Rockville
Fireworks Slated To Mark Holiday

Rockville, June 29 (Special)—A program of fireworks is planned in celebration of the Fourth of July, sponsored by the local American Legion post, in cooperation with the city. The event will be held Tuesday evening.

In case of bad weather, the display will be postponed until Wednesday night. A rocket will be set off a half hour before the display begins, announcing the event.

Both aerial and ground fireworks will be featured, the committee said, since both seem popular with residents. Site for the show will be the Sleet Field on Regan Rd.

Zoning Board To Meet
 The Vernon Zoning Board of Appeals will hold a public hearing at the Vernon Center Firehouse Tuesday at 8 o'clock to consider an application of the First Congregational Church of Vernon to build an addition closer to the sidewalk than permitted by regulations. The announcement came from John Mason, chairman of the board.

Social Notes
 Members of Vernon Grange will meet at the White Funeral Home tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. to pay tribute to the late Mrs. Sophie Johnson, a former member.

Several members of the First Congregational Church of Vernon will serve on the committee for the summer youth conference. Among them are Mrs. George Hamner, who will serve at the John Robinson Conference, and Mrs. Reginald Roberts, Miss Barbara Willis and the Rev. George B. Higgins, pastor, who will all serve at Elder Brewster Conference.

Six local people will become full members at Rockville Baptist Church today. They are Stanley Letourneau, Harvey Walters Sr., Mike Letourneau, Angela Wright, Allan Schaefer and Judy Chase.

During the months of July and August and the first Sunday in September Sunday morning worship services at First Evangelical Lutheran Church will be held at 8:30.

Mrs. Anna J. Kaybet

Jaycees Elect Insurance Man New President

Kansas City, June 29 (AP)—A 31-year-old insurance man, insurance man, Wendell H. Ford, was elected president of the U.S. Jaycees Chapter of Hartford and New Britain yesterday.

Ford's election came on the 10th ballot at the concluding general session of the Jaycees 34th annual meeting here. He defeated the incumbent, Robert E. McKenna, of Chicago, N.Y., in the 100,000-vote race. While he holds office he will live in the Jaycees White House at Tulsa, Okla., the organization's national headquarters.

Only meetings of the Jaycees Board of Directors and Executive Committee remained on the convention program today. By nightfall most of the more than 3,000 delegates were expected to be on their way home.

During the Revolutionary War, Irish soldiers probably made up about 38 per cent of the U.S. Continental Army, says the National Geographic Society.

President Manuel Odría, running a poor third, Lavelle already has been generally supported. The return gave ex-president Manuel Prado 328 votes, 122,839 for Fernando Belaunde, candidate of the National Youth Movement, Lavelle had 44,069.

When the counting will be completed it is expected that the Apra party, believed to have generally supported Prado, was formed in the 1920s and outlawed when Odría and an Army coup overthrew the government. The Apra party has never been reformed formally, but during the campaign the government allowed party workers to meet and Apra's possible strength is uncertain, as they do not have the largest and tightest political organization.

Not all of the present Red leaders outside Russia are Communist Party members, but they would tolerate a repetition.

Now are the present Red leaders outside Russia credible when they claim to be Communist Party members and operate as a national party?

It is public knowledge they did not even think that one up for themselves. Khrushchev had to tell them that was the line to follow. Now he said it last February in his speech denouncing Stalinism and the "cult of the individual."

So long as these Red leaders outside Russia plausible when taking their cue from Khrushchev—they, too, denounce the "cult of the individual." They had developed the same cult around themselves, ruling rigidly from the top.

Women Keep Police Active

Rockville, June 29 (Special)—It must have been Ladies' Day at the City Police Department last night and this morning, because it was the women who gave police the headaches during this period.

Last night a couple members of the fair sex got into a vociferous altercation over one thing and another and were hauled in to the station for peace keeping.

This morning two more ladies became involved in an automobile accident at Union and West Sts. Mrs. Pearl E. Kent, 24, and Mrs. Josephine Gronowski, 62, both of Morrison St., according to police, Mrs. Kent became upset when Mrs. Gronowski, the identity of which is on her tenant's apartment without knocking.

Mrs. Kent's disapproval of her landlady's actions began a loud argument which culminated in Mrs. Gronowski striking her tenant, police say. Mrs. Kent's car was driven by her son, Harold, who arrived on the scene to quell the argument.

In the other incident, a student driver, Mrs. Florence E. Walters, 45, of West St., was driving her car when she was stopped at a stop sign. Her husband, Harvey, both will be presented in City Court on charges of failure to grant half the highway.

State law says a person instructing someone else to drive must have full control over the automobile and must also assume all responsibility for the student.

Det. Sgt. George Trapp investigated the case, reporting over $100 damage to the vehicles.

July will be Ladies' Day in City Court.

Red Satellite Leaders May Lose Commands

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The present Red leaders in Russia, in the satellite and in non-Communist countries like the United States, may have to step aside in favor of men less stained than themselves.

That's a possibility it may become a reality, but the present Communist leaders, inside and outside Russia, are launched on a new line of making communism attractive, forming united fronts, and acting peacefully and legally.

All Exposed Stalin
 Yet all of them were exposed as the devil's disciples. One Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev exposed Stalin as a devil—just as he did in the "Secret Speech" to retain completely obedient servants and his obedient supporters.

This linked a lot of them, directly or indirectly, with Stalin's monstrosities. And this makes all of them look a little less than perfect as they do now, but it does not mean that they had to go so far as they did.

Stalin, with the collaboration of the present Russian rulers, had built himself into such a position of power that he could not be overthrown.

The big missing link in this story about the change in the Communist line and the disclosures about Stalin is why he would tolerate a repetition.

Now are the present Red leaders outside Russia credible when they claim to be Communist Party members and operate as a national party?

It is public knowledge they did not even think that one up for themselves. Khrushchev had to tell them that was the line to follow. Now he said it last February in his speech denouncing Stalinism and the "cult of the individual."

Armen Got Idea For Thet In Book

Berkley, Calif., June 29 (Special)—Two Armenians who are working on a book about the Armenian genocide, reported police Inspector Charles Pines.

Armen Kenneth Riley, 19, who is a student at the University of California, Berkeley, and David Kinney, 20, who is a student at the University of California, Berkeley, are working on a book about the Armenian genocide.

The two Armenians had a friendly argument over which town should have the honor of claiming him.

He has lived in Hebron for about 20 years now, but continues to visit in Berkeley, where he has property.

His acceptance speech for the award conferred upon him at the Colchester demonstration was "I am a citizen here and Colchester is my home." He said "I am a citizen here and Colchester is my home." He said "I am a citizen here and Colchester is my home."

Hero Will Attend Italy War Rites

HEBRON, June 29 (Special)—William J. Johnston, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor for valor in World War II, was invited to attend the dedication of the Sicily Battle Monument Commission and the dedication of the Sicily Battle Monument Commission and the dedication of the Sicily Battle Monument Commission.

The dedication will take place July 30. Johnston will be in Italy from July 26 to Aug. 1 as a guest of the commission. He will go to Italy by plane as a veteran's representative.

He is a past State commander of the F.V.W. and is now chief of the field contact service for the Veterans Administration Office in Hartford.

Johnston and his family live on Burrows Hill Rd. He enlisted from Amston where his parents lived, but his name appears on Lebanon's roll of honor. Because his wife died in childbirth, he was regarded as a citizen there and Colchester got ahead of it from giving a right, royal demonstration for the return of her. His name is also on the Colchester roll of honor.

The two towns had a friendly argument over which town should have the honor of claiming him.

He has lived in Hebron for about 20 years now, but continues to visit in Berkeley, where he has property.

Patrol Requests Zoning Variance

BOLTON, June 29 (Special)—The appeal of Stanley Patnode for a variance from zoning regulations will be given a public hearing by the Zoning Board of Appeals at the Community Hall on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Patnode seeks to build a garage within five feet of the sidewalk on property he owns on Stony Rd. Zoning regulations establish 10 feet as the minimum side line distance. The lot in question is bordered on the east by property of Herbert Wilson.

Workmen broke through the north wall of the Elementary School yesterday preliminary to extending the main corridor into the new addition. A partition has been erected in the corridor to keep dirt and dust at a minimum. Structural steel for the first floor is in place and a handsome field stone retaining wall has been built at the northwest end of the addition.

Additional Enrollments
 Principal Richard Malloch of the Elementary School reports only two additional enrollments for Grade 1 entrants this fall were recorded yesterday in this third session this month. This brings of equivalent high explosive that we necessarily require or need to have the same quantity of such weapons of the same size to deliver those weapons. We must continually re-examine our important weapons program as it grows and see that they are fully responsive to our needs in this area.

"We must continue to place increasing importance upon the training, retention and proper utilization of military personnel and upon the preparation of programs to the end that the scientifically designed weapons systems which we are developing are effectively and efficiently utilized.

"We must carefully weigh our military assistance programs to determine the proportion of our total effort that can be devoted to bolstering the common defense of our friends and allies in the free world as against that proportion which would be required to maintain the maintenance of our own security.

"Finally, we in the Defense Department recognize the obligation we share with the rest of the executive branch and the Congress to insure that the military program throughout the world is managed to avoid the destruction and horror that would inevitably result from a global war using today's fantastic weapons.

No Talk at Quitting

Hager said Wilson's meeting with Eisenhower yesterday was to the President's regret.

Hager also had there other significant comments.

"He was certain there was no discussion 'at all' of the possibility of the cabinet members' resignation.

"The talk of the two 'would impinge on the security of the United States has completely disappeared from the Secretary of Defense's mind."

There was no discussion of Wilson's word "phony."

While Eisenhower may not have been convinced that some members of the investigating committee intended to ignore the military, he was not convinced that the principal threat to our security today is from the Communist bloc with its stated purpose of world domination. We fully recognize, however, that the threat, while abstract in the military field, is also a threat in the political and economic fields both to us and our allies.

Second problem we face . . .

(Is) the effect upon the economic vitality of our country. We recognize that while our military strength must be adequate to insure that we are not in a degree that would seriously impair the economic vitality of our country, or the will and ability of the American people to support it.

Wilson listed three other points:

- "The proportion of our defense effort that we place in forces and weapons of a defensive nature."
- "The question of forces in being and their continuing modernization . . ."
- "Changes in our strategy and tactics brought about through advancing weapons developments . . ."
- "The effect of nuclear development upon our weapons, our equipment and our strategy and tactics. It is not reasonable to assume that when weapons increase in power from tons to millions of tons . . ."

Saulnier Arrested On Racing Court

Robert Saulnier, 17, of 44 Benton St., arrested on a warrant and charged with reckless driving yesterday as the result of police investigation of a alleged 2-car race that took place on June 25. Five other juveniles have been arrested and a teenager has been turned over to juvenile authorities as a result of their actions stemming from the race.

According to police, Saulnier was the driver of one of the cars involved in the race, but did not drive in the race, but did drive the other driver, Ronald Howard, 17, of Granby, who was arrested on a warrant for reckless driving. Howard is also charged with reckless driving. When arrested, Howard told the police he did not know who the other driver was. Last Friday night he drove to Manchester, accompanied by a young lady, and saw Saulnier's car parked on Main St. He saw the police station and returned with Patrolman William Smith. Saulnier was taken to the police headquarters in another car and was held in a cell pending the young lady sitting inside waiting for her companion. The young lady was released and returned her car. Howard, who was arrested and held in the police station, was released and returned to his home.

Saulnier was released while police continued investigation, but when Howard returned to his car, the five youths followed and reportedly swore and made other threats at Howard while driving through Hartford.

At the Charter Oak Bridge toll pair, Howard told State Police Officer Raymond Lally of his experience. He said he was in the car and returned them to Manchester, where four were placed under arrest. The fifth was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Charged with breach of the peace were Richard G. Wallace, 19 Ardmore Rd.; Ronald A. Guffano, 123 Glenwood St.; Louis N. Caspell, 19 Virginia Rd.; and Charles Boquet, 97 Hickman St. All are 17 years old, and were released on $50 bond each.

The names of the other teenagers were withheld because of their juvenile status.

Yesterday, a warrant for Saulnier's arrest was signed by Prosecutor John R. DeLoach and he was picked up by police. He and all the other youths involved are scheduled to appear in Town Court tomorrow.

DeHan Seen Having Chance To Retain Committee Post

William V. DeHan's chances of retaining his Democratic State Central Committee post in the Fourth District were considerably brightened today.

East Hartford reportedly favored of holding onto the State Central Committee post in the Fourth District in the person of Mrs. Agnes McKee.

Fourth District State convention delegates are meeting tonight in the Hookman School in East Hartford to elect a State Central Committee and a member woman and to name members State convention committees.

Until yesterday, East Hartford leaders including Mayor John Torrey had been trying to dump Mrs. McKee in an effort to secure the committee's post for their town chairman, James Fitzgerald. Manchester leaders were willing to defer to East Hartford on the committee's post so long as they were able to name the woman to replace Mrs. McKee.

Between them, East Hartford and Manchester have 22 of the District's 46 delegates and can virtually control the decision on the committee's post.

Manchester has 12 delegates and East Hartford 10.

DeHan's Efforts

Mrs. McKee, however, refused to be taken out of the picture. Manchester Town Chairman John D. LaBelle finally decided yesterday to "go along" with Mrs. McKee for another 2-year term.

Mrs. McKee has considerable support in her own right, and also having been a State committeewoman for a number of years, she is vice chairman of the East Hartford Town Committee and is ward leader, and has strength in other towns in the District.

Manchester was willing to allow the State Central Committee post to pass to East Hartford on the condition that that town produce the strongest Democratic vote in the town district. But since Mrs. McKee successfully pressed the efforts to dislodge her, Manchester will hold onto the Committee's office.

Charged with union developments toward the meeting tonight, DeHan, a State Central Committee member for six years, will be Manchester's nominee. DeHan, who was on the State Central Committee for six years, Judge Wesley C. Givley, which lost to the State Central Committee in the recent Democratic primary, has no claim on Manchester support.

However, he is well liked personally by the present town committee and today LaBelle said the Manchester delegation would cheer in politics, had practically given up hope of reelection. It was reported he might have had some support from one or two small towns tonight, but DeHan said that attempting to buck the combined forces of East Hartford and Manchester would be "futile."

Besides serving three terms as committee member from the Fourth District, he is a former chairman of the Manchester Town Committee, from 1947 to 1950, stepping down after his first election to the central committee. He now is assistant prosecutor of the town court.

Besides LaBelle and DeHan.

Martin Sees Savings in School Costs

Some $172,000 may be saved in the construction of the new high school which was originally estimated at $5 million, a revised budget for the school compiled by General Manager Richard Martin indicates.

The budget, which shows the status on June 21 in comparison with the estimate of May 22, 1955, is based on money already spent, cost of items for which bids have been taken, and estimates received in the light of later developments.

The biggest saving, noted in the budget is in the construction contract and the cost of casework and cabinets. Originally estimated at $4,000,000, the work cost $3,275,911 which is $724,089 less than the estimate.

Furnishings and equipment are expected on the basis of bids and new estimates to cost $300,000 less than the original $430,000 estimate.

Other Savings

$8,132, enclosing Bigelow Brook, $21,840, borings, $15,515, finish hardware and toilet accessories, $6,678, salary of the chief-of-the-works, $4,000.

Some of these savings are offset by costs in excess of the estimates. Among the losses due to such costs in excess of estimates are $22,800 for extra work on the site; $13,400 for additional bid increments; $9,500 for vehicular damage; $7,500 for vehicular damage; $7,500 for vehicular damage; $7,500 for vehicular damage.

Coverity Uniform Marking System Approved

Coverity, June 29 (Special)—The Board of Education has established a uniform grade marking policy for the town school system, and was worked out by supervising principals, teachers and several parents.

This is the first time Coverity schools have put in writing this type of guide for teachers and according to Phased D. Potter, chairman of Board of Education, the guide will provide a basis for future study and correction.

The Board has also adopted a new principal salary schedule, planning principals on a teachers salary schedule with additional compensation for supervision.

The maximum amount the principals can receive under the new system is $600 per year, figures on the basis of 10 per cent for the first year, 15 per cent for the second, 20 per cent for the third and 25 per cent for the fourth year.

This schedule applies to an 11 month working period. All other existing policies related to principal salaries remain unchanged.

The Board also approved sending 285 students to various high schools. Windham High School will receive 187 students at $345 each. Stafford High School will receive 98 students at $475 each. Stafford High School students, no tuition stipulated. Columbia and Coventry elementary schools will receive three pupils each.

School Notes

A side and log cabin, donated to the Birch School and not presently in use, will be moved to the Coventry Grammar School to be used by first graders.

A suggestion box system has been adopted to allow staff members to make personal complaints and recommendations.

Records show that there are still 19 children who have not registered for the first grade classes to begin in the fall.

Subject to approval of the Board of Finance, a contract for digging and planting a tree at the Robertson School will be awarded to Clifford Hill.

Resignations accepted by the Board include Mrs. Lorraine Macdonald, Grade 2, and Mrs. Louise Minum, Grade 3, both of the Robertson School faculty.

Board members also voted to plant a tree at the Coventry Grammar School in memory of the late John C. Poiry. A suitable plaque will be made by the industrial arts department.

Cash Income For Families $5,060 in '55

Washington, June 29 (AP)—A new government study indicated today the average family had a cash income of $5,060 in 1955 and began this year with $1,900 of liquid assets.

Nearly two-thirds had mortgages of over $5,000; consumer debt aside from charge accounts. But of the latter, nearly a third had liquid funds—bank accounts, savings bonds and the like—which exceeded their debts.

The study was a second report on the 1955 survey of consumer finances made by the Federal Reserve Board and University of Michigan. It was published in the June Federal Reserve Bulletin.

The average income figure was up $180 from 1954, but the estimated 1955 average income of $5,220 reported by the Commerce Department last Sunday, Mrs. E. Ringling, who prepared the bulletin article, said that was a "reasonable" discrepancy in view of differences in the statistical methods and definitions of income used by the two agencies.

It was $469 below the estimated 1955 average income of $5,220 reported by the Commerce Department last Sunday, Mrs. E. Ringling, who prepared the bulletin article, said that was a "reasonable" discrepancy in view of differences in the statistical methods and definitions of income used by the two agencies.

Strawberry Sales Amount to $3,124

The volume of business at the Charter Oak Park auction market hit a seasonal high for strawberries yesterday, with the berries bringing a total of $3,124.

However, the $10.50 high offered per crate was 50 cents lower than the $11 high 21-crate crate brought on Sunday, opening day.

The 345 23-crate crates were sold yesterday. The average price per crate was $9.25 and the low offered was $6.25.

The Board also approved sending 285 students to various high schools. Windham High School will receive 187 students at $345 each. Stafford High School will receive 98 students at $475 each. Stafford High School students, no tuition stipulated. Columbia and Coventry elementary schools will receive three pupils each.

Police Arrests

Grever F. Landell, 25, of Pearl St., and Jacob J. Banks, 40, of 27 Main St., were both arrested and charged with assault and breach of the peace following a fight at the Wigwam Snack Bar, 27 Main St., about 7:30 p.m. this morning. Police said.

Patrolman Allan Smith made the arrests. Banks pointed a .380 Smith & Wesson revolver at Landell and was released for a similar bond.

Jacob Turck, 26, of 81 Birch St., was arrested this morning by Patrolman Primo Amadio and charged with speeding. He is scheduled to appear in court here July 9, police said.

James Hutson, 31, of 30 Drive St., posted a $50 bond today at Police Headquarters on charges of reckless driving and failure to secure an operator's license.

Hutson, involved in a motorcycle accident here June 22, has been in Manchester Memorial Hospital since the crash occurred. He was discharged today.

State Police Curb Portland Dancers

Portland, June 29 (AP)—It took a detachment of state police to break up a trouble-breeding invasion of a block and square dance party here last night. There was only one arrest.

Rounds of about 35 teenage boys, returning from Saybrook, where their state police had urged them on their way earlier in the night, tried to invade the dance party.

Friday, June 29

Real farmer all had peas to eat. Mr. was that all City slicker and fake farmer both had peas as early in the late year, as they ever had them in a year of early spring. Both discovered, at last, that the way to win a pea derby is to plant last.

And General Gavin replied: "Current planning estimates run only a few hundred several hundred million deaths that would be either way, depending on which way the wind blew."

"If the wind blew to the southeast they would be mostly in the U.S.R., although they would export them into the Japanese and perhaps down into the Philippine area."

"If the wind blew the other way they would extend well back into Western Europe."

Either way, our attempt to annihilate Russia by annihilating its population of 180,000,000 would apparently also involve the annihilation of a hundred million or so of people considered our friends.

In other words, even if we were on top in the imagined atomic war as much as that only we are doing atomic bombing, we would be killing hundreds of millions of innocent people, not only inside Russia, but outside Russia.

Similarly, we suppose, it can be calculated that any full-fledged Russian atomic attack on this country would not only have a target of some 160,000,000 people here, but, assuming normal war aims, a chance of killing millions in other countries in Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Since the people on world military staffs who have to plan and calculate such things are, after all, human beings, we have an idea that war has begun to lose its appeal, even for such professionals.

And perhaps the world begins to understand why the world's greatest general, who happens to hold a political office at the moment, has proclaimed that war is no longer an alternative.

Complicated, expensive. Add to the unpleasantness in Iceland a curious set of complications over our military position in another country—Morocco.

Morocco is about to receive a large degree of independence from France, including the right to conduct its own foreign relations. We have a large air base there, under agreement with France. We must soon negotiate with independent Morocco for a continuance of our privilege. Indications are that Morocco plans to have a price.

One of the curious facts now coming to light is that, in all the years we have been setting up this air base in Morocco, France has refused us permission to station enough Air Force manpower to put the base in real operation.

But suddenly, just before Morocco was to take over its own affairs, France became lenient with us and raised by one-third the ceiling on the number of men we could station there. This last minute generosity on the part of France, which was really giving us something on behalf of Morocco, France never would give us for itself, is not seen as any particular good will toward us, but rather as a maneuver by which France hopes to show its way into the forthcoming discussions between Morocco and the United States.

France wants to be in on these discussions because France also expects to retain some base privileges in Morocco, and France doesn't want us to wind up having a more favored position in her former colony than she has for herself.

Meanwhile, even if we do finally get permission to bring in enough men to operate it, our Moroccan air base may wind up being a white elephant anyway. We have already located our main North African air operation in Libya, which is a much better new country, and to get our dollars and new facilities in Spain may take away some of the importance of all our North African positions anyway, in which case we will wind up having spent millions for nothing.

The game of bases is complicated and expensive, and it is to be hoped a day comes when we no longer have to play it.

The Secret At Last We haven't been officially sponsoring any annual pea derby for a number of years. For one thing, the pattern had become monotonous. The city slicker always planted first. The synthetic countryman always planted second. The real farmer always planted last.

In order of having peas, the finish was always as follows: real farmer; city slicker; fake farmer. This is a good year to do away with the derby, permanently. For this year, the kind of spring we had happened to make real farmers of us all, so far as planting schedules were concerned.

City slicker and fake farmer were both discouraged by snow long enough to come into real farmer's planting schedule. That meant both of them were planting several weeks later than usual. And what happened? For the first time in the history of the pea derby, city slicker, fake farmer,

Droodles

By ROBERT FRICK

Do It Yourself Bowling Ball Kit

When I showed this doodle to a military friend of mine, Col. Bob Gates of the 6614th Air Transport Group, he laughed so hard he dropped it. While I was picking it back up out of the waste basket he suggested I give Doodles to the Army and let them start a new branch of it called "Doodles in 'Comical Warfare.'" However, I have no intention of getting rid of Doodles. At the present time I'm forming what I call the "Doodle Foundation" and each year I intend to present thousands of Doodles to universities through the country. I feel that as long as the Ford Foundation is giving so much money to provide increased education, the least I can do something to decrease it.

Like work. Have a good hobby. Learn to be satisfied. Like people. Turn the defects of adversity into victory. Meet your problems with a grin. Concentrate on making the present moment an emotional success. Always be planning something. Ray "mits" to invitations.

Tot Drowns in Brook Bloomfield, June 29 (AP)—Carl Rampini, 10, of Bloomfield, fell in a brook near his home while playing yesterday and drowned. A playmate called his mother, who pulled the body out. Police estimated the boy had been in the water only about five minutes.

Ask Help for Old Patients Middletown, June 29 (AP)—An appeal for women to serve as volunteer nurses, helping with the older women patients at Connecticut State Hospital, was issued by Dr. Edgar C. Verbury, superintendent. He said that the volunteers will be asked to take these older patients for walks, read to them, take them for rides, and help with their personal care in the garden with them.

I don't live in Manchester, although I have always hoped to. It looked like a nice place to raise the little one and watch my two teenagers finish the long transaction of obtaining adulthood.

Believe me I've been disqualified for being an out of townner after being interviewed. I would have understood and waited another chance to find an opening in my line so I might become a happy citizen of your town. I only wrote this letter because I still believe in the "American way of life," a hearing for all and that politics are kept strictly off the blackboard, whether it's in the class room or outside. I know now this is no longer my business, for I chose the rest of you to know if you decide to go further and investigate and I ask with you all the way.
