Bao Dai Defeated In Saigon Election
and—apparently first—outgoing Bao Dai from puppet emperor of the kingdom of Annam under the French and during the Japanese occupation, he abdicated in 1949 under pressure from the Communist Vietnams and subsequently fled to Hong Kong. The French returned Bao Dai as chief of state, but his influence was so weak that he was forced to resign in 1954 and went back to France last year and Diem's star rose.
