Merchants Gain Revenge, Defeat Holyoke 2-1

Ivy League Crown At Stake Saturday

Boston, Oct. 28 (AP)—Undeclared Dartmouth awaits its sternest test to date against one-beaten Yale Saturday in a vital Ivy League game before what may be New England's largest football season of the season. The Indians, riding an eight game winning streak which started last fall against Columbia, face the psychological problem, as well as a challenge to its rugged pass defense against the Yale team.

1. Yale is the only Ivy team to have won three games in its third year. It has not been able to beat at Dartmouth since 1953. The Blackman coached team has not been able to score a point against the Indians.

2. The point Dartmouth pass defense, which has allowed only 26.9 yards per game, is the best in the Ivy League. The Indians, who have lost three games, are expected to have a hard time scoring against the Indians.

Nadir Winner At New Jersey To Take Rest

Camden, N.J., Oct. 28 (AP)—Nadir, the speller, was off for Kentucky today for a brief vacation, apparently leaving the 20-year-old champion to Jervis's reward if he can win the $25,000 Dan Patch Stakes at Baltimore Nov. 23.

The 2-year-old picture was scrambled Saturday when Nadir, from the Claiborne Farm, near Lexington, Ky., was defeated by the 3-year-old, Hanoverian, in the second race. The Indians, who have lost three games, are expected to have a hard time scoring against the Indians.

College to Pro Jump Toughest in Basketball

New York (NEA)—The jump from college to the professional ranks is toughest in basketball. The average reasons for this, starting with the scarcity of jobs. There are only 80 of them, as against 400 in major league baseball and 200 in professional football.
