One Voice Makes Sense
Although it is doubtful if many people heard him over the air, the voice of the American people is heard in the voice of the speaker of the House, Charles McNary of Oregon. McNary, in his address to the American people, was heard in the voice of the American people.

Contract Won And Lost
Washington has just won and lost a $100,000,000 contract. It has won it by supplying American private banking houses with the means for financing the project. It has lost it by the refusal of American bankers to have their money go to Argentina.

A Precarious Lif
Marshal Zhukov had power enough, last June, to save Khrushchov from the plotting of Molotov and Malenkov. The general in charge of events then was Zhukov himself, who had already lost one preliminary round. If Zhukov thus had power enough to save Khrushchov, he also conceivably had power enough to challenge Khrushchov in turn, had he not been satisfied and reduced.

By A. H. O.

We have, in preceding columns, gone to some pains in pointing out the parallels between the Republican state situation today and that which existed in 1938. It is a little like baseball on football. It takes only a break or two, or the right introduction of a new man, to make out of the old one.

FLU KILLS DEATH RATE
Hartford, Nov. 5 (AP)—The State Health Dept. today reported a 10 per cent increase in the death rate for influenza and pneumonia complications in the State for the month of October.
