Hebron Motorist

Found Innocent Of Road Charge

An 18-year-old Hebron youth who appealed a Manchester town court conviction of reckless driving, was acquitted by a Common Pleas Court jury in Hartford yesterday.

Gerard A. Detrek was arrested here on May 25 following complaints by Anasid Heights residents that he had been racing around the area with another vehicle and had attracted their attention by the sound of his screeching tires.

Police were called and they arrested the youth when the driver Detrek had been chasing him. In court here, Detrek was found guilty of breach of the peace and reckless driving and was fined $38.

Detrek appealed and asked for a jury trial. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

In Common Pleas Court yesterday, Detrek denied the charges. He said that he had been driving only 15 miles an hour at the time. Following a short delay, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

CONTROL OF TRUMPS

In Key To Hand, by Alfred Sheinwold. "We missed the bid, partner," South announced loudly when he saw the dummy. "We're sold for a slam."

So saying, South proceeded to go down at his game contract. West opened the king of hearts and dummy ruffed. South now planned to draw three rounds of trumps and run the clubs.

South should take an insurance against a bad trump break. When he leads a trump from dummy at the second trick, he should play the nine of spades from his own hand.

Hodges Peacemaker In School Dispute

1932 in his first campaign for public office. He dropped into the governor's office in 1934 on the death of Gov. William B. Ussell and won a 4-year term in his own name, by an easy victory in last year's election.

Hodges, white-haired and dignified in his self-spoiled-yet-dynamic face, has worked unceasingly to build up North Carolina industrially and to reorganize state government on a more businesslike basis.

As governor, the segregation issue has taken up more of Hodges' time than any other problem, but he has dealt with the issue.

This plan substitutes a pupil assignment law enacted by the 1955 legislature. Under the assignment law, the power to assign children to schools was turned over to local school boards.

Hodges said that "any substantial integration—but only a limited station-Salem admitted a handful of Negro children to all-white schools."

I WANT TO IMPROVE MY FINANCIAL POSITION. GUY NOW!

THE AGE WE LIVE IN IS FULL OF MODERN GADGETS BY THE SCORE. YOU PUSH A BUTTON AND RECLINE, AND GADGETS DO MOST ANY CHORE. THEY WANT YOUR CLOTHES AND CLEAN YOUR FLOOR. THEY TAKE YOU WITH A MEETRY TIME. AND SCIENCE SAYS IT IS THE SCIENCE OF THE FUTURE. BUT THERE'S ONE THING THEY CAN'T REPLACE. THE OLD FASHIONED FINANCIAL WIZARD.

THE DOLL'S PARADE. Then music lessons were the envy and children "took" in every home. The children listened with a smile to tunes played to a metronome. But now we get our music canned on TV-recording radio. Gone is the good old "family" band, where the Pa's fiddle always stole the show. Let's bring the music teacher back. Start up the dusty metronome. And let us make our own sound track of family music—right at home.—Karl Plaster.

Education Wing Considered By Congregational Church

Bolton, Sept. 27 (Special)—The Advisory Council of the Congregational Church has named an educational building study committee. The group is to study and plan for a badly needed addition to the use of the church school.

The duties of the newly organized committee are to assess the needs of such an addition in terms of the present and future, to study material that is available, and to visit neighboring churches where similar problems have been solved. The Council has suggested to the congregation that it be held Oct. 2 at 8 p.m. in the parish room of the church.

Serving on the committee will be Mrs. Leslie Bolton, Mrs. Louis Pimock, Jr., H. C. Hutchinson, Mrs. James Kendall, Mrs. Oscar Krueger, Mrs. John Swanson, Jr., and Adolph Roberts.

John Rogers, church school superintendent, and the Rev. Mr. Chandler are members ex-officio.

Bills the American Association for the Deaf and Blind, which was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Sumner on Oct. 6 at 2 p.m. Resolutions are being taken.

On Nov. 8, Mrs. James Kendall of Bradley St. will open her home for a similar party.

On Oct. 14 the Society will sponsor a top party in the parish room of the church. Toys will be displayed and orders taken for later delivery. The public is invited.

Workshop Set For Teachers

All elementary school teachers in Manchester will attend a reading workshop on Oct. 9 in the auditorium of Varplanck School at 1:30 p.m. Elementary schools will close at 12:45 to permit the teachers to attend, according to Raymond D. Stinchfield, assistant superintendent of schools.

Miss Elizabeth Sylvester, educational consultant to Glau Publishing Co., will conduct the workshop. She will stress the use of the schools will close at noon, no lunches will be served and the buses will run on an earlier schedule.

PHNA Drive Starts Oct. 1

Mrs. Cain Mahoney, drive chairman, reports that the Drive for funds of the Manchester Public Health Nursing Assn. will begin Oct. 1 and will continue through the month.

A group of 22 Manchester women, headed by Mrs. Walter Gorman, president, made up the board of directors of the Manchester Public Health Nursing Assn. These women give their time and talents so that Manchester people may have available the services of this organization.

The association hires five registered nurses, four field workers, one nursing supervisor and a secretary. Any Manchester resident who needs professional nursing care in his home may request a call from these visiting nurses. A small fee is charged for this care, but no fee is turned down because of inability to pay.

In addition to home care, free clinic services are given by this association in the clinic rooms at Manchester Memorial Hospital. A patient must be referred by his family physician for both of these services.

Hartford Owls Favored To Turn Back Indians

Schoolboy grid fans will get their first glimpse of Manchester High tomorrow afternoon when Coach Walker Briggs unveils his 1957 Indians against favored Hartford High at Mt. Nebro. Dwight Perry, faculty manager, reports that all home games this season will start at 2 o'clock.

Indians who saw limited service last year and expected to play leading roles tomorrow against the Owls include Dave Sweeney, Bob Jacobs, John Campbell, Gil Boas, and Bob McIntosh. Sam Foster, Karl Reichert, Jim Moroney, Bill Lopez, Don Wright, Gil Pepin and Bob May.

First Varsity Competition

ported by a strong passing attack. Edna Correll, 11, Olive Rostato and the Red Indians are headed for a 20-7 margin.
