Dulles Reveals Talks to Limit A-Bomb Tests

Long-range foreign aid pledges which will be generally acceptable to Congressional leaders. Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Sen. Knowland (R-Cal.), Republican leader in the Senate, have both opposed the long-range aid plan.

2. The United States-India talks at Geneva will be continued with patience on the part of the Dulles office. Dulles does not display much optimism on the prospects any time soon.

3. Dulles has no plan to withdraw the nomination of Robert H. Taft as assistant secretary of state for policy planning. Dulles has drawn the line at Sen. Bridges (R-Ill.) and Knowland. The Senate reasons have not yet been publicly but they are understood to be Taft's record in the Senate.
