Girard Case Clouding U.S.-Jap. Relations

Members of Congress and the Japanese government have been discussing the case for several months.

The case involves the arrest of a Japanese citizen in the United States and the subsequent trial.

The Japanese government has expressed its concern over the case and has demanded a full investigation.

The United States government has stated that it will conduct a thorough investigation into the case.

The case has caused a significant amount of diplomatic friction between the two nations.

It is expected that the case will continue to be a major point of contention for some time.

The Japanese government has threatened to take further action if the case is not resolved.

The United States government has promised to provide a full and complete report on the case.

The case has also caused a significant amount of public concern in both nations.

It is hoped that a peaceful resolution can be reached between the two nations.

Sheinwold on Bridge

CAREFUL TIMING DEFEATS CONTRACT—South was very quick in today's hand. To begin with, the cards were stacked badly against West.

West opened with the ace of spades and South followed with his king. The average player might not lead a diamond from the East hand.

Others considered both Japan and America to keep cool and wait for the right moment to strike.

The big Tokyo newspaper, "The Asahi," has reported that the Japanese government has expressed its concern over the case.

The United States government has stated that it will conduct a thorough investigation into the case.

Major Violence Perils Bid to Ease Haiti Clash

Port Au Prince, Haiti, May 24 (AP)—The Army's efforts to restore order to Haiti and prevent the clash between the two factions.

The political parties who organized the strike in Port Au Prince seemed to be in a state of confusion.

While the followers of Dejean and Pignole predicted they would break the strike, the followers of the other faction predicted they would not.

The strike has caused a significant amount of diplomatic friction between the two nations.

Senate Passes Bill to Speed Punishment for Criminals

Manchest. May 24 (AP)—Legislative dispatch. "Flur" told the Senate aimed at speeding up punishment of criminals, condemned murderers included, was passed by the State Senate yesterday.

The chairman of the General Law Committee, Sen. John H. Piper (R-Hamden), said the legislation would have two purposes.

1. It would reduce "unconscionable" appeals in criminal matters.
2. It would stop delays "in the execution of sentences."

Both measures were passed unanimously.

They provide that when a judge denies freedom to an accused in habeas corpus proceedings or refuses a new trial, the accused can't appeal to the Supreme Court unless the trial judge or a Superior Court judge rules that a question is involved which "ought to be reviewed."

"It is obvious that a judicial system to be entirely effective must produce justice with reason-

Police Lack Clue On Two Seamen

Windham, May 24 (AP)—State Police officials today said they don't even have a "lead" in their search for two merchant seamen from Upper New York State.

The men, charged with robbery with violence are John Donaldson, 35, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., and Charles McNally, 40, of Massena, N. Y.

Police said they found Hollis W. Hendrick, 35, of Russell, N. Y., in a bar in Russell on Monday night.

Hendrick was found after an hour hunt by the neck, to the tree with a cloth tied. He had been beaten about the face and head with rocks, police said. His injuries are not serious.

Hendrick told police he met the two seamen in a bar in Russell earlier the same night. He said the two men promised to get him to the State Police.

Maibie sent his views in a letter dated March 13 and was read to the Senate.

Maibie stressed that the legislation does not jeopardize the right of the innocent to the full protection of the law.

Hal Boyle Panty Raid Time Again; But Why?

By CYNTHIA LOWRY (For Hal Boyle)

New York, May 24 (AP)—Here we are in the silly season, with the youth of the nation erupting in seemingly senseless panty raids, bra- and cop-fighting.

This week for example, several hundred male Columbia University students marched on a dormitory housing students of Barnard College, shouting and chanting as women's college shouting "Panty Raid" but retreated before a station of police squad cars.

At Barnard, this week, the locked-in girls participated in the extent of jostling at the milling mob below, tossing some undergarments to the jocks and later looting water-filled paper bags at the police who were trying to control the high spirits.

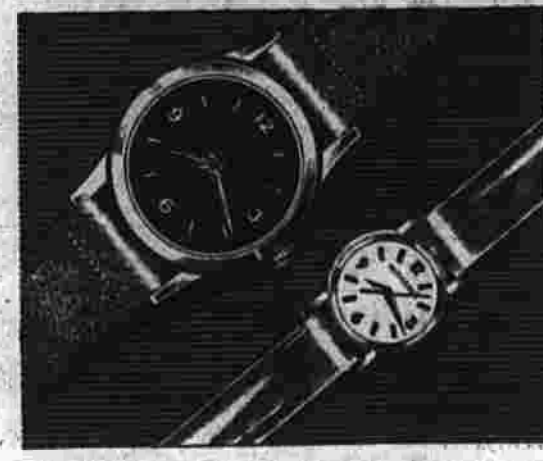

The Dallas episode, however, were unreasonably chilly to the raiders. Last year they not only donned undergarments, but some enthusiastic looters unlocked the dormitory doors.

"Usually," said Dr. Parkham, "the girls get into the nonsense just as much as the boys do. It's quite clear that everybody involved recognizes the sexual symbolism mixed up in all this. What is a panty raid except another expression of the older ones of receiving a lady's glove or handkerchief as a token of favor? You know, tournament jousting and all that sort of thing."

What to do about it? "I don't know," said Dr. Parkham. "It's pretty primitive stuff."

Mothers Circles Hold Holy Hour

The Annual Holy Hour sponsored by Combined Catholic Mothers' Circles held Wednesday evening in St. James Church was attended by over 200 members of the Holy Hour.

The Very Rev. Leo J. Corbett, S.S.E., Superior of the Novitiate of the Society of St. Edmund, conducted the Holy Hour. Father Corbett's excellent sermon dealt with the fact that today people are more and more concerned with the material things in life and are continually seeking when they should instead try to find gratification in a more spiritual life.

The Rev. Francis Butler, of the Church of the Assumption and Chairman of Mothers' Circles, presided in the rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Mother. After the service the Blessed Sacrament was served by the Rev. John F. Hanson pastor of St. James Church. Mrs. Ralph MacCarone presided at the organ.

Directly after the Holy Hour the annual meeting was held in St.

Nose Tube Used To Feed Striker

Danbury, May 24 (AP)—A Brooklyn, N. Y., pacifist on the 12th day of a hunger strike, is getting the equivalent of three meals a day in the hospital at the federal penitentiary in Danbury, Conn.

Seymour Reich, 26, refuses to eat through a nose tube, said Warden Harold E. Hegstrom.

Reich was brought to Danbury Tuesday from the federal detention headquarters in New York where he began the hunger strike in a protest against being vaccinated.

Hegstrom said his condition is good.

He was sentenced last Dec. 27 to a year and a day for refusing to register for the draft.

His father, Julius, served two years in prison for refusal to register for the draft during World War I. His mother, Esther, pocketed the White House Monday, seeking her son's freedom.

Church Unit Sets Mission Dinner

Gross Captures Fourth Mound Win for Redlegs

New York, May 24 (AP)—One thing about Don Gross, the young Cincinnati left-hander may not win 'em all, but he hasn't lost one for the Redlegs since 1955. The 23-year-old southpaw has been the pitcher of record only eight times in his last 29 appearances in the majors.

Gross was 19 games last season and wound up with a 3-0 record.

Last night, he made it 4-0 for 37 in his eighth appearance of the season, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 6-0.

Gross was 19 games last season and wound up with a 3-0 record.

Akins Favorite In Teevee Bout With Becham

A five-run third inning, with only one run earned, carried the Redlegs to their 11th victory in the last 22 games and dropped the Cardinals into sixth place. Manager Fred Hutchinson took up his long-riding fight to beat Becham in the 11th inning, but the Redlegs were unable to do so.

Becham, who had pitched a two-run game and had been the fourth victory over the Cards in his 44th start.

Gross gave up only three runs in a two-run game and had been the fourth victory over the Cards in his 44th start.

Stan Hilinski Medalist at Country Club

Showing the boys how it's done, Stanley Hilinski of the Manchester Country Club finished a 40-30 70 round to win the medalist honors in the first annual Manchester Invitational Golf Tournament yesterday at the local club.

Bob Feller, the one-time speed ball pitcher who came off the farm at Van Meter, Iowa, two years ago to pitch some great ball for the Cleveland Indians, was in Hartford on June 18 to compete in a baseball clinic at Weaver High School. Now retired from the pros, Feller is keeping his hand in our national pastime by working with the Motorola Co. His Hartford appearance, which has been sponsored by Graybill & Lyons, the clinic open to all youngsters, will start at 3:30 at Weaver.
