Mount Everest Finally Scaled

London, June 2—(P)—A coronation- eve announcement by Buckingham Palace disclosed last night that a British expedition has planted the Union Jack atop 29,002-foot Mt. Everest in man's first successful attempt to scale the world's highest mountain.

News that two climbers in a party headed by Col. John Hunt had successfully battled their way to the summit of the icy peak in the Himalayas on May 29 was relayed to Queen Elizabeth II last night, a palace spokesman said. He described the dramatic news as a coronation "gift."

Message relayed

A message from Hunt relayed to Buckingham Palace said, "All is well."

The final assault on the central peak on the Nepal-Tibet border—reportedly the third attempt by Hunt's 15-man expedition within the last few weeks—was made by a New Zealander beaver-keeper, Edward P. Hillary, 34, and a veteran guide of Nepal's Sherpa tribe, 39-year-old Tenzing Norgay, who was the first to reach the summit. That a New Zealander and a tribesman from Britain's long-time ally Nepal won the final victory was looked upon here as another symbol-like coronation—explorer Robert Scott.

Coronation Viewing Set For Today

New York, June 2—(P)—The Air Race between CBS and NBC to be first to telecast coronation films in this country became a nip and tuck affair today after NBC apparently had jumped off to a big head start.

NBC sprang a surprise by arranging for use of a British Canberra jet bomber that left with films two hours earlier than a Royal Air Force jet flying films for both networks and the Canadian Broadcasting Corp.

But the first jet, piloted by Capt. J. W. Hackley, radioed two hours later that it was turning back to London because of a defective fuel tank.

NBC still had films aboard the RAF Canberra headed for Goose Bay, where the coronation films will be on their nationwide networks.

For a while it appeared NBC had suffered a double blow when Stanley Reaves, flying his P-51, reported he had been shot down by Brunsvick after being grounded over the Atlantic by engine trouble.

Later, however, Reaves sent word he had been able to deice his ship and was on his way to Goose Bay where Maj. Joe Bossi is waiting in a similar plane to dash to Boston with CBS' films.

The RAF jet is expected at Goose Bay at approximately 2:35 p. m. (east) and the P-51 pilots hope to fly on to Boston in 24 hours, arriving at approximately 6:30 p. m.

Both NBC and CBS have facilities at Boston's Logan International Airport for putting the films directly on their networks.

Both TV networks opened hours ahead of schedule. CBS at 5 a. m. and NBC at 6:30 to carry radioed oral descriptions of the colorful coronation ceremonies plus still pictures as well as several clips made previously.

NBC also showed still pictures radioed from London and reported by a facsimile process. At 5:35 a. m. it showed a picture of

Prince Charles At Ceremonies

London, June 2—(P)—Britain crowned Elizabeth II today in a magnificent spectacle of ancient pomp and pageantry, before the wondering eyes of her little son Charles, heir to the throne. The thunder of guns and the pealing of bells proclaimed the formal accession of Elizabeth the Queen, the first coronation of a woman since Victoria, 129 years ago.

Crowds massed 25 to 35 deep acclaimed the queen going from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey, and coming home again. Only 7,000 persons were in the Abbey, but millions more could see the 2 1/2 hour ceremony by television for the first time.

"God Save the Queen"

Cries of "God Save the Queen" blended into a mighty roar from thousands of throats as the queen's purple and golden coach left the Abbey for the main coronation area, five miles and more through the center of the old city.

The 27-year-old queen, who had looked drawn near the close of the long Abbey ritual—and once near tears—flushed her smile. The Duke of Edinburgh was beside her.

There was a deluge of rain as the main procession got underway. The inside of the queen's mother's coach was lighted by lightning which glinted on her coronet and jewels.

Wind-blown rain and brilliant sunshine competed with each other for control of the day. But the millions who had gathered to cheer the queen stood firm in sites some had stated out 48 hours ahead of time.

The sun burst through lowering clouds when Elizabeth was presented to the congregation inside the Abbey as "your undoubted queen."

A cloudburst drenched the Jeweled capital at the moment of crowning. It rained steadily for 30 minutes, stopping only a few minutes before the coronation service ended. More than 1,500 persons were counted casualties in the rain, with 25 hurt seriously enough to go to hospital.

Prince Charles, who is four, was brought to the Abbey just before the Archbishop of Canterbury placed the jewel-encrusted crown on St. Edward upon the head of Britain's seventh queen, symbolically consecrating her to God

Profits Tax Is Attacked As 'Penalty'

Washington, June 2—(P)—Elisha Gray, a St. Joseph, Mich., business man, testified today that the best insurance against a recession and unemployment would be to let the excess profits tax die June 30 as scheduled. He attacked the levy as a "penalty."

Gray, president of the Wheelpool Corporation, was the leadoff business witness before the Ways and Means committee today to extend the levy for six months.

His company manufactures home laundry equipment. In a statement that was printed in an appendix to the committee's report, Gray said the tax was in effect a penalty against growth. It imposed "most extraordinary rates," he said, "on growing businesses."

Gray agreed with Representative Mills (D., Ark.) that the tax would tend to prevent business from expanding to pick up slack in unemployment caused by government jobs.

The levy amounts to 30 per cent of profits found to be excessive in comparison with a past period, an industry average, or some other base. It is piled on top of the regular corporation tax rate of 42 per cent, making the total levy 72 per cent on excess profits.

Several opponents on the committee said they were not convinced by the pro-extension arguments of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Humphrey pleaded yesterday for a six-month extension of the tax to bring in up to a billion dollars in additional revenue. He said this would reduce the federal deficit next year, fight inflation and help against unemployment.

Gray said the tax was a penalty against growth. He called it "a tax on growth."

GOP Leaders Called For Special Meeting

Washington, June 2—(P)—Republican congressional leaders agreed at President Eisenhower's insistence today to scrap a proposed ban against further U. S. funding for the United Nations if Red China should be admitted to the UN.

President Eisenhower today called a special meeting of the Republican leaders of Congress. White House news secretary James C. Hagerty said the meeting, called for 11:45 a. m. e.s.t., was to discuss "a legislative matter."

He declined to elaborate.

The congressional leadership met with the President on Monday morning but did not do so this week.

Those invited to today's session were Vice President Nixon, Senator Bridges (R-N.H.), Senator Knowlton (R-Cal.), Senator Martin (R-Mass.), House Speaker Martin (R-Mass.), Representative Halleck (R-

Big Scale Red Push Explodes On Two Fronts

Seoul, June 2—(P)—More than 4,000 North Korean and Chinese Reds slammed against 11 Allied main line positions and a handful of outposts today as big-scale Communist offensives exploded in eastern and central Korea.

American and South Korean paratroopers smashed 10 of the main line attacks, and one on the bloody eastern front, and the central front.

Fighting for trench line positions just in front of Lake the Gochi's Castle on the eastern front, still raged.

There, South Korean troops of the 12th division were counter-attacking for a second time against Reds who hammered their way to Allied lines.

An Eighth Army briefing of "Out of gratitude to the U. S. and generally make it easier for us to cooperate with the U. S. at any cost. We must accept anything the U. S. president wants, but to allow the Chairman to stay in our country is similar to accepting a death sentence."

Cooperation Offer Extended by Rhee

Seoul, June 2—(P)—President Syngman Rhee said today South Korea will "cooperate with the U. S. at any cost" but declared he will insist to the end on withdrawal of Chinese forces from North Korea after an armistice.

Rhee said he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, but refused to disclose its contents.

The 74-year-old leader's statement came on the heels of a report from Washington that Rhee had proposed to Eisenhower a mutual defense pact plus substantial U. S. financial and military aid to South Korea's price for accepting Allied truce terms.

Reshuffle of Economic Advisors Wins Support

Washington, June 2—(P)—President Eisenhower's plan to reorganize the Council of Economic Advisors won bipartisan Senate backing today and appeared likely to get congressional approval.

Congress permitted the three-man council to die April 1 by shutting off its funds. Although legal authority for the council still exists in the 1946 Employment act, the agency is supposed to supply the President with economic data and advice he needs for decisions to keep the nation's economy on an even keel.

Reorganization plan sent to Congress yesterday technically does no more than enlarge the administrative duties of the council chairman and make him the reporting officer to the President. Under present law all three members are to advise the chief executive.

However, Eisenhower accompanied the plan with a message in which he said he intended to appoint three members of the council and take action "to reorganize and make more effective" the agency.

Senator Mundt (R-S. D.), meanwhile, predicted clear sailing for two other reorganization plans which would:

1. Set up a new foreign operations administration to handle the entire foreign aid program, now administered in part by the Mutual Security Agency (MSA) and in part by the State department.
2. Shift most information and all propaganda operations out of the State department and into the hands of a new U. S. Information Agency.
3. Create a new U. S. Information State Office to handle the control of the content of a program setting forth official U. S. positions on international affairs.

Mundt is acting chairman of the Senate Government Operations committee, which will handle the reorganization plans. They become effective in 60 days unless either branch of Congress says "no."

Senator Kennedy (D-Mass.) spoke up against a fourth plan the President submitted yesterday, to transfer payment of airmail subsidies to the Civil Aeronautics board.

Kennedy said the plan "does not accomplish the effective separation of the hidden airline subsidies from 'mail pay' as called for by the Hoover Commission and other groups interested in governmental reform."

At present the President has only an economic advisor, Arthur F. Burns, former Columbia University professor. He is expected to become chairman of the council.

Dulles Warns Reds Threaten Southern Asia

Washington, June 2—(P)—Secretary of State Dulles returned from his survey trip to the Near East and South Asia declaring that the strategic area, like China, is still full victims to Communist domination.

The situation calls for urgent concern," Dulles said last night in a nationally broadcast and televised report on his 20,000-mile tour of 22 countries.

He said he found the United States "suspect" because of its alliances with France and Britain, countries suspected by some non-European of trying to restore their colonial interests. The Arab, he said, harbor a "deep resentment" against this country and are "more fearful of Zionism" (the movement in support of a Jewish state) than of Communism.

Saying that the U. S. had given most of its "past was attention" to the "very important, but not all-important" western European area, Dulles observed, "It is high time we turned our attention to the Near East and South Asia." "It came as a surprise to me when the 400 million Chinese people, whom we had counted as friends, fell under Communist domination," he continued.

"There could be equally dangerous developments in support of a Jewish state in the Near East and South Asia."

June 18 Slated As Death Date For A-Spy Pair

New York, June 2—(P)—U. S. Marshal William A. Carroll said today condemned atom spies Ethel Rosenberg and Julius Rosenberg will be executed at 11 p. m. (e.s.t.) June 18.

Carroll said the date and time were determined by the U. S. and the date was set by the traditional execution date at Sing Sing Prison yesterday.

Carroll issued his announcement as defense attorney Emanuel H. Bloch continued his last ditch legal efforts to save the couple from Sing Sing's electric chair.

Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman, setting an execution date last Friday for the fourth time, ordered execution to be carried out the week of June 15.

It was left to the marshal and the warden to set the exact date. June 18 is a Thursday—the traditional execution day at Sing Sing.

The U. S. Court of Appeals is considering a defense motion filed yesterday for a stay of execution and for a court order directing Kaufman to change the death sentence to a 20 year prison term. Bloch has announced that he plans still further legal moves, including a motion for a new trial

Ad Agency Helps In Ike's Telecast

Washington, June 2—(P)—The New York advertising firm that pulled Jack Benny, Groucho Marx and "Your Hit Parade" on the air will have a hand in President Eisenhower's televised report to the people tomorrow night.

The White House says, however, that the ad agency, Batten, Barton, Durand and Osborne, will provide only technical assistance—that is, will lend a hand with the program's content.

BBD&O as the agency is known in advertising circles, is headed by

Compromise May Be Near On Reciprocal Trade Issue

Washington, June 2—(P)—A clamp strict import quotas on oil, iron ore and other commodities, which probably would give President Eisenhower his requested extension of the Reciprocal Trade act was reported being shaped up today.

The President's request has been blocked so far by Republicans on the House Ways and Means committee, many of whom favor higher tariffs to increase protection for American industry against injury from foreign imports.

Announcement of the compromise apparently awaited only a majority of Republicans in the House.

Joseph Martin (R-Mass.), who has been blocked so far by Republicans on the House Ways and Means committee, was reported to be in the city and the parking authority members by George F. Barnes, a New Haven manufacturer and member of the New Haven City Planning Commission.

Rockville-Vernon 'Will Armory Come Here?'

Rockville Observers Ask

Rockville, June 2.—(Special)—Will a State Armory come to Rockville? This was the question asked many times yesterday, when it became generally known that $100,000 had been appropriated for armories in the closing hours of the General Assembly last week.

It was brought out that this sum was included in the baby budget for armories in five cities but the places have not been named. Inasmuch as a bill has been introduced many times for an armory at Rockville without success, many are of the opinion that Rockville is high on the list for consideration for this appropriation.

The last serious attempt at bringing an armory to Rockville was made in the Assembly at the 1947 session. Attorney Harry M. Lipp, who was a Representative from Vernon in the 1947 session, was the leader for the movement, which many remember, failed by inches in the 1947 attempt.

Some of the reasons for the failure of the movement were the location of the proposed site, the location of the proposed site, the location of the proposed site, the location of the proposed site.

Edward Kiewlen

Playing the leading role of Mr. Prior in the Center Theatre's production of "Outward Bound" tonight and Wednesday night will be Edward Kiewlen of Meriden.

Leading roles come naturally to Kiewlen as he has had the lead in "The Philadelphia Story," "School for Brides," "Three Corned Moon," "The Male Animal," and "Hay Fever" for the Meriden Community Theater.

In addition to acting he directed "Goodbye My Fancy" and other prize winning plays for the Meriden CVO which won state championships in 1951 and 1952.

Last summer, Kiewlen appeared in the Oval-the-Grove, Farmington, and last fall Manchester audiences saw him as Peter Sanford in the Theatre production of "Kind Lady."

A veteran Theatreman who will have a major role in "Outward Bound" is Phil Burgess who will play Mr. Langley. He has acted and directed with Little Theatre groups in Massachusetts and has been associated with the Mark Twain Masquers in Hartford and the Oval-the-Grove.

As a Theatreman he has appeared in many major productions and workshop plays. Most recently he played the part of Clinton Jones in "Years Ago."

The curtain will be raised at 8:30 p. m. Tickets will be available at the box office which will be open at 6:30 p. m.

Kiwanis Offer Heifer Offer

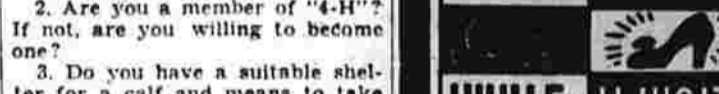

An essay contest, with a heifer as the prize for the best answers to five questions, is being planned by the Kiwanis Club of Manchester, officials of the service group announced today.

Eligible to compete are boys and girls residing in Manchester, Bolton and Coventry. William Glenney, Jr., 240 Boulder road, will receive all essays. Judges will be members of the Kiwanis Club, assisted by the 4-H Club leaders. The decision of the judges will be final. Essays must be submitted not later than June 24 and must be accompanied by a letter from parents approving participation in the contest. Questions contestants must answer are:

- 1. Name, age, school, home address.
2. Are you a member of "4-H"? If not, are you willing to become one?
3. Do you have a suitable shelter for a calf and means to take care of it. Describe.
4. What is your interest and experience in farming? What are your plans for the future?
5. Do you agree to turn over the first heifer from the prize animal to the Manchester Kiwanis Club to be awarded to some deserving boy or girl, and to use only a registered sire of good standing or other methods approved by the breeders' association for breeding prize animals?

All statements will be judged on neatness and sincerity. Considerable weight will be given to future plans of the contestants, the announcement indicated.
