Hear McReynolds Talk at Church On Divine Power

"Divine power enables one to be good and to do good; to exercise dominion over the so-called powers of evil by recognizing and demonstrating the supremacy of the good which comes from God..."

It is dependent upon a particular locality or attitude; nor are there varying degrees of health, because health is complete, perfect, and eternal. Through the teachings of the Bible as explained by Christian Science, we are able to perceive that we stand in the wisdom of God rather than in the wisdom of man...

Referring to Science and Health, McReynolds said that we find this illuminating passage on prayer and then he opened the following (p. 15): "In order to pray aright, we must enter into the closet and shut the door. We must close the lips and silence the material of our heart..."

"The power of God is the power of divine Love, which 'worketh ill to his neighbor' and blesses all impartially. Christian Science magnifies this divine power to his man apprehension, so that through his lens we see the supremacy of the power of Spirit and the consequent importance of evil's claim to power..."

McReynolds is a member of the board of Lecturers of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. He was introduced by Ernest Chugh, Christian Science God, and was understood to be the Great I AM, the creator and governor of the universe. He is the God referred to in the Lord's Prayer: "Our Father which art in heaven, whose name we hallow, whose kingdom is without limits, whose power is supreme and infinite, and whose glory is forever..."

"It was Jesus' clear discernment or his nobility with God," the speaker asserted, "which enabled him to exercise divine authority and to utilize the power of God..."

"Mary Baker Eddy discovered this Science of Christianity in the year 1826 and gave the discovery to the world in 1852 in her textbook, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures.' Through the study of this book, together with the Bible, McReynolds told his audience, we see that it was his understanding of the Christ which made Jesus capable of surmounting every obstacle that presented itself to him..."

"Health," the speaker declared, "is not merely the absence of pain and bodily inharmonies, but rather it is an active, vital, invigorated state of consciousness. It is the inherent quality of Life, for which God is responsible and which He maintains by His saving power. Since health originates in God, it is not something that is gained through an inanimate drug, neither..."

Critical School Year Facing Area Towns

Area towns without their own high school plants are being faced with new problems as they look toward the 1936-37 school year.

While their neighbors with high schools fight an ever-enduring battle against classroom shortages, towns which have high school buildings for their students from neighboring communities are facing rising costs—and even extinction.

Rural communities which send their students to Manchester and Windham high schools face substantial increases in tuition rates for the 1936-37 school year. Meanwhile, three towns which send students to Rockville High School are faced with extinction.

Coventry is a typical example of a town which will be forced to wrestle with substantial increases in tuition expense next year. Coventry sends its pupils to Windham and Manchester High Schools. Recently Manchester announced a hike of at least $140 per pupil over the year's tuition rate while Windham last week pronounced an increase of from $20 to $50 per student.

The low figures will bring Manchester's rate, which is currently $25 per pupil, to somewhere between $40 and $49, officials estimate. The new figure includes an assessment to help pay the cost of a new $5 million school building.

The low figures also reflect a higher operating cost, according to the Manchester Board of Education. Coventry's attendance at Manchester High School is expected to jump from 13 to 14 this year to 24 in 1936-37.

Both towns also face the same tuition hike at Manchester next year. The town is currently sending 71 high school students to Manchester.

An example of what effect tuition increases will have on a town's total budget is reflected in Andover's figures. In that town, besides a $6,720 increase under present tuition rates for new students next year, the town can expect to pay in the neighborhood of an additional $2,400 in raised tuition.

Andover's present tuition budget is $18,880. An increase to $25,000 was estimated before the tuition hike was announced. The final cost would be $28,000. Coventry, meanwhile, can expect a hike of over $16,000 in tuition cost increase alone. Coventry's present tuition bill comes to about $75,000.

Unprecedented Contract

Area towns besides Coventry and Andover which send high school students to Windham include Columbia with 80 students, Hebron with 83 and Marlborough.

These towns will also soon face the choice of signing a formal contract with the Windham Board of Education in regard to tuition students for a term of four or five years. Such a contract is unprecedented in the area. Most previous arrangements have been under what the board's call "gentlemen's agreements."

While these towns are faced with increasing tuition costs, Sonner, Ellington and Tolland, which send their pupils to Rockville high school, have been evicted.

Democrats May Defeat GOP in Oregon Runoff

Portland, Ore., April 11.—Corbett and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, co-chairmen of Stevenson forces in Oregon, are taking a cautious view of the state's prospects for a Democratic victory in the runoff election.

Stevenson is taking a cautious view of the state's prospects for a Democratic victory in the runoff election. The Republican column in voter registration so long that it came as a shock to the GOP to learn four years ago that the Democrats had 142,440 votes; Douglas 29,332 and Stevenson 28,353.

U.S. Unclear on Plans To Bar Mideast War

Washington, April 11 (AP)—The Eisenhower administration has a plan for preventing Middle East war, it hasn't been stated. Nor is it clear whether this government will try to stop it with armed force or a debate in the United Nations.

This lack of clarity about U.S. policy may discourage the Israelis and Arabs from the fighting. Or it may have the opposite effect.

American Vice President Earl Warren said today that the United States is confident that other nations will act similarly in the case of peace.

Two paragraphs could mean any one of a number of things. The Eisenhower administration would send armed forces into the Middle East to stop a war, or send the aid of the other supplies; or ask both sides for a cease-fire; or ask the U.N. for united military action.

'Hype' Seen Way to Keep Weight Low

By ALTON L. BLANKENHORN, Toledo Reporter

Dallas, April 11 (AP)—To control your weight, stop counting calories and take care of your hypochondria. It's possible, although officials discount the idea now, that Blankenhorn may say Congress to do what it did for him in 1950 when Formosa was threatened by the Red Chinese.

Whether that did it or not, the Red Chinese quitted down. A similar congressional authorization in the Middle East might not have the same result. The situation there is not identical with Formosa.

In seeking to curb violations of the United States, Britain and France agreed on the subject of Israel and Arab states.

State Council Offers Aid on Riesel Attack

Chicago, April 11 (AP)—The Connecticut Council for Freedom of Information has pledged "full support to all efforts to apprehend the thugs responsible for the assault on New York Labor Columnist Victor Riesel."

The Council is an organization of newspapermen and radio and television broadcasters. It expressed its sympathy for Riesel in a telegram sent after the annual meeting yesterday.

Special guests were Warren Gaudner, editor of the Meriden Record and Journal, the telegram said. The Council would continue its fight to keep "open for the public all avenues of information affecting the public interest."

Boards Plan Priority Program On School Building Needs Here

A priority program and a list of school buildings which are well up for four pressing school building projects was set up last night by town officials who look toward converting building in Educational Square to a junior high school plant and toward altering Washington School.

The three groups at the meeting were the Board of Education, the Board of Directors and the School Building Committee.

The joint meeting was arranged as the result of a plea by Martin that interested officials agree to the progress of any school building project on the basis of remarks made to avoid later argument and waste of time.

The group Monday will review the Board of Education's requirement for the two conversions on Tuesday, the Director will probably authorize a temporary architect for the Educational Square conversion.

Board to Air Budget Items Next Tuesday

Three public hearings on additional budget appropriations of $1,000,000 will be held by the Board of Directors Tuesday when the Board meets at 8 p. m. in the meeting room of the Municipal Building.

It is not expected the appropriations will result in a large net increase in the budget. The appropriations are $1,000,000 to pay for the Democratic primary May 1, $3,000 more for the new regional office in the Highway Department budget, and $10,000 for the possible purchase of 10 new voting machines.

In another financial matter, the Directors will be asked to rescind a vote transferring $8,000 from one account to another in the Police Department budget.

The Board will also be asked to set a date for a public hearing on the appropriation of $200,000 to the Capital Reserve Fund if necessary.

Money has been transferred to the Capital Reserve Fund since then, but the total transferred has been $200,000.

The Board will be asked to approve installing "lightning" poles on the Board of Education property at $800 and to have the poles installed and erected within the objectives set forth.

At present, Mrs. R. F. Rody, Mrs. Muriel Rody Diggs and John J. Rody, Jr. are in charge of the property.

The school building question, discussed in an informal meeting last night, is on the agenda. The Board will consider during a future informal meeting on charter amendments.

Rockville Residents Dispute Land Ownership

Rockville, April 11 (Special)—A small triangle of land between the W. T. Grant Store and C. P. Rody and Co., printers on E. Main St., was the target of a heated dispute yesterday afternoon.

The controversy centered around ownership of the land. Title to the property is claimed by Louis Lavitt and his wife, Mrs. Muriel Lavitt, who own the property.

Access to the area was blocked by the Rody's with automobiles. A right of way used by trucks making deliveries to the First National Store nearby has also been blocked. Large trailer trucks were forced to unload from the street.

The land now stands in the name of Lavitt's wife and Theodor C. Schmitt. About two years ago Lavitt attempted to sell the property, which resulted in a suit in which return of a down payment was sought by unshelving purchasers because of the ownership controversy.

At present, Mrs. Lavitt and Schmitt have a suit on file against the Rody's in Superior Court over ownership. The Rody's claim the land has always been a part of their property.

The daughter born Sunday, April 8 to Manchester Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Tyler, 38 Turner St., has been named Nancy Alice.

The Military Wives of Manchester Emblem Club, No. 231, Monday night at the Elks Home, was highly successful, and proceeds will be used for the Manchester Turn-of-the-Century Club.

Discharged yesterday: Frank Tyler, 38 Westminister Rd.; Miss Mildred Kovelich, West Willington; Mrs. Angela Battistoni, 15 Dunbar St.; Mrs. Eleanor Tyrrell, 30 Depot St.; Michael Miniac, 118 Oak St.; Mrs. Louise Lavoie, 66 Margaret Rd.; Willie Hoshner, 131 Prospect St.; Rockville; William Mover, 27 Lakewood Circle; Paul Hutchins, 28 Talbot Ave.; Rockville; Mrs. Francis O'Connell and daughter; El Flower St.; Ernest Spillman, 184 Summit St.; Raymond Hoffmann, 113 Grandview St.; Mrs. Rose Culina, 41 Deepwood Dr.; Mrs. Helen Lewicki, RFD 2, North Springfield.
