Rockville Charter at Third Milestone Amidst Consolidation Talk

Rockville, Aug. 29 (Special)—This city's first completely revised Charter is celebrating its third anniversary this month amid talk of consolidation of city and town government.

The 1,800-word document by which the city is governed was the result of several months' preparation and went into effect in August, 1953, following public hearings and passage of a special bill in the General Assembly.

Although the Charter brought with it no changes in the city's system of government, it was felt at the time it would provide for more efficient administration.

One of the highlights of the Charter was the legalizing of a policy that had been followed by city officials for half a century illegally, unknown to them.

That was the policy of selling sewer facilities, police and fire protection and other services to residents of neighboring towns. A paragraph in the new charter provides the right to the city to furnish its services "beyond its territorial limits when in the opinion of the Board of Common Council it shall find that the best interests and public welfare of the city of Rockville will be served thereby."

The last major revision in the city's charter came in 1937 when a plan was initiated to eliminate off-year elections of city officials.

At that time, aldermen and councilmen whose terms expired in the years between regular city elections would require special elections to fill the vacancies.

However, the change did not come without controversy. It was claimed by some that under the proposal it would be possible for one political party to make a clean sweep of all Council seats.

The complaint was raised by providing that at each biennial election four aldermen-at-large would be chosen for 2-year terms, and one alderman chosen from each ward, while the term of the other ward alderman ran an additional two years.

Another significant change in city government that took place in 1937 was elimination of the biannual City Council until that time the Board of Aldermen and Board of Council were considered as separate bodies. Their merger brought them to be known as the Board of Common Council.

Consolidation of the town and city government has been considered several times over the years. Among the most recent campaigns in this regard was one waged in 1952 when a bill was introduced by request into the General Assembly by Rep. Luther White of Rockville. The bill requested a special act providing for appointment of a committee to study the proposed consolidation of Rockville and Vernon.

Immediate objection was raised a phrase stating that consolidation "shall not become effective unless approved by a majority vote of the Vernon Fire District and the City, each voting as a separate district."

Another bill, however, jointly sponsored by Rep. White and Rep. Franklin D. Wallis of Vernon which included the phrase, was under consideration by a legislative committee, where it died.

The latest controversy centers around proposals made by two groups in the city. A city-appointed study committee has come out in favor of establishing two separate school districts, while heads of a bipartisan committee named by the young Republican and Democratic clubs here have come out as favoring consolidation.

Tolland County Superior Court

Rockville, Aug. 29 (Special)—Rockville Lodge of Elks and Albert C. Spielman, its caretaker, are being sued by Mollie Stanton, 74-year-old Mystic woman, according to a writ filed with Tolland County Court Clerk John H. Yeomans.

According to the writ, the plaintiff is seeking $10,000 in damages she claims resulted from a fall on N. Park St., Oct. 28, 1955, and also claims her fall was due to a red brick culvert adjacent to the sidewalk in front of the Elks property, which Spielman constructed.

The writ also claims the plaintiff tripped, stumbled and fell as the result of "dangerous and unsafe conditions" and sustained permanent injuries. It also claims the Elks Club was negligent in allowing the condition to exist without repair.

The writ is returnable the first Tuesday of September.

Services Unveil New Machine Gun

Aberdeen, Md., Aug. 29 (AP)—A lethal new airborne cannon, patented on a weapon nearly a century-old, was unveiled here yesterday as the answer to the youngster's age need for rapid firepower.

The 20-millimeter T71, nicknamed "The Vulcan" for ancient Rome's God of Fire, was demonstrated at the Army Proving Ground by the U.S. Air Force, Army Ordnance, and General Electric, who developed it specifically for use in modern jet aircraft.

The new machine gun incorporates the original design of several rotating barrels in a cluster, first patented in 1882 as the Gatling gun, which later revolutionized firepower in the Spanish-American war.

The Air Force and Army won't say how fast the Vulcan can shoot except that it can expel more shell in 60 seconds than an infantry company of 400 men can shoot in 20 seconds. The Vulcan's muzzle velocity is reported to be 3,400 feet per second.

Vulcan's developers claim the new weapon "fulfills the requirements of a gun capable of firing at an extraordinarily high rate in the split second available when one fast-moving plane becomes the target of another flying faster than the speed of sound."

Two Cars Crash Near Gas Station

No arrests or injuries resulted from a 2-car collision on Main St. yesterday afternoon involving cars driven by Miss Ann E. Foley, 21, of East Hartford, and Mrs. Irene H. Brown, 61, Box 482. The mishap occurred just south of Flower St.

Patrolman Samuel Mattempo, who investigated the crash, said the car driven by Mrs. Brown was struck in the rear as she attempted to pull into a gasoline station. Her car, which was proceeding south before starting the left turn, sustained about $150 damage.

Miss Foley was driving north on Main St. and said she did not see Mrs. Brown's car. The Foley vehicle suffered about $250 damage.

The crash occurred shortly before 2 o'clock. A wrecker removed Miss Foley's car while Mrs. Brown was able to drive hers away.

Hot dog production under federal inspection reached 610 million pounds last year.

FBI Nabs Masterminds In Riesel Blinding Case

The FBI gave this account of how the gang allegedly mapped out and executed the attack on Johnny Dio and Thio met with Miranti at his candy store a few days before the attack. Miranti then got in touch with Bando, who through Joseph Caplan procured the services of Telvi.

After the attack, Miranti hurried to a meeting with the two Dies and Thio. He reported to them that the job had been done. But he had some bad news. Some of the sulphuric acid aimed at Miranti's eyes had splashed on Telvi's face.

Miranti was therefore ordered to make certain Telvi did not run to a doctor for treatment.

The FBI has said Telvi was later wiped out because his arm-matched face made him a living, tell-tale link to the crime.

At the conference, Johnny Dio gave Miranti $500 for delivery to Telvi. Another $500 was to be paid later.

Alabamans Thwart Integration Order

Students went overwhelmingly for the two racial measures. Those with few Negroes generally opposed them.

Returns from 1,870 of the state's 2,700 boxes gave the school amendment a margin of 97,730 to 63,302.

The same returns on the parks proposal, gave 86,629 for and 63,439 against.

Misto disappeared at about the same time. He was convicted in Florida.

Police had been working on the theory that Telvi and possibly the others knew too much about the Riesel attack.

But it was reported yesterday that there is a growing theory that Langone and Rocoletto were killed in reprisal for holdups of gamblers and bookmakers.

APL-CIO leaders gathered for an executive council meeting at a Forest Park, Pa. mountain camp. They said Dio is guilty of complicity in the Riesel case he should get "what is coming to him."

16-Year-Old Worst Driver

Heartford, Aug. 29 (AP)—State Motor Vehicles Commissioner John J. Tyson says 16-year-old drivers have the worst accident rate of any other age group in Connecticut. But he also told the State Legislative Council yesterday that 16-year-olds who had a drive in public schools or private schools show a lower accident rate.

Tyson suggested that the Council investigate the possibility of legislative action on upgrading the driving education courses in Connecticut schools.

Last March, Manhattan D.I. Atty. Frank S. Hogan named Dio as a leader in an underworld fight to muscle into control of the big New York area Teamsters Union.

In the 1930s he and 200 partners were accused of launching "a reign of terror" to shake down labor operators in New York.

Meanwhile, Nassau County police announced that a body found Sunday in New Canaan on Long Island was not that of Louis Muto, 27-year-old pal of the slain Telvi and missing defendant in a hit-jacking case.

Police said a dental examination of the corpse showed that the teeth did not match those of Muto.

Identity of the victim, shot through the back of the head and

Two More Stores Open in Parkade

Two more stores will open tomorrow morning in Great Manchester Shopping Parkade on W. Middle Turnpike.

They are Lynn Poultry Farms, which will handle a complete line of poultry items, and Lynn Poultry, which are located next door to each other, will mark their opening with special inducements for each of its first 1,000 customers.

Both stores will hold a sale lasting through the weekend.

The poultry store will be another in a chain of Lynn stores scattered throughout Connecticut and Massachusetts. Manchester already has one of them, located at 505 Main St. The stationery store is the second to be opened by Jules and Jay Goldstein of Waukegan, Ill. Their first is in Waukegan.

Tomorrow's openings will bring to five the number of establishments already operating in the $2.5 billion shopping center. Six more stores will open in the next three weeks, and most of the remaining stores will be opened by the Parkade's grand opening, Sept. 27. In all, 20 stores will be located in the shopping Parkade.

Students Register For Labor Day

Hartford, Aug. 28 (AP)—Commissioner Newman E. Argraves of the State Highway Department promised today that State Highway will be in top condition for the safe passage of heavy Labor Day weekend traffic.

Orders have been issued to the operating districts of the department to have construction projects put in "the best possible condition," he said.

In addition, all surface treatment—such as surfacing and "oiling"—will be suspended from Friday until Tuesday, Sept. 4. This special effort for the holiday, Argraves said, conforms with department policies covering all long holiday weekends.

Dr. Yules Plans To Leave Town

Dr. Alan Yules, who has dental offices at 431 Main St., announced today he is giving up his practice here and will move with his family to the West Coast early next week to look for a place to locate.

Dr. Yules said he and his wife, who came from San Francisco originally, have been planning such a step, since he was discharged from the Navy in 1947 and began practice here.

He said Dr. R. J. Chutter, a Portland dentist, has bought the building housing his offices and will probably begin his own practice here about the middle of September.

The Yules home at 80 1/2 E. Hollow Lane has not yet been sold but it is for sale, the dentist said.

Born in Manchester, Yules graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1942 and finished his study at the University of California's School of Dentistry in 1945. He served in the Navy for two years.

Yules is a member of local Masonic organizations, the Adoniram Council No. 14, R and BM, Boscawen, and the American Legion. He will resign his membership in the local and State dental associations. He is already licensed to practice in California.

Senior-Freshman Day Plans Listed
Rockville, Aug. 28 (Special)—The schedule for the senior-freshman orientation program at Rockville High School Sept. 5 was released today by Principal Allen L. Dresser.
Included in the schedule is an assembly at which the seniors will explain the various clubs and other extra-curricular activities to the incoming students.
Also scheduled is a senior-freshman dance to be held Sept. 7 at which time the freshmen will be guests of the seniors.
In charge of the orientation day program is Senior Class President Richard Dunlop, and Miss Rita Campo and Norman Young, faculty class sponsors.
The schedule is as follows: 8:05 to 8:35, seniors and their respective freshmen will be in their home rooms to make out schedules and receive instructions relating to lockers, passing in the halls and other school regulations.
From 8:35 to 8:50, seniors will go to the freshmen home rooms to be guests of the seniors.
On the second day of school, senior guides will again be on duty to make sure freshmen find their proper classrooms.
Also released today by the principal's office is the period time schedule for the year. School begins at 8:05, with a tardy bell two minutes later. The first period begins at 8:18. There are eight 40-minute periods during the day, with classes ending at 2:15.
Six 25-minute lunch periods will begin at 11:15 and end at 1:35.

Deaths Last Night
Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 29 (AP)—S. Z. Masha Feilsh, 80, concert pianist and composer and publisher of the Memphis Musical Journal, died at the University of Tennessee and was president of the Dallas, Texas, Institute of Musical Arts.
Petersburg, Va., Aug. 29 (AP)—Samuel Jacob Kornhauser, 77, composer, pianist and publisher of the Cleveland Journal, died Tuesday.
Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 29 (AP)—Retired Col. Gen. V. I. Kholchikov who commanded the training of the military personnel after World War II. The Army paper Red Star reported his death Tuesday. His age was not given.
Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 29 (AP)—Gen. Giuseppe de Santis, member of the Central Committee of the Italian National Fascist party, died Tuesday.

Had No Life of Her Own
Throughout the rest of the day seniors from study halls will act as guides in all three buildings to assist freshmen who may be having trouble locating rooms in which their classes are being held.
Shortened class periods of 20 minutes will be observed during the day. Since only half the school will be in session, 30-minute lunch periods will be sufficient.
However, seniors will explain to their freshmen that ordinarily the lunch period is divided into two parts, and a bell will be rung halfway through the shortened period to acousticate them to the break that will come at that time.
On the second day of school, senior guides will again be on duty to make sure freshmen find their proper classrooms.

Nurse in Baby Killings Seemed Lonely Woman
To admit that at the time she handled the baby well. We even had her for our second child."
"True, she was heavy-handed. When she nursed the baby, she seemed to hurt it a few times but about nothing serious at all."
"A part from her handling of the baby, she seemed immature. She had this childish delight in eating, especially ice cream and soda. She was always, it seemed, taking picnics at 8:18. There are eight 40-minute periods during the day, with classes ending at 2:15.
Six 25-minute lunch periods will begin at 11:15 and end at 1:35.
Mrs. Hubbard, like other mothers who once employed the nurse, said that long after she left their home, Mrs. Jaspers frequently sent birthday gifts or cards to her child.
Mrs. John Flanagan, wife of a New Haven attorney, said they were so pleased with Mrs. Jaspers' care of their child last year they recommended her to friends. Mrs. Flanagan said Mrs. Hubbard seemed to think she would never have a child of her own and lavished all her attention on ours."

Police Probing Several Breaks
Money was stolen from a vending machine and a cabinet was unsuccessfully jimmied last night at the East Side Rec. It was learned today by The Herald. It was also reported that several "Coke" machines were robbed last night in various parts of Manchester.
Police are investigating the breaks, but the exact number of machines broken into during the night was not known into this afternoon.
Employees at the East Side Rec on School St. said that whoever broke into the vending machines was using a key to open the door on a cabinet, but was unsuccessful. Desk drawer was then broken open and the key to the "Coke" machine was taken. The key was used to open the machine, but the amount of money stolen was not known.

News Tidbits
Culled from AP Wires
New York City Police arrest 44-year-old ex-convict in Queens and say he is "top man" in a wholesale narcotics ring with sales of $600,000 annually for past three years. Former Los Angeles police prison warden who has witnessed 100 executions says he doubts capital punishment is deterrent to crime.
Mayor Robert F. Wagner says he expects to decide by end of this week if he will be candidate for Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator. Educator in Illinois says news publications should enlarge larger share of cost of newspaper.
"It is evident," the letter goes on, "that the velvet automobile continues to be a mechanical and efficient setup, should be maintained and enlarged where possible. We are, in fact, already increasing production of the plush weaving."
The increased plush weaving is one result of the decision to discontinue the freize furniture operation in Manchester which was disclosed several weeks ago. Some of the looms and men formerly engaged in the freize operation here are being transferred to plush production.
The letter also reports that the decorative division is "running full and the sales manager is in making for more production."
In his letter, Gest points out that competition in the textile industry is "very keen" and that "reasonable" and "practical" decisions are needed to survive.
"Naturally, in this period of study and administration, the letter concludes, we need the help of everyone concerned who can

Light Plane Crashes in Wapping Farm Field
A Transocean Air Lines navigato escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon when the light plane he was piloting crashed above Wapping Farm in the Wapping section of East Hartford.
Raymond Haysler, 52, of East Hartford received a slight hand injury when he landed the plane in a meadow.
Russell J. Upton, 19, of 46 Cooper St., who appeared in court yesterday to face an improper lane changing charge but had his case suspended because he did not have his parents with him, was fined $12. Judge Gryk ordered Upton to appear today with his parents, and his mother was in court.
The case of Alan M. Weiss, 16, 79 Brookfield St., was continued until Sept. 4. Weiss, who is charged with speeding, is at Camp Drum, N.Y., with the National Guard.

Lifeguard Finally Thanked
Westery, R. I., Aug. 29 (AP)—Frank Turano, veteran lifeguard at Massachusetts Beach, who is credited with 500 rescues in 22 years, said today it has happened at last.
He has received his first thank you note for a rescue. It was from Miss Yolande Messer of Norwich, Conn., who he helped from the surf Aug. 19.
Turano said, "We don't even get a verbal thank you."

Court Cases
Judge Wesley C. Gryk today found probable cause and bound Leo F. Picetty, 47, of 201 Adams St., over to the next term of Superior Court. Picetty, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of causing injury or risk of injury to a minor child, was freed under $2,000 bond.
Picetty was arrested Aug. 21 by Sgt. Charles Griffin after police investigation. The accused allegedly caused injury to a 3-year-old girl.
Two men, Frank C. Robert Jr., 229 Toland Type, and Henry L. Lester of Mill St., pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication. Robert was fined $20 and given until Friday to pay the fine, while Lester was sentenced to 20 days in jail.
Miss Barbara Herrick, 18, of 13 Fairfield St., charged with passing a stop sign, was fined $12. Two other persons facing the same charge, Mrs. Maria D. Plume, 22, of East Hartford, and Norman J. Miller, 21, of Springfield, Mass.,

New Parking Area Entrances Suggested by Subcommittee
The Board of Directors subcommittee on parking met last night and decided to propose that two new entrances to the Purcell parking area be set up and a privately owned existing entrance be improved.
Director Gilbert Barnes, who disclosed the recommendations planned by the committee, said the committee that the ultimate goal is to provide free parking at the Purcell lot. "We are fighting the new shopping area to provide free parking and feel the other businesses must be able to provide it in order to compete," he explained.
Mason pointed out today that free parking is offered by all the businesses cooperating in the Purcell lot. "We are fighting the new shopping area to provide free parking and feel the other businesses must be able to provide it in order to compete," he explained.
Barnes said, "We feel this leaves it up to the merchants to improve the entrances to their businesses. People will probably feel more like using the Purcell parking lot."
Mason said he could only speak for himself, but he thought the merchants would be happy to improve their rear doorways. Some have already, he emphasized, and others have been awaiting action by the town on a sidewalk and other details.
Barnes said the recommendations planned by the parking committee would not conflict with the ultimate long-range plan for developing Manchester's business district worked up by the Town Planning Commission. "On the contrary, the changes would be in the north and south of the Purcell area, on the west side of Main St. and in the North Road Barnes said. No definite plans have been made about these however."

McCurry Receives Spellacy Award
A former Herald newswoman, William D. McCurry, received the Thomas J. Spellacy Award yesterday as the outstanding newspaper reporter of the year.
The award was presented by Spellacy, former mayor of Hartford, at a dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce at the Hartford Hotel.
The June graduate of Manchester High School is the son of Samuel McCurry of 187 Center St., William who until recently delivered the Herald and Hartford Times.
McCurry was also the recipient of the Publisher's Award for best newspaper reporting of the year.
He graduated 11th in a class of 202 students and McCurry's ultimate goal is to become a doctor.
In preparation for this field, he has been working at Manchester Memorial Hospital as an aide during his spare time for the past year.
AL MILES, who was a member of the Student Council, National Honor Society, Science Club and Latin Club. His high school achievements and excellent record in both scholarship and business ability were the basis for McCurry's nomination as winner of the Spellacy Award.
The award was originated in 1957 after an alert Courant newspaper reporter spelled Spellacy's home from destruction by fire. He discovered smoke coming from the Spellacy residence, alerted the family, turned in an alarm, and directed the firemen to the scene of the blaze.

Taft-Hartley Repeal By Congress Unlikely

By JAMES MARLOW AP News Analyst

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—When politicians like former President Truman promise repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act if the Democrats win this year, it is strictly pre-theater stuff. Labor leaders know better.

Although top AFL-CIO leaders yesterday recommended that the big labor organization endorse the Democratic presidential ticket, one thing can be predicted with certainty: No matter which party wins this election, Democrats or Republicans, T-H will not be repealed.

Truman made an effort to make good on his T-H repeal promise of the 1948 election. It was a new step. An amendment, eliminating a vote requirement for union shop contracts, was passed in 1947. It ended all hope of repeal under Truman. There were no changes while the Republicans ran Congress in 1952-54. Eisenhower in 1954 recommended 14 changes. The House passed recommendations, but the Senate, who have controlled Congress since 1955, have fought neither for repeal nor for changes.

Why then did the AFL-CIO Executive Council vote 175 to 10 to recommend that the 15 million members back the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket? Mean's explanation: 1. Organized labor has more friends among Democrats than Republicans. 2. The labor leaders favoring endorsement argued it would weaken the cause of other Democratic candidates (meaning those running for congressional, state and local offices) if the AFL-CIO gave no formal support to the top of the ticket.

Truman Made Attempt In 1949 the Truman administration made an effort to make good on its T-H repeal promise of the 1948 election. It was a new step. An amendment, eliminating a vote requirement for union shop contracts, was passed in 1947. It ended all hope of repeal under Truman. There were no changes while the Republicans ran Congress in 1952-54. Eisenhower in 1954 recommended 14 changes. The House passed recommendations, but the Senate, who have controlled Congress since 1955, have fought neither for repeal nor for changes.

Truman's latest promise of repeal was made in his speech at the Democratic convention in Chicago. But, since he's out of office, he couldn't do more than to bring it about, even if the Democrats won this year. One AFL-CIO man who knows Congress well says: "The politicians don't kid us. We can't expect repeal until we again get a Congress like the one we had in 1955."
