policy and not free press of opinion, and the President's contribution to the nation's welfare as a national leader has been his large-mindedness, his tolerance of the views of others, his reverence for and his use of that open climate of opinion which is the hallmark of a free society. But yesterday, as we say, he was out of character.

The Gap-In The Pact
 Is potential aggression any less evil when it happens to a less powerful nation?
 The question continues to plague the special military alliances we have set up around the world, for the specific purpose of resisting potential Communist aggression.

Connecticut Yankee
 By A. H. O.
 The long succession of recorded votes on the school bus issue represents one of the most bewildering mashing of ultimate intentions ever staged by a legislative house. But we are not arguing over how it finally did reveal itself, it shed some logic back over the preceding confusion.

Out Of Character
 President Eisenhower, whose press conferences have developed into one of the great public forums of our time, and whose performance at these press conferences has done more than any other single thing to impinge upon our leadership and establish his own stature, had a bad day yesterday.

He had a bad day because his worst moments came when he seemed to meet at the same time the scientist who has been voicing opinions on the dangers of atomic fall-out.

It is in many instances that seem to be out of their own field of competence, and it looks like almost an organized affair.

Later on, the President amended his inference, by conceding that "there are as many of those people just as honest as you can be."

"Well now," said the President, "let's take a look at this commercial firm in this country, trying to improve its own commercial standing, and to use its effort to get someone that was really made a unique performance in front of our people, and he would do that because this is a free country."

Then the President went on to say that he would be willing to have someone from the administration go on Russian TV, if the opportunity were offered, and if the Russians would guarantee that, among other things, they wouldn't put up counter-attacks on the people away from their radios.

"Well, I am not willing to give an opinion on that one. He should have been willing. He should, further, have been aware that the Khrushchev interview, when presented in this country, was up against "counter-attractions" of the most popular kind, including Sunday afternoon ball games. But especially the President should not have entered at the news enterprise which did give the Russian leader facing the give and take of a press conference before the American people. This was an excellent part of the better exchange and understanding the President himself had advocated in his better moments, and contributed to himself in many significant ways.

had lost strength. And now it seemed dead. Then a petition to force the bill out had an easy time of it, gaining the needed 140 signatures. But whatever we call it, there is no doubt it is unique, and, when we get to the end of the road, it is merely meant that 140 people believed it ought to be debated and voted upon directly.

Attorney's rights taken away from him," Carroll said.
Turning Girard over to the Japanese for trial, Carroll said, would "set a principle that will apply to every country in the world, even Saudi Arabia where a boy's stealing 50 cents has his hands cut off or his ears cut off."
Other Attorney Oliver Grah deplored Carroll's contention that the shooting occurred on the military base. He said it occurred on a maneuver area used by both U.S. and Japanese forces and where Japanese were allowed to farm when it was not in actual use.

Ribicoff Hails, Hits Assembly

Depl. "was the brain child of Jerry Beatty."
He also praised Sen. Florence Ribicoff, D-Connecticut, chairman of the Senate side of Beatty's committee.
Ribicoff said he will not appoint the seven members of the new state Mental Health Council, created in the bill without first consulting Beatty and Mrs. Finney.
He also praised as having made "outstanding contribution" to the legislative session Sen. Newman Marcellus (R-Trumbull), co-chairman of the House and Bridges Committee, and the co-chairman of the Public Welfare Committee, Sen. Joseph Colby (R-Newtown) and Rep. James Madigan (R-Guilford).

MMH Serves Patients from Many Towns

The automobile age, which has transformed the face of the nation with highways, superhighways and thruways, has had its effect on the modern community hospital.
As distances have dwindled the "community" served by the hospital has grown ever more inclusive.
Elmer A. Welden, president of Manchester Memorial Hospital, today said that a recently completed analysis of where the hospital's patients come from shows more than 20 towns at varying distances from Manchester regularly represented. Among them are Andover, Bolton, Broad Brook, Colchester, Coventry, Ellington, East Hartford, Gilead, Hebron, Gladstone, Rockville, Shelton, Somers, Storrs, Talcottville, Westford, Windsor, East Windsor, East Windsor Hill and South Windsor.

Army Seeking Role In Satellite Project

200 miles and gave the Air Force money to develop an intermediate range missile. Army missile fuel will run out in November, and the service is trying hard to overturn the Willson order.
The Air Force reportedly has fired three of its Thor IRBM's. The Army scientist said one Thor traveled three feet off the launching platform, another flew an undisturbed distance out of control and had to be exploded, while the third flew up while being fueled.
There have been no reported test firings of a fully equipped Vanguard which is to be a Stage rocket on the order of the Army's Thor missile.
While there have been no indications publicly that the Army is going to take over the Vanguard project, it is known that the project is being transferred to the Army agency at Huntsville in the past several weeks.
The Earth satellite program is part of the International Geophysical Year which opens on July 1 and runs for 18 months. Some 40 nations are participating in the IGY to collect additional information on the Earth and the space around it.
The satellite six axes to be launched by the United States will carry scientific instruments to study the Earth's atmosphere and to retransmit the globe.

South Windsor Planners Set To Consider Pola Vacancy

South Windsor, June 6 (Special)—The Planning and Zoning Commission will meet Friday at 8:45 p.m. in the Town Hall to select a replacement for Henry J. Zola, Democratic member of the Commission, who has resigned.

The Democratic Town Committee has suggested David Smith, former chairman of the Commission, to fill the vacancy. It is expected that Smith's name will be considered, although the Commission has the power to name its own replacement.

150 Attend Testimonial
The testimonial dinner, and dance honoring Principal Walter Voight and four teachers, held Tuesday night at Wapping School, was attended by 150 persons.

Voight, whose resignation became effective at the end of the school year, will become a member of the Ridgefield school system in the fall. He was presented a desk set by Judy Hull, representing Wapping pupils, and a briefcase by Mrs. C. Edward Manning, representing the Wapping PTA.

Mrs. Mildred Sessions, Mrs. Agnes David, Mrs. Ernestine Sullivan and Mrs. Lillian Mayo were presented with certificates and individual gifts in recognition of ten years or more of service in the Wapping School system.

Gifts were also presented to Mrs. Mary Collins, who has resigned as music supervisor, to Mrs. Manning for her services to the PTA for many years; and to Joseph Miles, treasurer of the evening, for his services as former president of the PTA and program chairman this year.

Mrs. Paul Hull, Board of Education member, installed the following officers during the business meeting: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weber, co-presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Foster, vice-presidents; Mrs. Edward Concoran, secretary; and William Procho, treasurer.

It was announced that the PTA has purchased for the school $200 worth of auto-vacuums, including film strips and phonograph records.

Speakers during the evening were: Dr. Joseph Miles, Chairman of the Board of Education; Mrs. Thomas Weber, co-president; Mrs. Walter G. Foster, vice-president; Mrs. Edward Concoran, secretary; and William Procho, treasurer.

Residents Invited to Open House
An open house will be held this Sunday in two East Hartford schools of the type described to residents at Monday night's open hearing of the Board of Finance.

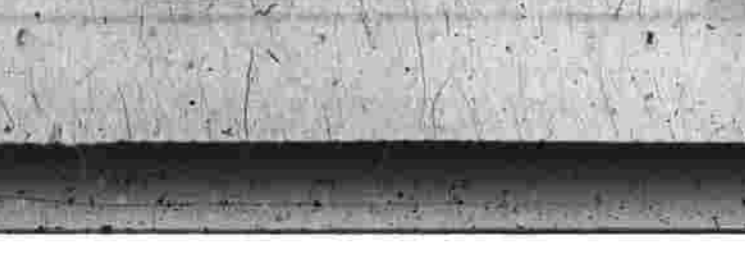

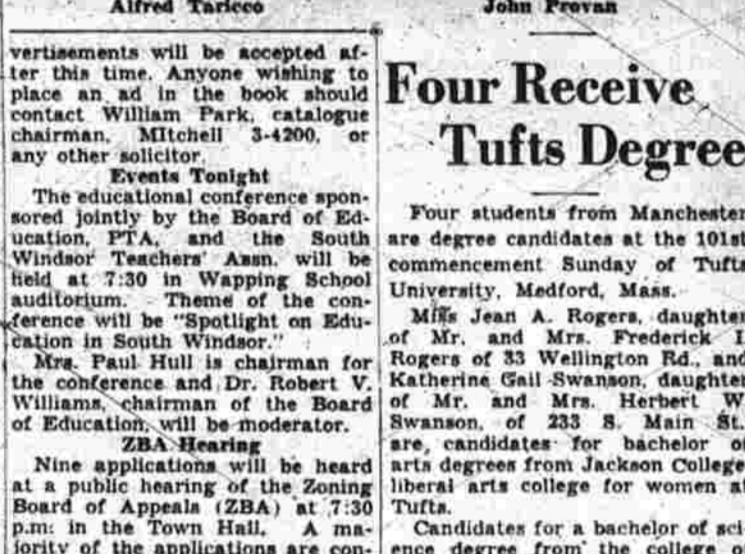

Board chairman John Madden has announced that those interested may see the "low cost neighborhood schools" Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

The schools, which opened this spring, are the Anne E. Norris School in the North End and the Percival S. Barnes School at May Rd. in the northeast section.

These are the schools to which the Finance Board referred in its comparative study presented at Monday's hearing, when the opinion was expressed that the town could build two such schools here at a considerable saving over the cost of the school proposed by the School Building Committee.

Special Meeting
A special town meeting has been called by the Board of Selectmen for Monday night at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall to consider the authorization of a special session to make new voters on June 15 at the Town Hall from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

New residents will be afforded an opportunity to become voters before the referendum on June 22 when they will decide whether South Windsor will have a representative town meeting government. The referendum will be held at Wapping School from 12 noon to 9 p.m.

White Satin Ribbon, Candlelight and Butterflies

Candlelight gleams on white satin ribbon. And only the way the bride's bouquet trembles... only the way the groom nervously straightens his tie... tells the secret of the butterflies fluttering in their hearts as they start out on one of life's greatest adventures.

Whether or not the young couple lives happily ever after usually depends on how successfully they meet and share the problems of everyday living. And not the least of these problems is financial. A family's sound financial standing depends as much upon a woman's ability to manage money as it does her husband's ability to make it. And a family savings program is as much the wife's responsibility as it is her husband's.

Many young couples today are working towards financial security by investing regularly in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. It's the easiest way to save—and one of the safest.

New Savings Bonds are better than ever! Every Series E Savings Bond purchased since February 1, 1937, pays 3 1/2% interest when held to maturity. It pays higher interest, too, in the earlier years, and matures in only 8 years and 11 months. Now, more than ever, it's smart to save with guaranteed-safe U. S. Savings Bonds. Buy them regularly where you bank or through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Executive Sessions Scored, Flaherty, Stiles Take Walk

Rockville, June 6 (Special)—Two Democratic members of the Board of Education walked out of an executive session last night protesting the closed meeting voted by a majority of the Board. Atty. Leo B. Flaherty Jr. and William B. Stiles, Jr. voiced objections to the executive session which both claimed should be open since public matters were to be discussed.

The vote to close the meeting, held after the regular Board meeting was along party lines, 5 to 3, with the Democrats opposed. Alder Brooks, the other Democrat, voted with Stiles and Flaherty. Flaherty also called attention to the fact that the executive session would extend beyond the established time for adjournment, 10:15 P.M.

The crisis of the differences was a request by Mrs. Helen Abura for recognition on the Master's Degree salary schedule. Such recognition would increase her salary by $200. Hahn contended that the item involved personalities and should be discussed in secret.

Flaherty countered with an opinion that the item appeared to be a matter of fact rather than personality. He stated that Board members should be informed of the reasons for closing a meeting to the public and press. Until those reasons are made known to me I will not participate and I am adjourning," he stated, and left.

Flaherty had warned the Board that it would be setting a very dangerous precedent by closing the session. Activities of the Board are of concern to the people in the community, he said. He added that he didn't see any reason for closing last month's meeting to discuss some of the items listed on the agenda. The meeting was closed to the press with several items remaining on the agenda, after Atty. Flaherty, an advocate of open meetings, had to leave for another engagement. Stiles was not present at the May meeting.

This morning, Stiles released a printed statement voting his opinion on the closed session. He said: "Last night's meeting was an extremely unfortunate occurrence for several reasons. As a matter of principle, public hearings should be held on all matters of public interest. This position has been buttressed by the recent passage of a relevant law by the State Legislature. Stiles was referring to the General Assembly 'Right to Know' bill passed in the last session. However, this bill states that a board can go into executive session provided a majority of its members vote to do so. Stiles went on: "Our school system's relations with the public that supports it have been excellent until now. Hiding their eyes closed doors to make decisions can only damage the feeling of confidence shown in recent town meetings and referendums."

"As a matter of common courtesy, all Board members should have been told the reason for this executive session. Until now the Board of Education has functioned as a cooperative group of individuals and all of us have had the opportunity to have a hand in making decisions. I do not intend to be done now to be gagged and steamrolled."

Before the secret session, the Board decided to continue permitting youth and community project groups including P.T.A. to use the school building and facilities. However, it set a rental fee of $25 per night for other groups. All users will be responsible for the custodial fee of $5 for the first three hours and $2 per additional hour of fraction thereof.

Police or constable service is required and must be paid for by the user. Other rules adopted for use of school buildings include the following: No games of chance will be permitted; no smoking except in areas specifically designated; requests for use of gymnasium, cafeteria, shower rooms and grounds are to be made in writing at least 14 days prior to date of use; to the principal of the school. Applicants will be held responsible for any damage to the school or property, and the Board will not be responsible for any damage, loss or injury to persons.

White's Bid Accepted
The Board voted to accept a bid of Luther A. White Inc. for school furniture. The firm bid $4,583.25 to equip about 11 classrooms. Their bid was the fourth lowest submitted, but the Board decided to accept the White bid after examining furniture samples presented.

The school budget, copies of which were presented to the Board last night, will be taken up at a special meeting. The budget totals $872,237 and is $127,047 over last year's. However, if the Selectmen assume the costs for health services, the budget would be reduced to $852,192. Board members have indicated a willingness to assume these costs.

The higher budget for next year is due mainly to increased salaries and the addition of 10 new teachers to handle increased enrollment. This year's enrollment increased about 215 pupils over last year's. When school opens in September, an additional 267 pupils are expected, bringing the total enrollment to about 2,900.

Principal Allen J. Dresser presented a plan that may increase the number of seniors participating in the Washington, D.C. trip for the next two years, but will ultimately end the trip. Dresser suggested that the classes of 1938 and 1939 be required to have at least 75 per cent participation in the trip with all dues for the trip paid up. Failure to do so would mean that the class would be ineligible for the trip and it would be canceled.

The present Freshman class, which has not yet started collecting dues toward the trip, would not do so, he said. The Board made no objection to his plan, which stemmed from the fact that only 50 per cent of the class took the trip this year. The Farm League was granted permission to use the Northeast School baseball field two nights per week during the summer.

A system adopted by the Selectmen requiring two signatures on checks was accepted by the Board. The assistant treasurer, and the superintendent of schools were authorized to sign checks, along with the selectmen.

Remember? Parents Criticize Lunch Program, Meeting Monday

New York, June 6 (AP)—This was D-Day just 15 years ago. The long-awaited mass invasion of Hitler's Fortress Europe across the English Channel started at precisely 6:30 a.m. Greenwich Mean time as the first Allied troops stormed ashore on the beaches of Normandy from LST's and LVT's. The planes dropped paratroopers from the skies. There were 1,400 American and 1,000 British bombers in the assault along a 60-mile front. The available landpower was 2,576,439 men in 20 U.S. divisions, 14 Canadian, 1 French and 1 Polish. Facing them were 45 German divisions, entrenched all the way to Berlin.

The final results of D-Day were achieved 11 months and 2 days later with German capitulation at 5:01 a.m. May 8. Ellington and had been a tobacco grower in East Windsor for many years. He leaves four sisters, all of Hartford.

The funeral was held from Ahefn Funeral Home, Hartford at 8 a.m. with a requiem Mass at St. Catherine Church, Brook Brook. Burial was in St. Catherine's Cemetery. Fred W. Rabe, Fred W. Rabe, 83, of East Hartford died yesterday at Hartford Hospital after a short illness. Born in Rockville April 27, 1874, a son of the late John and Lina Rabe, he lived 50 years in Hartford before moving to East Hartford in 1917. A veteran musician, he worked more than 50 years in greater Hartford for the Empire Laundry Co. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Ida Glazier, wife of East Hartford, a daughter, Mrs. Ernest V. Anderson, East Hartford; three sisters, Mrs. Rose Horan and Miss Minnie Huber, both of East Hartford; and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of this city; three grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Newburis and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burdette Ave., East Hartford. Burial will follow in Grove Hill Cemetery in this town. Friends may call at the funeral home to-day and Friday from 7 to 10 p.m.

Ziemak in Poland Visiting Mother

John S. Ziemak, 36 Cooper Hill St., is visiting his mother in Poland. It is the first time in 32 years that he has seen her. Ziemak was born in the United States and when he was still a small boy, his family returned with him to Poland. At 16, the United States offered a challenge and an opportunity to him and he left his family for New York, where he began a series of jobs that eventually led him to Manchester and his present business, the Hartford Road Restaurant and Grill. When he first arrived in New York, he worked as a mechanic and soon invested in a taxi service. In 1927, Ziemak married his wife Eleanor, a Bronx girl, and they made their home in the Bronx until a few years after the birth of their first son, Donald. Ziemak left Idlewild International Airport, New York, April 26, and is expected to return about June 15.

Teachers Add Games
New Haven, June 6 (AP)—New Haven State Teachers College has added Long Bridge Union and Norwich University in its basketball schedule for the 1937-38 season. The Teachers, who had a 16-4 record last season, will play 20 games in the next.

Sense and Nonsense

How Did Maine Originate? Maine, the largest New England State in area, is believed to have received its name from the ancient practice by that name in France, but nobody knows just when or by whom the name was suggested. On sixteenth-century maps, Newfoundland was used to designate an indefinite region on the northeastern coast of North America. The origin of the name is not known. Some authorities have traced the name to the name of a French explorer, who came to "La Terre de la Nouvelle France" by the early Norsemen. The first French explorer and settler seen to have applied Acadia, Maine and several other names to a vast region in New France that included the present territory of Maine. Some suppose the region was called "le Main" or "the Mainland" to distinguish it from the island of Newfoundland.

High, Low Marks Of '57 Legislature

The hearing lasted seven hours. The committee eventually brought the bill out in a favorable report, and the House killed it by a comfortable margin. On the positive side, Republicans said the major part of their labor program was embodied in five bills, all of which became law.

Minimum Wage $1
They (1) boost the state's minimum wage to $1 from the former 75 cents; (2) increase workers' compensation benefits; (3) require labor unions to file regular financial reports and (4) provide for state supervision of employee welfare funds which are jointly administered by management and unions.

British Blast 'Clean,' Fallout Due in Year

After making the first flight into the cloud, he returned to base and told another air crew it was "O.K. to go in" to collect air samples.

Wilson is due to return to Christmas Island at the weekend. His report, believed to concentrate mainly on health dangers from fallout, will be sent to Prime Minister Macmillan and British nuclear chief Sir William Penney.

Claims Britain Leads
The newspaper's science reporter wrote that Britain has so far led the world in the development of its H-bomb, that there is no need for the government to go ahead with any further series of tests after the current one.

13 Dead, 25 Hurt In Single Collision

Joe Loak of Bridgewater, Pa., who was driving a truckload of potatoes, said he saw the collision in his rear-view mirror.

"I hurried back to try and help," he said. "It looked like a big ball of fire. Men, women and children—lying all over the highway."

"I think the impact killed them, not the fire."
