Was Covington Hero
Yankee Stadium—A fellow who wasn't with the club all season is the newest hero for the Milwaukee Braves in the 1957 World Series. Was Covington, a player who spent the summer with specialists in lashing out savage line drives to the opposite field, teams with Lou Burdette to give the Braves a 4-2 win over the New York Yankees yesterday to throw the series at a game apiece.

Simulated Braves Gain Confidence

Haney Names Bob Buhl To Oppose Bob Turley

Milwaukee, Oct. 4 (AP)—Back home with a split in the two games played at Yankee Stadium, the suddenly stimulated Milwaukee Braves, from Manager Fred Haney down, were confident today they would lead the New York Yankees although the odds-makers still made the pro-Yankee League chances eight to six favorite to capture their second straight World Series.

Michigan State Plays California on Tee-Vee

Michigan State plays California on Tee-Vee

New York, Oct. 4 (AP)—If there is trouble brewing for the nation's top 10 college football teams Saturday, it doesn't show in the overall scores of the ranked elevens and their opponents. In being undefeated in 14 games, the teams combined for 100 touchdowns and 1,000 points.

College Grid Powers Favored Saturday

College Grid Powers Favored Saturday

All three matches—Buffets over Cambridge, Cambridge over Reception and Reception over Reception—were decided by a 3-1 margin with the first two matches won by the hosts. It was a cool night and a stiff cold wind whipped across the field. The Braves' chivalrous pitcher, Bob Burdette, was warmed up by Bob Turley.
