foils Boston Holdup Man

Thomas Martin, 31, of 13 Cedar street, local post clerk and well known athlete, thwarted the hold-up attempt of a Boston gunman on Saturday night.

Martin and a fellow post clerk, Dominick J. Parr, of 45 Cottage street, and two women companions were the intended victims of the robbery who made an escape in an auto after being beaten off by Martin.

The two local men were visiting friends in Boston and had gone out to dine at the Kenmore Hotel when the holdup occurred. The episode occurred in front of the hotel.

According to Martin, Parr brought the car from a parking lot to the front of the hotel. While the parties were getting into the car, the tall gunman stepped from the sidewalk and stopped Martin on the rear door of the car.
