Two California Scientists Lift Veil on Virus Mystery

Pasadena, Calif., Nov. 7 (AP)—The mystery that has been lifted slightly for the second time in a week.

Cryogenic Virus

Two scientists of the University of California announced today they have crystallized purified Polio virus, the first time a human or animal infecting virus has ever been taken through the process of crystallization.

On Oct. 27 University of California at Berkeley announced that for the first time in history the "head" components of a virus had been reassembled in a test tube to form a "living" man-made virus with all the disease-producing potency of the original.

Today's announcement of polio virus crystallization said it was accomplished by Dr. C. E. Scheraga and Dr. P. R. Schaffer, both of the virus laboratory at the university's Berkeley campus. It was made at a meeting of the National Academy of Sciences at the California Institute of Technology.

Criteria for Purity

Crystallization is an important criterion for purity. The Berkeley scientists said that they now have a pure polio virus, and not one mixed with other particles. The announcement said that this will be especially important in the study of the virus's structure and its chemical properties of the disease agent.

Dr. Scheraga and Dr. Schaffer estimate that about 100 million gallons of polio virus culture could be produced in a year. This would produce more than a billion doses of vaccine.

The work of Scheraga and Schaffer was supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Philadelphia Head Backing Stevenson

Philadelphia, Nov. 7 (AP)—A third prominent Pennsylvania Democrat, Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr., of Philadelphia, has endorsed Adlai Stevenson as his party's candidate in the 1960 presidential election.

Clark said yesterday Stevenson "is the best qualified, most likely to win the party and would make the best president."

Gov. Leslie and Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh previously endorsed Stevenson as a potential candidate. Lawrence is a potential candidate for the Democratic nomination from Pennsylvania.

Clark was one of a group of Pennsylvania delegates who supported Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) as the party candidate in the 1952 convention. They switched to Stevenson, who eventually won the nomination, on the third ballot.

Rockville, Nov. 3 (Special)—Tests being run on machinery at the New-York Tobacco Co. on Middle Rd. this week spurred several complaints by residents on School St. when an air pump created "respiration-like" noises.

When the complaints were received, Jean E. Shepard, the company's president, made a personal investigation and said he would engage the Industrial Sound Control Corp. of Rockville to install silencers on the machinery.

The complaints were made to Rockville City Police, who said Shepard did not realize the machines were making so much noise until he investigated.

Company officials said today that production would begin in the very near future, and that the machinery is being tested.

The company utilizes a revolutionary process in preparing tobacco for cigar rollers that eliminates the need for perfect leaves, as called for by the present manufacturing process.

Several tobacco growers and leaders in the area have expressed fear that the process will hinder their business and lower the cost of tobacco on the market.

WATER TO REPEAT TONS OF FUN SHOW

Manchester Water held an interesting business meeting Tuesday evening, conducted by Mrs. Barbara Thompson, president.

Mrs. Beatrice MacAlpine, official record secretary, announced that Mrs. Janet Everett, 15 St. Lawrence St., was the winner of the $10 prize for the greatest weight loss, 11½ pounds, during the month of October.

Mrs. Edna Bufford won the second prize of $5 by losing 9½ lbs. As a group, they are well along in their second year on weight loss.

The Water has received and accepted an invitation to repeat, for the entertainment of the men at the Rocky Hill Veterans Hospital, an hour and a half show from their recent success, "Tons of Fun," presented twice at the Verplanck School auditorium and once there at the Kingston Veterans Hospital.

They have accepted two other bids to repeat the performance. The Lions Club of Wetherfield, which received the bid, will present it by its own talent, has dated them for December 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.

On Saturday, Nov. 26, they are booked to repeat "Tons of Fun" in Rockville High School. Many Rockville people were unable to attend the first two performances last month at the Verplanck School because of the heavy rains both nights. Mrs. Edith Allen and Mrs. Harriet Neri, two of the Rockville members, will have tickets or they may be secured from members of the Water in this town. The Diplomats orchestra will provide music.

Former arrangements made and donated by Mrs. Ruth Glode were sold after the meeting. Tuesday evening to add to the treasury. Low coffee refreshments were served by Mrs. Henrietta Ward, Mrs. Rita Wolf, Mrs. Agnes Leduc and Mrs. Helen Zimmer.

The Doctor Says

Burgery Now Can Correct Cleft Palate Condition

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

"Our first baby," writes Mrs. S. "was born with a cleft palate in the back of his mouth. It is hereditary and must be on both sides of the face and the prospect of the baby being able to talk after an operation is doubtful."

The defect known as cleft palate cannot be disguised without mentioning the fact that it is almost always accompanied by a cleft lip and soft tissues at the center of the roof of the mouth. The failure of the bone and soft tissues to grow together occurs before birth and is therefore present when the child is born.

In answer to Mrs. S.'s first question is a very understanding answer. It has not been settled yet whether the cause of cleft palate is an inherited factor or something else. Possibly it may be due to some injury during the growth period before the German measles and in the mother during the first three months of pregnancy. It also may be due to the presence of a cleft palate at birth and only appears to increase the chances of the appearance of these and other congenital defects in an infant.

The presence of a cleft palate at birth not only affects the appearance of the child, but also interferes with the production of voice sounds and, therefore, results in serious speech difficulties. Treatment involves surgery. The first step is to decide what operation should be used, and at what age it should be started. There are some differences of opinion as to the best age.

All of the operations are somewhat alike since they involve bringing the separated bones together. Dental work is also needed. When the operation is completed, the lip has to be cut carefully so that it will be functional and leave an inconspicuous scar as possible.

"The Jones have just bought," Mrs. Jones says, "a new car. I was afraid you were making a mistake but..."

"I wish we could afford..." It doesn't matter what they can't afford, the proofing thought that he isn't able to keep pace with his wife's demands isn't a comfortable one.

"You've simply got to do something about..." Whether it's about Johnny or the lawn, that's a nagging way to begin a sentence. And no man who is being nagged can be comfortable—even on a foam rubber divan.

"The Jones have just bought..." "The woman who should be raising her husband over the wonderful thing Mr. Jones has just bought..."

"I was afraid you were making a mistake but..." "In these days of comfort for anyone in those stunts, unappreciated work?"

"It's worse like those that inevitably lead up to the final complaint. You haven't heard a word I've been saying..."

PINK 'N' CHARCOAL DINNERWARE

Born During End of World War II, A.B.A. Tool and Die Still Growing

By LEONARD ZEIDENBERG

The A.B.A. Tool and Die Co., which has come a long way in its 11 years of business, is turning out some of the most highly specialized work in Manchester on a portion of its land tract that once was for one person 10 shillings.

That's how much Luther Gilman paid Timothy Anderson of East Hartford for the land located on what is now Toland Park in 1945. Five years later, Gilman added another acre to his property, buying it from Isaac Stanton of East Windsor for $2,000.

Over the years, the large Gilman farm, which consisted of 100 acres, was sold off in sections. The last was disposed of in 1955 by Orlando Gilman, the last Gilman heir, who sold it to A.B.A. for the new plant it is getting the tract.

Have Original Deeds

In getting the tract, A.B.A. also got the original deeds. The other one is titled now, but the deed is in fairly good condition and Clarence Anderson, who is secretary and treasurer of A.B.A., has the deed ready to be transferred to Timothy.

But would seem that the names of the founders of the company, which has an expanding future to contend with, are not to be forgotten. In 1944, when the company was organized, Helmar Anderson, Fred Anderson, and Clarence Anderson, who is secretary and treasurer of A.B.A., were the three founders. The company was organized by Helmar Anderson, who is secretary and treasurer of A.B.A., and Clarence Anderson, who is secretary and treasurer of A.B.A., and Fred Anderson, who is secretary and treasurer of A.B.A.

Church Pressure Denied, Archbishop Challenged On Advice to Princess

Princess Margaret took an early opportunity of saying no to the Archbishop's advice to bear the Princess by the state, Dimbleby told us.

The Princess made her first public appearance since her decision when she attended a special service at St. Paul's Cathedral last night. The service was a memorial for the late Dr. Thomas John Hart, who established a group of homes for British foundling girls. The Princess was accompanied by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of London, and the Bishop of Exeter.

The Archbishop made his statement on a television program of the government-sponsored British Broadcasting Corporation. He had been silent on the Margaret-Townsend romance, terminated by the Princess because of the Archbishop's opposition to the marriage of divorced parents.

He said that he had been asked to give up the Archbishop's office, but he had refused to do so. He said that he had been asked to give up the Archbishop's office, but he had refused to do so.

Police-Approved Drag Strip Ends Illegal Races Speedily

By MARY KAY FLYNN
 KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Police and hot rodders are clanking their speeds side by side here in a cooperative project that overnight wiped out the illegal nocturnal drag race problem in the Kansas City area.

When law enforcement officials of metropolitan Kansas City decided to pool their forces to end the illegal drag strip with maximum safety precautions, they thought it probably would take as much as six months before constructive results would show.

Much to their surprise and satisfaction, "wildcatting" (unilateral opening of a $70,000 drag strip last July near the Missouri River north of the city) ended in less than a month.

Sparking the project was the lean, quiet-tempered chief of detectives of the Kansas City police department, Maj. Eugene Whelan, whose interest in the hot rodder problem was as much personal as professional. Whelan, an automobile speed enthusiast and the father of a five-year-old son, had long envied the services on his own race track.

Cost of Land Within Limit Of Town Debt, Says Martin

The town could issue bonds to buy all of the Cheney Bros. Globe Hollow property, if it decided to do so, and still not exceed its debt limit, Mayor Martin said today.

Cheney Bros. Tuesday offered to sell about 1,000 acres of land in the vicinity of the golf course and the Globe Hollow reservoir for $1,250,000.

Asked what effect the issuance of bonds for that amount would have on the town debt limit, Martin said the town could reach its debt limit of $1,250,000.

The town's legal debt limit is $1,070,728. That figure is 10 per cent of the total Grand List as computed for purposes of determining the debt limit.

The town now has a debt of $875,000 which is bound by the 10 per cent limit. The Water Department debt is not affected by the limit. The town's debt for the new sewage plant is not bound by the limit either. The town has a $1,000,000 bond issue for a sewerage plant which is not bound by the limit either.

Martin pointed out the town's capacity to borrow without exceeding its debt limit:

1. As soon as the high school is completed, it will add about $3 million to the Grand List used for computing the limit.

2. The town retires about $500,000 worth of debt each year.

3. The town has a credit rating that even if the town purchased all the land, part of the cost would be charged against the Water Department and therefore not be bound by the limit.

The manager also said he had consulted with a credit rating firm and was informed that the town's position in the bond market was excellent.

In another development concerning the proposed purchase, Martin said the town planning commission has been invited to attend the board meeting on Friday evening when the Board of Directors plans to vote on the offer by Cheney Bros.

Under the terms of the town charter, the proposed purchase must be submitted to the TPC for consideration. If the TPC decides against the purchase, it would take the votes of 9 of the 9 directors to justify additional Israeli aggression against Arab states.

Cheney's offer contains three alternatives under which the town can buy all or part of the 1,000 acres.

One of the alternatives involves an arrangement with the Manchester Country Club whereby the club would buy most of the present golf course for $250,000 and move its holes across R. Main St. to the east.

Robert McClain, president of the Country Club, said the board of directors has not yet decided on the offer.

McClain noted that the Country Club can do nothing until the town decides which of the three alternative offers, if any, it wants to accept.

The Country Club head said he thinks there is a possibility the club can raise the money for the purchase.

Martin said he personally felt the price is "somewhat high, considering the amount of land which is not included."

Mrs. Martha Stevenson, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said the C of C's Board of Control probably has been asked to discuss and possibly take a stand on the question of buying the land.

The United States produced only 280 tons of magnesium in 1954 compared to 106,000 tons at the same time in 1954.

Police Hunt Skeleton Case Suspect in Area of Boston

Hatch dropped in at the hardware store just before she disappeared and "Goodyba, Bill, thanks for everything."

Turner, the Miss Hatch, was married at the time of her disappearance. Miss Hatch was a native of Cambridge Springs and used to school there and worked there.

Tolland County Detective Arthur Ross and State Patrolman Frank Shay accompanied the Pennsylvania detectives in their search of the Boston area.

Miss Hatch, who was reportedly a "quiet girl" helped support her mother, with whom she lived alone. Her father died sometime earlier.

One small discrepancy in the identity of the skeleton still lingered, however. Miss Hatch was known to have worn "pink slippers" and they were not found in the area the skeleton was discovered.

The skeleton was found five miles from the center of Stamford Springs on Rt. 32 near the Massachusetts state line. A road near by runs to the State line pond, a favorite spot for lovers in summer.

State Police said Pennsylvania authorities, who arrived here yesterday have so far failed to come up with an explanation of how Miss Hatch might have gotten from Pennsylvania to Connecticut.

State Police Sgt. Edward O'Connor said State Police had started a tedious search through the missing persons file at Hartford in an attempt to find a woman whose status matched that of the skeleton.

O'Connor said that pathologists at Hartford were determining the possible cause of the person's death. He said the dress fragments

Rockville-Vernon SBC Explains Its Selection Of Olk-Aberle School Site

Rockville, Nov. 3 (Special)—In anticipation of the town meeting called for Tuesday evening to select a site for the new Olk-Aberle school, the Rockville-Vernon School Building Committee today issued a statement in reference to its choice.

1. Rise—A site must be adequate for present and future needs. National and state standards suggest a minimum of 20 acres for a 1,500 pupil high school, but space is not available in the area.

2. Location—The site must be a prospect that enrollment might grow to 2,000, which it might easily do here.

3. Character of the Land—The site is high, cleared, well drained, and easy to develop.

4. Location—The site is centrally located to the population growth of the area.

Bobby Bragan Appointed Field Manager of Pittsburgh Club

Signs Contract For One Year; Hope for Speed

Pittsburgh, Nov. 8 (AP)— Bobby Bragan, a 37-year-old veteran of eight years as a minor-league manager who makes no secret of his admiration for Branch Rickey, is the new field manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Rickey, who became chairman of the board after resigning as general manager, wasn't at the news conference when Bragan was handed a one-year contract for an undisclosed salary yesterday.

Bragan, apparently referring to the help Rickey has given him, made it clear he owes a lot to the Mahatma and will try to exploit the youth movement which Rickey began in his five year reign. Rickey was succeeded by 37-year-old Joe L. Brown, one of his "front office assistants."

"I am definitely a Rickey man," Bragan said. "If I am a pretty good manager today, it is due to his counsel."

Brown, who has said he is making his own decisions, quickly decided that Bragan is a "Rickey Man." He said he knew that many people would be disappointed if he was not named to the job.

"I rise or fall on this selection. I am totally confident that he is the best man available."

Just as he did in becoming manager of the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League, Bragan was named manager of the Pirates. He was let out by Rickey at the end of last season after three years.

In Hollywood, Hanes—who had recently signed as a coach with the Milwaukee Braves—was named manager of the Pirates signed Bragan, adding:

"The old man (Branch Rickey) wanted him for three years. It's too bad he didn't take him three years ago."

While Hanes was struggling with the last place Pirates, Bragan was having his success in Hollywood. In 1953, his first year as manager, he was voted the most valuable manager in the PCL for winning the championship. In 1954, Hollywood tied for the pennant, losing to San Diego in a playoff.

Last season, after a poor start, the Stars finished third. A key manager, not over to arguing with umpires, Bragan said he hopes to field a speedy Pirates team.

Do I Go in Now, Coach?

Offensively the Manchester High girls' squad has been averaging 17.8 yards on the ground and 35.3 yards in the air for an overall offensive total of 218 yards. That's a pretty fair mark for a school-boy squad; but the biggest drawback in the Indians' attack has been its inability to score up until last Saturday when they erupted for four touchdowns to topple rival Windham 37-13. Pumbles and penalties have played the major role in High's lagging offense once inside the enemy's 20-yard line.

But the Red and White squad was never better than it was against the Whippits, scoring the first four times it handled the ball after spotting Windham a quick score with the opening kickoff. Coach Tony Aliberto's big forward opened big holes and scored their backfield mates excellent downfield blocking for the first time this fall. The Indians continually outcharged the Whippits like a scabbed lion. Co-Captain Jack Farrell, Dick Pepin and Dick Wright responded with 241 rushing yards, only 25 less than the total gained in the losing battle a week previous to undefeated Middletown. Also for a change in the script, the backs turned only once and that came on the final play of the contest.

Pepin, a 144-pound Junior with great speed to the outside, scored for two TDs on runs of 28 and 74 yards while gaining 128 yards in seven carries. Farrell continued his outstanding work with 86 yards in nine attempts while scampering quickly recovered from a sprained ankle, backed the center of the line for 53 yards in his eight carries and his strong blocking was a big factor in breaking Pepin and Farrell loose on end sweeps. Senior quarterback Ronnie Braunt played the usual fine game and consistently baffled the Windham defenders by his ball handling and choice of plays. He threw only one pass but it went for 25 yards and a score.

But for the second straight week the Indians' second half attack ran out of gas. After setting 207 yards on the ground in the first 20 minutes of play, the locals were held true against the Tigers and Dick Wright responded with 241 rushing yards, only 25 less than the total gained in the losing battle a week previous to undefeated Middletown. Also for a change in the script, the backs turned only once and that came on the final play of the contest.

Co-Captain Dave Colas, Don Squarito, Bob Lassar, Norm Benoit, Jim Glanville and Juv August inflicted most of the damage against the Thread City school boys. And they continually harassed the Windham passers who managed to complete five of 15 aerials for 98 yards. Not to be overlooked were steady Rod Dohn, senior guard and sophomore Joe Iyer, who should be quite a grinder in his senior year. Hounded by injuries in recent weeks, Dave Glavin has defeated Notre Dame of New Haven, Willard Cross and Milford while losing to Hamden and Robert. Rich and playing a scorching tie with New Britain. The victory was last year's struggle 14-6.

Leafs Unbeatable at Home, Notch Fifth Straight Win
New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—Let the Toronto Maple Leafs play all of their National Hockey League games on their home ice and they would be mighty tough to beat for the Leafs.

The Leafs have won five games and tied another and all have been played away from their home rink. Last night they whipped the Detroit Red Wings 3-1 at Toronto in the league's only game and vaulted the Leafs to a three-point lead in the race for the first place in the league.

Sticka Pays Big Price For Football Prowess

Hartford, Nov. 3 (AP)—Charles Sticka is perhaps the most talented fullback in college football. Actually, the junior, 190-pound line buster who speaks the Trinity College attack carries the ball about once in every three plays, but he gets tackled on almost every play.

That's the price he pays for the fearsome reputation he enjoys among Trinity's small college opponents and for the slick ball handling of his quarterback, Bobby Alexander. Time and again he takes Sticka into the line while handing off to a halfback for a slant outside tackle or around end.

Sticka seriously considers a Notre Dame, among other schools, before coming to Trinity. During the mid-year vacation of his freshman year, after he had been named high school team captain at Notre Dame, Frank Varholovic was a variety show performer. Appraised of Sticka's visit to the Syracuse, N.Y., school, the authorities cried "robbery."

Notre Dame authorities replied with reassuring telegrams and telephone calls. Notre Dame's no-transfer rule would prohibit Sticka from playing there, they said. If Sticka goes, he'll be just another student.

Half of the Team. It is an interesting story that Coach Jesse first said, "Sticka's half my football team." He said, "I'd have to play myself."

Sticka, who will graduate next month, has 13 straight wins to his credit and needs two more. Another Saturday at Westleyan next week, to complete his second consecutive perfect season.
