Hot Shooting Manchester Drops Bristol for Ninth Straight

Five Regulars

Manchester High basketball Manchester High basketball quintet, hitting on 28 of 65 field goal attempts (43 per cent), 17 for 33 in a big first half, massacred a veteran Bristol array 72-52 last night before a standing room crowd of 1,200 at the Bell Town Armory. It marked the ninth straight suc-cess for the unbeaten Indians who checked a Bristol two-game win-ning streak while handing the hapless Rams their fourth setback in eight outings. There was little doubt about the There was little doubt about the final outcome as the sharpshooting Red and White shot into a 19-16 lead at the end of the opening quarter. The classy victors upped their margin to 42-49 at halftime and remained out front 54-41 at the three-quarter mark.
