U.S. Gets Red Mideast Plan

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Washington, April 20 (AP)—State Department officials promised a careful study today of Russia's latest proposal for dealing with the Middle East, probably will lead to a reply by the middle of next week. In this connection, informants said that the State Department modified its plan as far as key points, although he was reportedly made some revisions. Diplomats said these could be considered favorable in the sense of providing a little more assurance to users of the oil fields that they could be treated fairly.

Former Suitor Kills Girl in Church, Self

Cove, Ark., April 20 (AP)—Mortgage agent Fred H. Blake shot and killed the girl he had just proposed to marry in a church here last night. Six pistol shots blasted the Holy Week service, and the 29-year-old girl fell fatally wounded. Blake, 35, was arrested by police here today. He was charged with the murder of the girl, who was 25 years old. Blake also shot himself in the chest. He was taken to a hospital in Little Rock, Ark., where he is expected to die.

About Town

The Women's League of the Second Congregational Church will have a meeting at the church Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. One of the matters of business will be the election of officers for the year. Women of the church who would like to join will be welcome to attend.

Heard Along Main Street

No Job Too Big: As spring advances, the need for more workers is being felt. One of the ways in which this need is being met is by the use of temporary help. This is especially true in the case of the construction industry. Many of the men who are working on the new buildings are on temporary contracts. This allows them to work for a few months and then return to their regular jobs. It is a very flexible system and one that is being used more and more.

Moodus Man Hurt In Auto Mishap

Coverly, April 20 (Special)—A Moodus man suffered moderate injuries yesterday when his car was operating at a parking lot. The man, who is 31, was driving a 1956 Ford. He was struck by a car which was backing out of a parking space. The driver of the other car was not injured. The man was taken to the hospital and is expected to be out in a few days.

Three Services Easter Morning

Easter morning will be observed at three identical services in the Manchester area. The services will be held at the First Congregational Church, the Second Congregational Church, and the Third Congregational Church. Each service will begin at 10 o'clock and will feature a special Easter service. The churches are all located in the downtown area of Manchester.

These two hippopotamuses at the Dallas, Texas zoo demonstrate the capacity of their buccal cavities as feeding time nears. As yet unnamed, they are recent arrivals at the zoo.

Dissolution of IBC Asked in U.S. Court

New York, April 20 (AP)—The court proposed dissolution of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, Inc. (IBB) in a suit filed in the U.S. District Court in New York. The suit was filed by the IBB's former president, who claims that the organization is financially insolvent and that its assets are being mismanaged. The court is expected to rule on the matter in the near future.

Nabulsi Hits Interfering In Jordan

Beirut, Lebanon, April 22 (AP)—Nabulsi, a leading Arab leader, today said that the United States should stop interfering in the affairs of the Arab world. He said that the United States has been interfering in the affairs of the Arab world for many years and that this interference has done nothing to help the Arab people. He called for a new approach to the Arab world, one that is based on respect for the sovereignty of the Arab nations.

Sail on, Sail on, Pilgrims Free Into History

St. Stevens, England, April 22 (AP)—Pilgrims from the United States are sailing today on a ship bound for the Holy Land. The ship is carrying a large number of pilgrims who are going to the Holy Land to see the sites of the life of Jesus Christ. The ship is expected to arrive in the Holy Land in a few days.

Dulles Tells Soviet U.S. Seeks 'Liberation of Captive Nations'

New York, April 22 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today told the Soviet Union that the United States seeks the "liberation of captive nations." He said that the United States is committed to the principle of self-determination for all peoples and that it will support any effort to free the captive nations. He said that the United States is not interested in the internal affairs of the Soviet Union, but that it is interested in the freedom of the captive nations.
