Well See How "Open"
The strategy of the Democrats at Chicago to stage a wide open race for their vice presidential nomination, is designed to help emphasize what seems to be the acknowledged Republican weakness in this campaign—the combination of the question of the President's health and the presence of Richard Nixon in the vice presidency.

A Truce In The Mirror
An interesting conflict of methods and principles between regular law enforcement agencies and the "do-gooder" type of anti-crime crusading up in New York City, is the subject of a new book by the author of "The Other Side of the Mirror".

The Foreign Policy Plank
Nowhere in the long, discursive foreign policy plank of the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago will one find recognition of what has actually happened in this country's foreign policy in the past three years.

Deliciously Refreshing...
The Democrats' 12th Dulles' verbal "brinkmanship" and attribute it to Eisenhower, thus ignoring the fact that Eisenhower provided, on three occasions, the decision away from war and to peace.

Doodles
By ROGER PRICE
A drawing is actually a real super Rabbit Ear Antenna that Dr. Schweine built and it really improves the reception on their set. Last night we watched the Charley Chan movie without even turning on the power and when we flipped the switch it picked up Charley Chan from Central Africa. There was a fat lady who accompanied her on their blow pipe. The season was full of bongo drums (we phoned in 10 minutes) and a few more of treated even our enemies as if they had a right to exist. That head, it was less than the head of today, that the things which are happening in the world today are in the direction of peace, that civilization has a chance of living instead of a certainty of counting suicide, that America, in its population, stands clearly recognized as a friend of peace rather than a cocky seer of new wars—all these things are the personal work of President Eisenhower.

A Thought for Today
The goal
All roads that lead to God are good.
What matters it, your faith, or mine?
Both center at the goal divine of love's eternal brotherhood.
A thousand creeds have come and gone.
But what is that to you or me?
Creeds are but branches of a tree.
The root of love lives on and grows.
Though branch by branch proves withered wood,
The root is warm with prescient wine.
Then keep your faith, and leave me mine.
All roads that lead to God are good.

Steiner Arrested On Liquor Court Joseph W. Steiner, 48 of 186 Edridge St., was charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs following one of two accidents yesterday.

Investigating Patrolman Gordon Kerahaw said Steiner buckled his car from a parking stall on the west side of Main St., north of Maple St., and struck a passing vehicle.

The other car was driven by Nelson J. Sprague, 21 of 19 Ave. St., Kerahaw reported. He estimated the only damage was $50 to the Sprague car. No one was injured.

Steiner posted a $200 bond and was released for later court hearing on the charges.

John Holmes, 9 of 246 Green Rd., was examined and found not guilty of the charge of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor or drugs.

Patrolman Allan Smith investigated the accident and reported it took place on Green St. just west of Wesley Rd. in mid-afternoon.

Smith said the driver suffered only bruises. No charges were brought by police.

During his stay here, Peterson has been especially active in the youth program of the church and has also assisted in the preaching ministry and in visitation.

In July he directed a Vacation Church School at Enamuel with 307 children.

While in Manchester, he has made his home with Mrs. John Bjorkman, 29 Ridge St.

Hamilton St. is not on the critical list and her condition is "good," a hospital spokesman said today.

Two Liners Hit in Fog Off Quebec Quebec, Aug. 18 (AP)—The 18,152-ton liner Homeric, packed with 1,000 passengers from Europe, collided in dense fog with a moored vessel, the 9,800-ton Columbia, in Quebec harbor today. No injuries were reported.

The Homeric—under way to her berth, stopped in the Columbia's side and crushed some lifeboats.

Harbor officials said there appeared to be no panic on the Homeric, covered by the Italian Houff Lines. No passengers were aboard the Columbia, a Greek Line ship. She arrived yesterday from Bremerhaven, Germany.

A spokesman of the harbor police's office said fog was so thick that crews could not see the other ship.

The Homeric is the flagship of the Home Lines on the North Atlantic run. She was built 20 years ago in San Francisco and sailed the Pacific as the Mariposa. Home Lines bought her from the U.S. Navy in 1945. She was rebuilt in Italian shipyards, the Homeric made her maiden voyage under her new name in April 1950.

British Easing Cyprus Curbs In Truce Move Nicosia, Cyprus, Aug. 18 (AP)—British authorities announced today the first relaxation of security restrictions since the EOKA underground declared a truce Thursday.

The easing of curbs will allow the use of motorcycles and bicycles in Nicosia again, after a year of strict curbs.

Limassol Ban Lifted A similar right-of-way ban also was lifted by officials at the south coast port of Limassol.

Residents of Nicosia relaxed somewhat in an atmosphere of optimism.

It was still too early to tell whether a halt to anti-British violence actually was at hand, as proclaimed in leaflets scattered in Greece from the British by the government.

The general public in Cyprus and Nicosia alike apparently accepted as genuine the proclamation of the EOKA "suspension of operations" to allow negotiations to begin.

The British government said it "certainly would not be backward in responding to the welcome change of an end to the bombing and shootings. But the British were expected to delay any response for at least two weeks to see if the truce was genuine.

The EOKA campaign has claimed nearly 150 lives—include 51 British—in the past 18 months.

In Athens, Premier Constantine Tsoukalas said the British government was "certainly would not be backward in responding to the welcome change of an end to the bombing and shootings. But the British were expected to delay any response for at least two weeks to see if the truce was genuine.

Estes Wins Floor Fight Nomination Chicago, Aug. 18 (AP)—Homespun Estes Kefauver, frustrated twice in seeking the Democratic presidential nomination, today was on his party's national ticket—as its vice presidential nominee.

Almost everybody who was any body in the Democratic party got into the harmony at a moment when the show was over. It was a night when everybody who showed up was credited with being a good Democrat.

As the star of the televised presentation, Stevenson laid down the pattern of an aggressive campaign to sell a "new America."
