The delay was caused, she said, by action of the annual town budget meeting which requested the board of finance to refrain from setting the mill rate until it was known how much State Aid would be made available by action of the General Assembly.

Customarily, the mill rate has been set by the Board of Finance to an effective session immediately following the budget meeting and the rate has been announced that night.

The Finance Board acted to the effect of a week before the U.S. Supreme Court heard arguments in the first battle over whether the Japanese can try him for shooting the Japanese, and whether they should be permitted to remain in the camp.

Dr. Tzu Chin of the U.S. Public Health Service's Communicable Disease Center at Kansas City said the illness "is not serious, it runs about two days."

He said he saw "very little possibility of complication from permitting" the delegates to go home.

Assembly officials said parents of all those taken ill were to be notified.

The health commissioner said if the illness is diagnosed as an ordinary

Andover Late Tax Bills Due to Favor

Andover, July 2 (Special)—Tax bills which became due on July 1, have not yet been sent out to local residents, Mrs. Helen Parks, tax collector, said today.

The delay was caused, she said, by action of the annual town budget meeting which requested the board of finance to refrain from setting the mill rate until it was known how much State Aid would be made available by action of the General Assembly.

BAD TRUMP BEARS INSURERS STRANGE PLAY
By Alfred Sheinow

Today's board would present no problem if the trump broke normally. The bad break made it necessary for Mr. Barnett, of American, N. Y., to execute a very strange play to make his slam contract.

He very opened the king of clubs and Barnett ruffed. He led a trump to dummy's ace and followed with the king of trumps, discovering the low trump.

The scene was the annual tournament at the Astor-Coronet, which is to be conducted there again this weekend. Joe took a moment or two to plan his play, and the reader might do the same to find out how to make the slam.

Rockville Miss Fanning Chosen Agent For Tolland County Service

Rockville, July 2 (Special)—Miss Fanning has been appointed as Home Demonstration Agent for Tolland County Extension Service.

Miss Fanning, whose appointment was announced yesterday, is assuming the work of Miss Cora H. Webb who left two years ago.

The Home Demonstration Agent supplies information to the county making it available to all people in the county and works with 50 home-making groups.

Miss Fanning is in fact to set up a similar program there as part of the federal government's foreign aid program.

A graduate of the University of Connecticut, Miss Fanning has a B.S. degree in education and a teaching certificate in nutrition and clothing work.

Before her graduation last month, she participated in many activities on the campus. She served as a staff writer, assistant editor of the Connecticut Campus for four years, was a member of Psi Upsilon, Omicron for two years.

Miss Fanning is a native of Baltic.

Hospital Appointment
Mrs. Margaret D. Connor, Webber St., has been appointed assistant superintendent of Rockville City Hospital, according to an announcement today by Mrs. Lillian H. Yashuk, superintendent.

The appointment was effective yesterday.

Mrs. Connor, a graduate of St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing, has worked at the local hospital for 20 years. During the past 11 years she has been evening supervisor.

Mrs. Connor and her husband, Charles, have four children.

Blood Donor Day
Blood Donor Day has been set for July 18 here by the Red Cross. The bloodmobile will be at the Elks Club from 12:45 to 5:30 p.m. with Mrs. John Mason serving as captain. The day is a quota of 100 pints has been set by Red Cross officials.

At a meeting of the group of 21 and 60, weighing 150 pounds or over, and in good health, can donate blood. Red Cross officials announced today the appointment of an Atomic Energy Committee.

The action was taken to help maintain Connecticut's lead position in atomic energy.

The committee's duties will be to help advance the development of atomic energy for peaceful use and to consult with the Governor's Advisory Committee on Atomic Energy.

"Throughout the state, 31 districts now have radio laboratories for research and industrial applications," said Pillar, "and we are planning to set up similar programs in Connecticut by developing the use of atomic energy."

The similar Committee of Commerce will meet today at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Perazovska, 7 Ward St.

Shinn-Myers Wedding

Miss Judith Orton Meyer, daughter of Associate Justice Frederick M. Myers of the District Court of Central Massachusetts, was the bride of Dr. Byron John Shinn, M.D., of Bolton, at 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was held in the sunken garden at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Christian E. Jensen of the First Baptist Church of Bolton performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was given in betrothal by her mother, and waiting-maid, Miss Lillian Shinn, wore a white dress with a white sash and a white collar. She carried a bouquet of white flowers.

The bride's mother wore a gray dress with a white collar and a white sash. The bridegroom wore a white suit and a white tie.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Watrous Replies To Copp's Blast

Cheshire, July 2 (Special)—Rep. Claude Watrous (R-Cheshire), chairman of an Appropriations Committee subcommittee on fish and game, yesterday replied to a statement by Rep. Joseph P. Copp (D-Cheshire) who had charged that the committee was "not doing its job."

Watrous said that "those and other members who do not believe that the committee is doing its job should be removed from the committee."

Watrous said he was entirely willing to accept the responsibility for the committee's work, but that he was not the one to be removed.

He blasted Watrous and Rep. Robert Cohen (D-Cheshire) for a $30,000 increase in the amount of the commission to be spent during the summer for stocking fish and game, principally pheasants and trout.

When American youngsters approach 16 they itch to drive a car. Many itch pretty badly before this. However, the newspapers are full of stories of bad car accidents attributed to wild youth and families hesitate to let their young sons or daughters take out the family car. Yet some of the very best drivers on the road are in their late teens.

It is a basic principle in education that when an individual is to learn, that the best time to teach him, is when he is most receptive. For American driving has become a stage of development almost as basic as walking. Every child learns to walk when he is old enough to do so. He has a terrific urge to walk, and he practices and practices until all the power and joy of going places under his own steam is truly his.

So, almost, is the case of driving in our American society. Every boy and girl wants to drive and the vast majority of it gives them power and mobility and the sense of being grown up.

Safety First

But driving a car involves a lot more hazards than walking. We adults who stand on the sidelines must see to it that our children take this step in maturity well equipped with all the attributes of a good driver. One bad driver, whether they be young or old enough to know better, are those who lack the responsibility and judgment necessary to have the power of a modern automobile in their hands.

A child who looks forward to the time when the law says he is old enough to drive with the sure knowledge that he will be given the opportunity is not too likely to jump the gun and experiment with the family car or someone else's.

In some areas schools have taken over the job of teaching driving. They teach not only how to handle a car, but what to do when the hood is up and the engine is stalled. They also teach how to handle a car when it is stalled. They also teach how to handle a car when it is stalled.

Once a child has learned how

Norway to Process Data
Oslo—All meteorological data gathered throughout the Arctic during the International Geophysical Year will be processed and reported at a center to be opened this summer at the meteorological institute in Oslo. The work will be handled by a team of Norwegian meteorologists. The center will receive daily reports on observations at Arctic research stations operated by Norway, Sweden, the United States and Russia. After processing, the reports will be forwarded to the I. G. Y. world center in Geneva.

NEW VIGIL
Philadelphia, Miss., July 1—Chaplain Indiana are scanning skies over Neshoba County as did their ancestors. Instead of watching for smoke signals or signs of weather, the modern Chocawas are manning ground observer posts as airplanes spotters waiting for enemy aircraft.

Chair Patients Lifted
Rivers, Cal.—A Rivera manufacturing company has developed a hydraulic chair lift to help wheelchair patients take a bath. In practice, the patient rolls the wheelchair into the bathroom and slides from the chair onto the seat of the chair lift. Then, pressing a button, he is swung over on the seat and lowered into the tub. Pressing another button raises the seat, lifting the patient out of the tub and back into the wheelchair.

VITAL TIME
Charleston, W. Va., July 1—Several West Virginia cities changed to Eastern Daylight Time but the stock continues to operate on Eastern Standard Time in the Mountain State.

CALMING DOWN
Kalamazoo, Mich., July 1—Operational costs at the Kalamazoo State Hospital a mental institution, have been cut with "notable results" by the use of tranquilizing drugs. Window breakage by violent patients has been reduced, electro-shock treatments cut to less than a fourth of what they were and brain surgery all but eliminated.

INSURANCE LOANS RISE
New York—The nation's life insurance companies report that loans outstanding on policies they have issued totaled $3,000,000,000 at the start of 1957. This was $200,000,000 more than the year before, but was still only 4.1 per cent of the industry's total policy reserves.
