morning to evening by the Vatican decree that ordered a return to the ancient ritual as a convenience to most worshippers.

The first lighting of candles will be held in the ancient churches of the Holy Land, in the Vatican and in other churches throughout the world.

The Washington Washington Bureau says Easter morning will bring a variety of weather patterns may get rain, snow or blowing dust, others sunnier.

Along the East Coast, fair weather is expected. In the lower and Middle Mississippi valleys, rain and showers and rising temperatures are forecast.

In the northern plains and northern and eastern Great Lakes region, some rain and snow showers are expected.

Along the West Coast, the outlook is for a fair weather season in Washington and Oregon where it will be cloudy and may be followed by rain.

Many sunrise ceremonies will be held on Easter morning by the train, car and foot—even by ski lift, to mountain tops for Easter sunrise services.

The ski lift will transport worshippers to sunrise services atop Mount Aspen Mt. in Colorado.

It is expected to put its recommendations in final form next Friday.

A detailed number of subscribers would continue their meetings in past week. Several members, leaving papers behind, have joined other subscribers.

Cite 'Hostile Climate'

The attorneys said the seizure had created a "hostile climate" that made it impossible for the paper to get a fair trial on charges of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government.

The defense suggested the case be put over until the fall term.

In opposing the motion, Chief Asst. U.S. Atty. Thomas R. Gilchrist Jr. said the defense was using the seizure as a convenient pretext.

Federal Judge Alexander Bickel said the seizure was not a pretext.

The seven defendants are George B. Jackson, Alexander Trachtenberg, Mrs. Marion Brodbeck James, Mrs. Jackson, William Norman, Sidney Stein and Fred Fine.

Coventry Suspended License Charges Bring Two Guilty Findings

Coventry, March 31 (Special)—Two cases involving charges of motor vehicles by drivers with suspended licenses were heard by Justice Roberts yesterday in the court here last night.

In the case of Ernest W. Jones, 20, High Coventry, charged with driving while his license was suspended, Justice Roberts entered a finding of guilty and reserved judgment in the matter. A charge of speeding was noted because of lack of sufficient evidence.

Decision was reserved in the case because of a question of Motor Vehicle Department policy. Jones told the court a motor vehicle inspector in Williamstown told him he was not to be arrested if accompanied by a licensed driver.

The justice questioned the policy, stating it might be true in the case of a driver whose license had been suspended for a year or longer, but didn't believe it was true in the case of Jones, who had been under suspension only a few days.

Justice Roberts will seek the advice of the Motor Vehicle Department before a final decision is reached.

In the case of James H. Hayden, 23, 225 Hartford, charged with driving while his license was suspended, Justice Roberts entered a finding of guilty and reserved judgment in the matter. A charge of speeding was noted because of lack of sufficient evidence.

Justice Roberts will seek the advice of the Motor Vehicle Department before a final decision is reached.

To Receive Class At North Church

"I am the Resurrection and the Life" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. John E. Post will preach Easter Day in the North Methodist Church. Services are scheduled for 9:30 and 11 a.m., instead of at the usual hour.

A breakfast immediately following will benefit the Summer Conference Fund of the Union of the Methodist Church.

Other Sunday services at the North Methodist Church will include the church school service at 9:30 a.m., and the church school service at 11 a.m.

The church school service will be held at 9:30 a.m. on the following dates: April 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, and May 7, 14, 21, 28.

About Town

The Fellowship Group of the W.P.C.S. of the South Methodist Church has changed its meeting to Monday night at 7:30 at the 155 S. Main St. Members are reminded to bring articles for the mission auction.

Heard Along Main Street
And on Some of Manchester's Side Streets, Too

Oh, to be Young Aggie! Spooned dialogue between a 6-year-old boy and his 4-year-old sister as they drag their toy cars toward a nearby hill late in March 1935.

The Manchester Youth Council's Easter Dawn Service will be held in the sanctuary of Center Congregational Church instead of at Center Square park, because of weather conditions.

The Chamblaine Club will hold its monthly meeting Monday night at 8:15 in the Federation Room at Center Church. A chorus rehearsal will be held at 7:15.

Army Pvt. William P. Klotzer, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klotzer, 300 Woodbridge St., recently took part in a winter field training exercise held by the 6th Infantry Regiment at Fort Belknap, Montana.

Without wishing to reflect discredit on the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Little League, Recreation Department or anyone else, we would like to remember that when we present opportunities to kids we present opportunities to their parents.

Auditory Police who are signed up for first aid instruction will meet Monday night at 7 o'clock in the Auxiliary Room at Police Headquarters. Those not taking the course will meet at 8:45 for an argument of their duties.

The Good Old Days
We don't want to get into any controversy over child rearing, but we would like to suggest that the "good old days" were not as good as they are made out to be.

Pvt. Peter C. Mitchell, son of Mrs. Helen P. Mitchell, 45 Belmont St., recently was assigned to the 1st Cavalry Division at Fort Riley, Kan. A monthman in Co. L of the division's 13th Regiment, Mitchell entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Cox, Miss.
