Coventry Troop 63 to Sponsor Santa Three Weekends at Market

Coventry, Nov. 30 (Special)—Boy Scout Troop 63 will sponsor a Santa Claus weekend at the Market on the weekends of Dec. 6 and 7, 13 and 14 and 20 and 21 in the downstairs room of the Market Super Market. Admission will be free but children must be accompanied by an adult. Scouts will be assisting with directing the children during the hours of each Friday from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. and each Saturday from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Everett M. Barth is scout leader.

The troop will take pictures of children with Santa for the week ending Dec. 7. The pictures will be used for general troop expenses, including equipment and camp activities.

Scoutmaster Barth is heading a committee "executive" around for a building suitable for scout activities.

Troop meetings are now being held from 7 to 9 p. m. each Monday at the Market Super Market. Previous meetings were at the Jaycee Glenney Park clubhouse, which does not have adequate heating facilities.

Connecticut Yankee

By A. H. O.

We are no expert on the laws of classic tragedy, but we will venture to presume that the inevitable flaw in the character of the hero need not necessarily always be a flaw of major proportions or even an inherent one. It may be a flaw which might properly be the flaw which sets the mill of the gods grinding, some minor omission of act, some hereditary failure to bring out of the hero's positive virtues to bear on a given situation.

Manchester

Free-love level, giving off a hot breath we can feel, or scattering, in its coat like, lemon, drops we can taste.

And ever since his last victory at the polls, last December, we have been preparing to get rid of him. Now, at last, we have got him out of office.

The techniques by which we have finally accomplished the business of throwing this last out of the office to which he was elected have been a little complicated.
