Foreign Aid To Face Ax In Congress

Washington, May 20 (AP)—The administration's embattled $3,880,000,000 foreign aid program is expected to face a sharp axe in Congress today to a Congress high in an economy war.

President Truman is expected to send Congress a message today and follow it up with a national TV radio plea tomorrow night.

Secretary of State Dulles will take over Wednesday as the lead-off witness at a hearing of public hearings by the senate foreign relations committee.

Eisenhower has scaled down his original request for $4,000,000,000 by $1,120,000,000.

A special Senate committee which is studying the aid program urged that the aid be cut by $1,120,000,000.

Secretary of State Dulles will take over Wednesday as the lead-off witness at a hearing of public hearings by the senate foreign relations committee.

Many Thanks!

Many thanks to the South Manchester Fire Dept. personnel for their quick response to the sprinkler alarm last night. The speedy, efficient work of the department personnel afforded our serious damage.
