Andover Boy, 12, Riddled By Shotgun Blast

Andover, Dec. 9 (Special) - A 12-year-old boy, accidentally riddled with shotgun pellets in a Saturday afternoon hunting accident, was reported in "good condition" at Windham Community Memorial Hospital today.

Paul Juravsky Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Juravsky Sr., Andover, was hunting rabbits in Columbia the hospital where doctors pried pellets from a leg and one leg and treated an ear through which a pellet passed cleanly. He also received pellets in the side of his body, but these wounds were termed superficial.

According to reports, the youngster chased a rabbit after he was told to stay close to a rock. His father, uncle, Edward Juravsky and two companions, Peter and Thomas Chovanec of Columbia, had left the boy and circled after the rabbit. The youth was hit by pellets from Peter Chovanec's gun.

State Police said, "The youth escaped the main blast and was hit by scattered pellets. The accident occurred just before the hunting party was to head for home. State Police are still investigating.

DEMPSKY DENIES RACE BID Putnam, Dec. 9 (Special) - Mayor John N. Dempsey says he has no immediate plan for seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. representative from the Second District, Putnam, who is also the Norwich Bulletin-Record Sunday that he believes his "greatest contribution to the state of Connecticut" and to his party is to continue in the same capacity or to be elected to the U.S. House of Representatives.

There are 750,000 owners of pleasure boats in Canada.

At Andover Lake before Saturday, Mrs. Floyd will arrange to transport the gifts to the hospital. A list of suggestions issued by the hospital includes the following: Powder puffs, talcum powder, cosmetics, hairbrushes, handbags, blouses, skirts, pajamas, lingerie, socks, bed jackets and bedspreads.

Items suitable for either men or women include cards, checkers, all kinds of stationery, cigarettes, puzzles and pens and pencils.

Suggestions for men are pipes, tobacco, shaving creams and lotions, soap, toothpaste and brushes, combs, sweaters, dress or sport shirts, pajamas, socks, gloves, mittens, neckties, T-shirts, handkerchiefs and slipper socks.

The hospital staff pleaders to do the gift-wrapping. However, if any gifts are pre-wrapped, a tag should be attached with a description of the article and whether it is suitable for a man, woman or child.

Donations of cash or checks will be used to provide more television sets, a long-playing record, holiday entertainment and parties and toward the summer camp fund and projects.

Church Board to Meet The church board of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will meet in the Phelps Hall in Hebron at 8 o'clock tonight.

New Bibles and prayer books have been received and are now on sale at the church. These editions are intended for both church school students and adult church members.

Local adults and teenagers who would like to participate in the annual Christmas pageant at St. Peter's Church are asked to call C. Davis Calkins of Andover Lake or the Rev. Douglas F. Pimm, pastor.

Manchester Evening Herald Andover correspondent, Mrs. Paul D. Parnell, telephone P-1188.

YALE GETS $25,000 New Haven, Dec. 9 (AP) - Yale president A. Whitney Griswold reports that the Jacob Shikler Charitable Trust of Boston has given the university's Judaica Research Project $25,000 to finance the translations of ancient and medieval Jewish classics into English. The project was launched with a gift from Louis M. Rabinowitz of New York City in 1945.
